“BEYOND THE SU

SET”

*When day is o'er and twilight's near,
As evening shades enhance my fear,
Then through the mist a VOICE I hear*

Beyond

The

Sunset.

*'Mid light of day, I set the pace;
In youthful years, I ran the race.
Now—late in life His FORM I trace*

Beyond

The

Sunset.

*We follow long and heed the plea;
Reach out our hand and take the key.
My one request: "His FACE to see*

Beyond

The

Sunset."

*A promise sweet imbues my mind;
At His command, my all resigned.
In future years a HOME I'll find*

IN MEMORIAM

TERRY STAIRS came to our campus as a sophomore this past summer. He spent his few months with us working on the Farm and Dairy. On October 24, 1958, Barn No. 2 caught fire and burned to the ground. TERRY lost his life in the frantic effort to put out the blaze. While working near the barn with other students and faculty, he was killed when the barn wall collapsed on him.

TERRY'S young life was taken at the age of fifteen. The vacancy which he left in the student body can never be replaced. Our sympathies extend to his family and especially to his sister Shirley, who is a member of our graduating class.

*"The Lord Giveth and the Lord Taketh Away.
Blessed Be the Name of the Lord."*

With mixed emotions we look back to the founding of our school when the Adams family came to our campus. Elder R. R. Adams, who served in the ministry and in educational work at Philadelphia Academy, arrived at B. M. A., to serve as Bible teacher.

Circumstances placed upon his shoulders the entire responsibility of our school, when our first Principal was forced to resign because of illness. From that moment to this Elder Adams has always blazed a clear path of Christian principles for the faculty and youth of Blue Mountain Academy.

It is with love in our hearts and deep gratitude that we dedicate this book to you, Elder Adams, for your dedication to a cause that cannot die.

