Principal's Message

Dear Seniors,

The time has come when we must say "farewell." We shall always cherish your high ideals, your dedicated lives, your spirit of enthusiasm and most of all your friendship.

Remember, do not be content with memories. Press on until your goals are reached and your highest ambitions a reality. Whatever you do be of service to others—in this you shall gain the greatest happiness.

Best wishes and God bless you.

Cordially yours,
G. Charles Dart

Dedication . . .

If it is true that the mind and mores of a school are formed by its leader, then any recent heights to which Blue Mountain Academy has attained are due to our beloved principal, Elder G. Charles Dart. In the five years he has administered our "Home Away from Home" he has been responsible for the erection of a new administration building, an increased enrollment, additional faculty, and better community relations.

As a team Elder and Mrs. Dart have led in the lives of the young people who love them for their patience and counsel, for their firmness and integrity, and for their devotion to the general development of this school.

To you first, Elder Dart, we dedicate this year's issue of the Echoes, and then to you, Mrs. Dart, we extend the dedication in appreciation for everything both of you have done to help us attain a Christian education.

Blue Mountain Academy Board.

Religious Activities

At the right, the Blue Mountain Academy Church is at worship. Every Sabbath morning the Hamburg community joins the students and faculty to worship God.

Below, David Joost, one of the student superintendents, confers with Mrs. Johnston, the Sabbath School superintendent, concerning the Sabbath School session which is in progress below. Here we see Larry Kiesz leading the song service accompanied by Glenda Sehulster at the piano. David Joost will give the superintendent's remarks, Bruce Wickwire will give the mission reading, Joyce Termine will offer the teachers prayer, and Lois Suhrie will give the secretary's report.

MV

For the first time in Blue Mountain's history, the MV department has planned all the Friday evening programs with Sabbath afternoon activities included. Shown are Sharon Steinke, Byron Comp, and Roland Shorter, three members of the Steering Committee, with the International MV emblem. The sponsors are Mr. Dauns, Mr. Heisey, Elder Shorter, and Mr. Streidl.

Class Instruction

Home Ec. Sewing Class

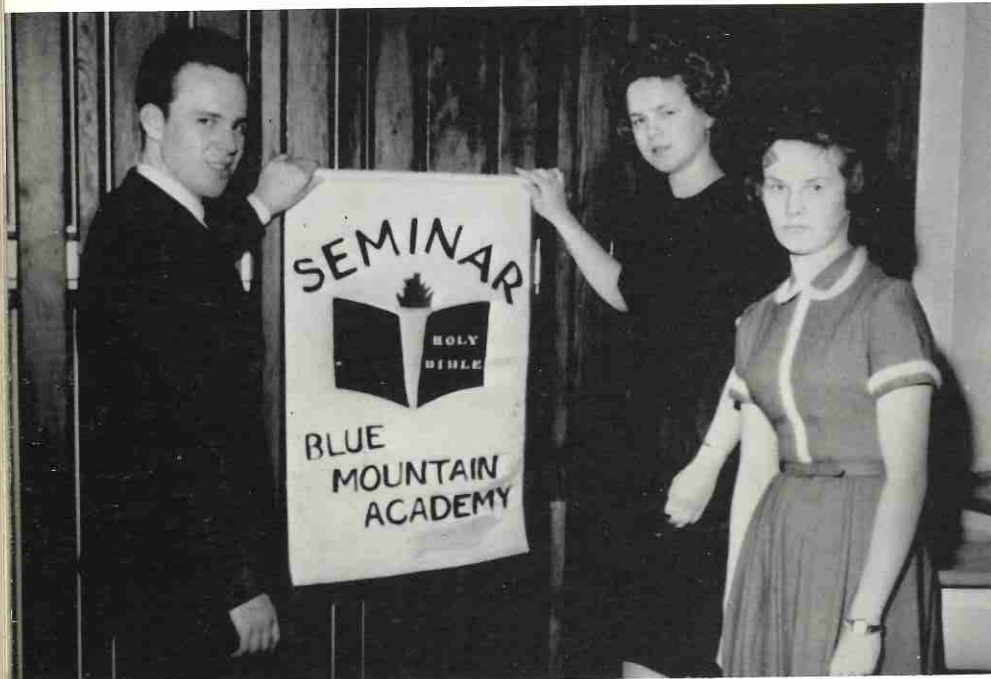

Miss Henderson advises Pat Barney how to sew a seam, while Pat Brophy waits for instruction. Roger Philbrook and Paul Martin take Home Ec. too. They feel that boys should know how to sew a fine seam!

SEMINAR

The Seminar is a vital part of our religious activities on and off campus. Leading out in the planning for the year is Byron Comp as President, Judy Hemighaus as V. President, Nancy Smith as Secretary and Jim McLaughlin (not shown) as Pub. Relations Secretary.

Under the direction of Elder Leftrook and Mr. Summers, the Seminar has formed into three teams who give programs in other churches. They meet every other Friday night and sometimes have guest speakers. The group also plans the Student Week of Spiritual Emphasis.

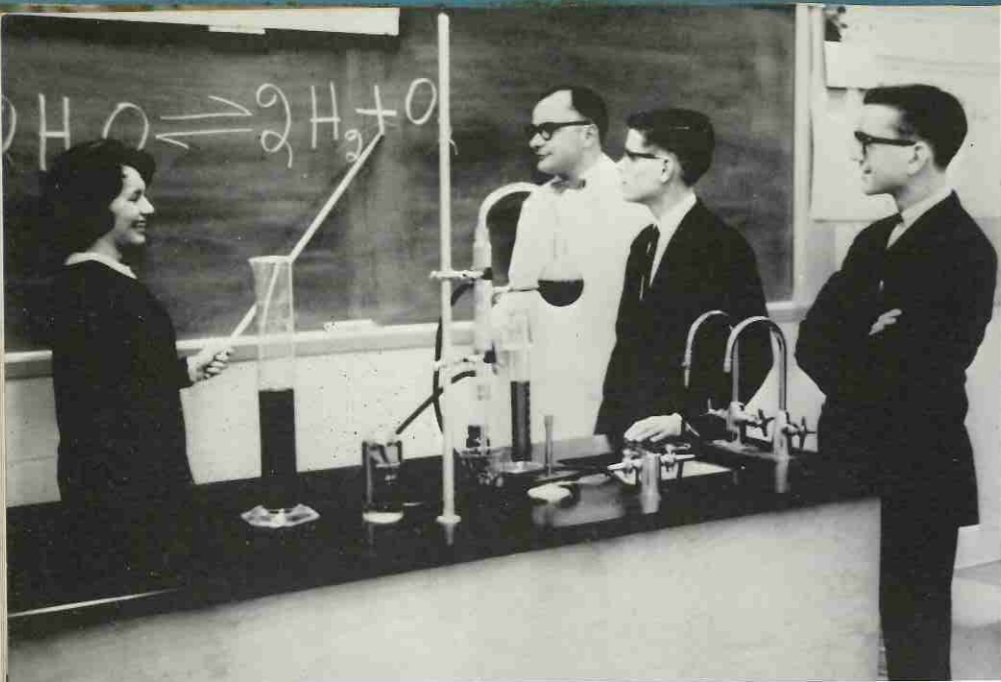

ATS

Our American Temperance Society, under the direction of Mr. Kainer, has been very active this year. Included in their activities are the Poster and Jingle Contests. On the evening of February 1, many visitors were present for the annual Oratorical Contest.

Beside Mr. Kainer is Sandra Sturm, Sec.-Treas