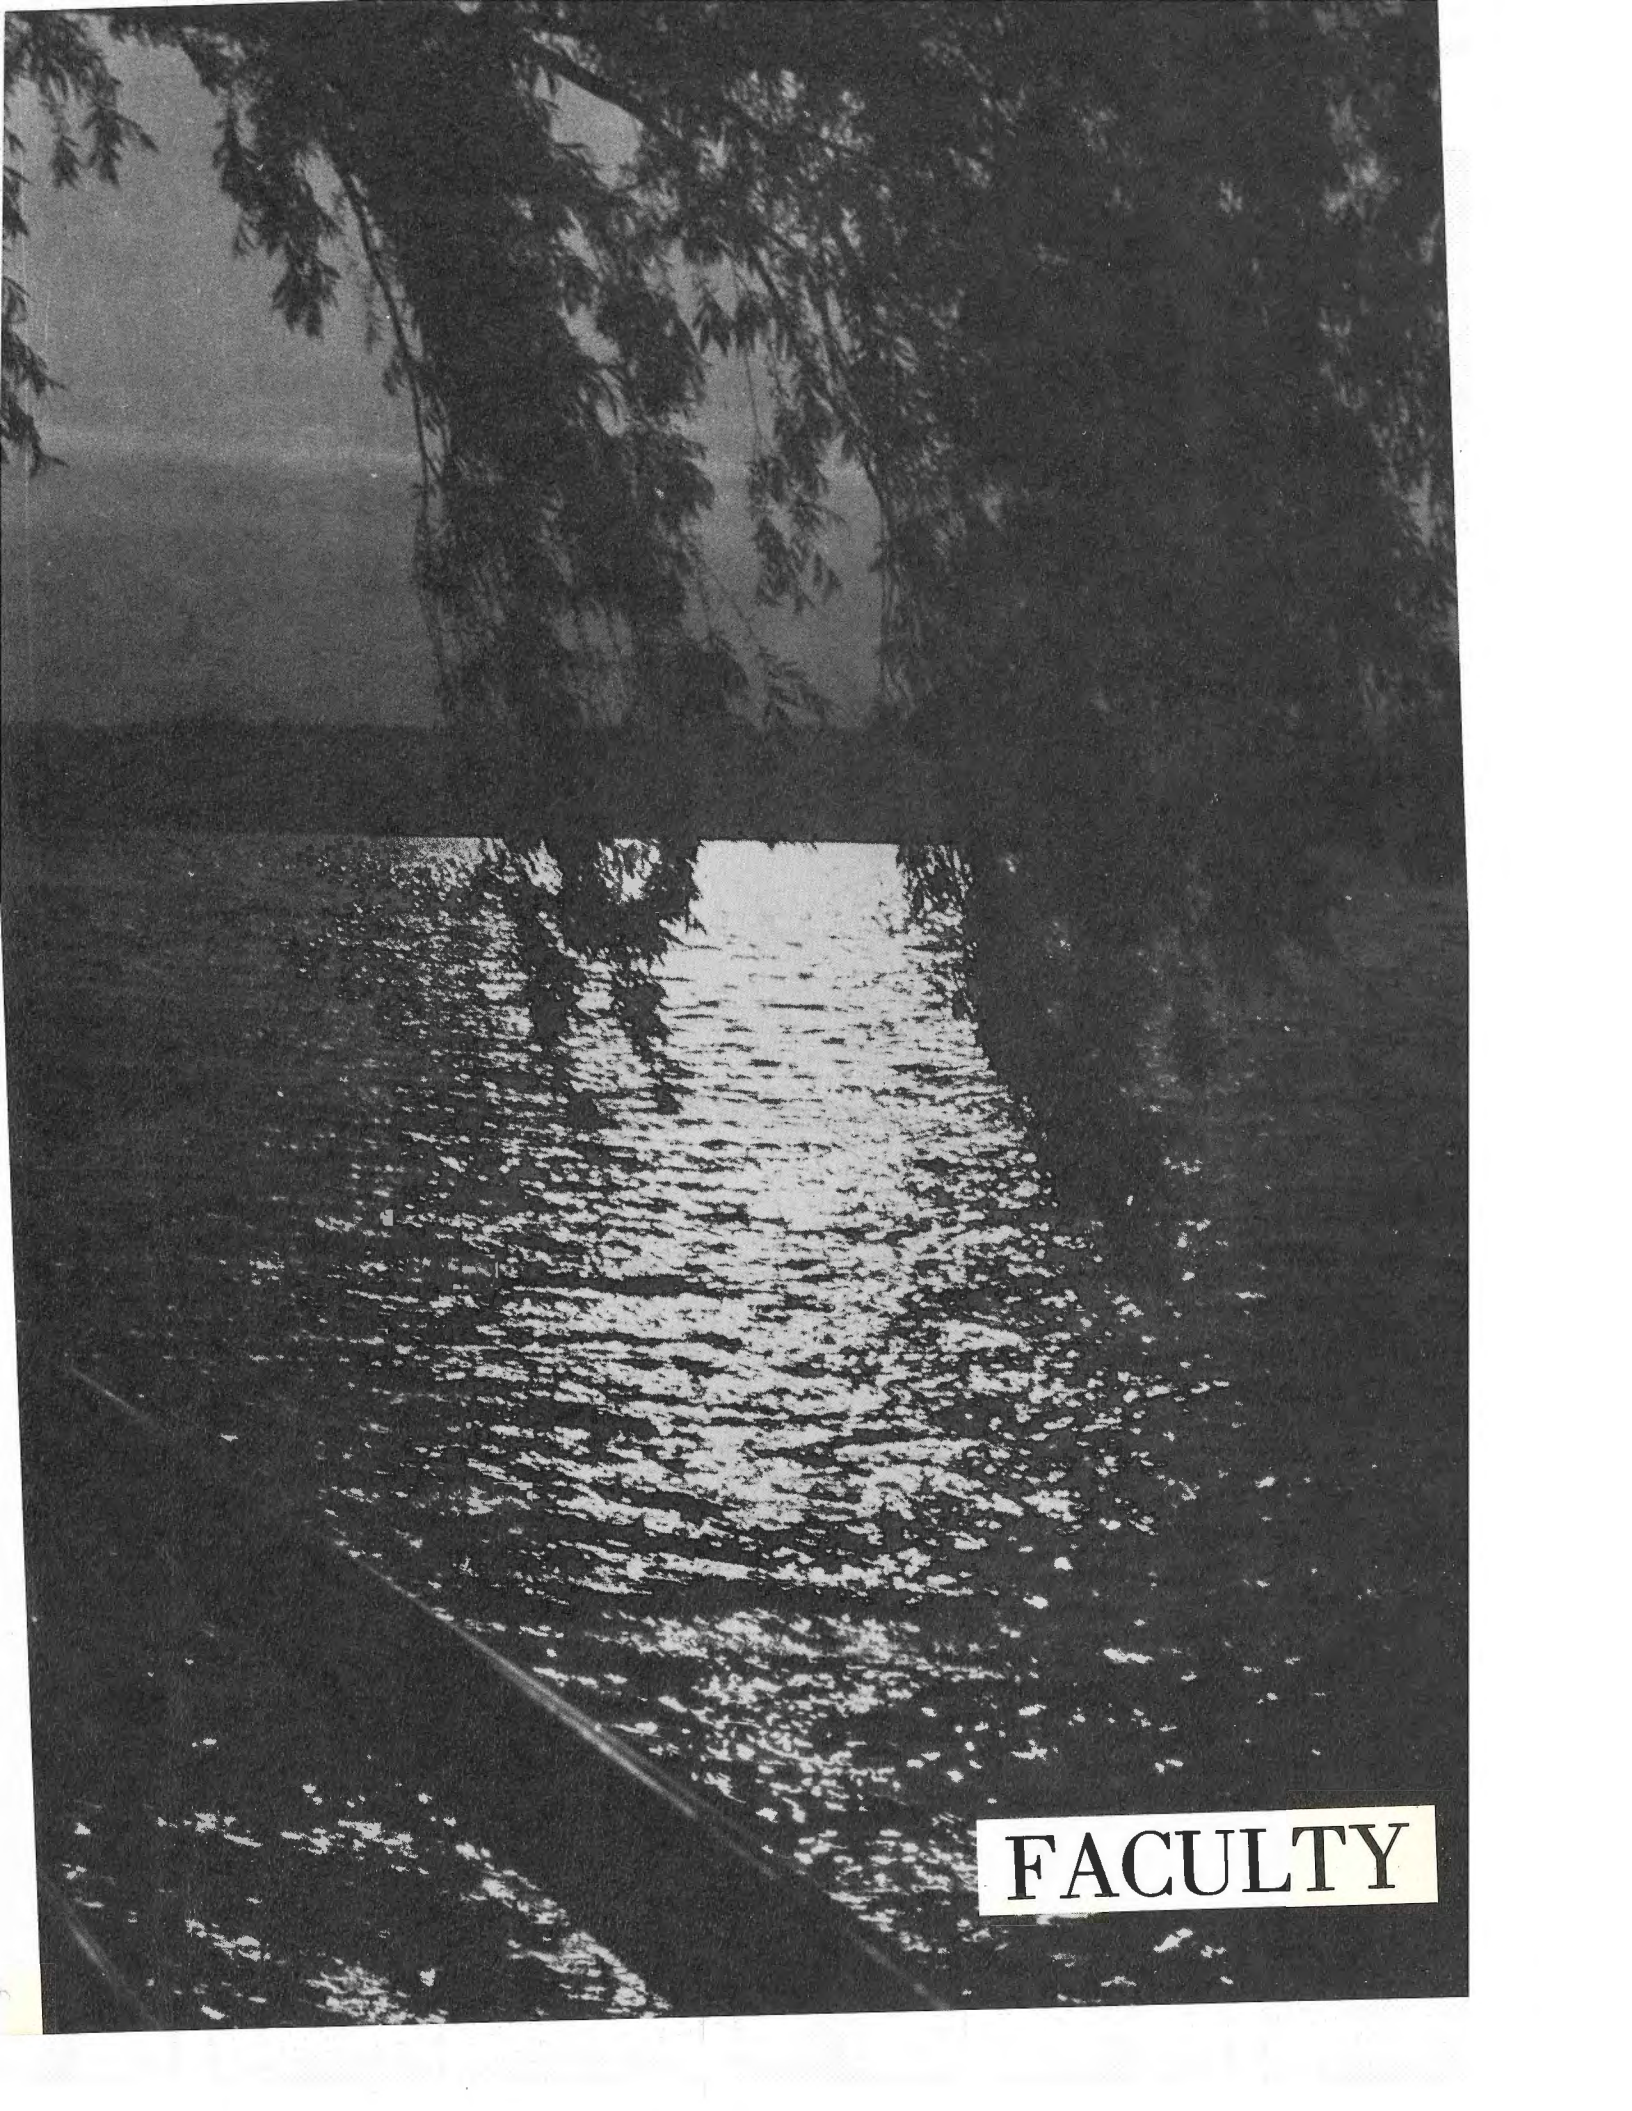

Dear Students:

Between the covers of this book are seen some fleeting but precious moments that will be long remembered. Here are the echoes of an eventful year that is past. Here are the reflections of a Christian school, your school. Seen here are the reflections of a Christian for time and for eternity.

All of life's experience of this past year, your study, your work, your recreation, your spiritual activities, your successes and defeats, your joys, and your moments of sorrow, and certainly your fellowship with fellow students and staff members, have contributed to the development of your character.

Soon there is to be a grand review in which every character will be tested. It is my earnest prayer that when this review takes place, every student and faculty member of Blue Mountain Academy, will, by the grace of Jesus Christ, have developed the kind of character that may receive the stamp of heaven.

"JUST A YEAR MAKES A DIFFERENCE"

Not long ago we were in your place. College was still ahead of us. Yet, no sooner had academy graduation past and we found ourselves signing cards, moving furniture, making new friends on the campus of The Gateway to Service. Since then, we've been studying, praying, working, playing—in a new atmosphere. Seems as though we're closer to life now and futures once dim are rapidly coming into view. All this and more you too will discover in your college life and you'll be surprised to see that JUST A YEAR MAKES A DIFFERENCE at—
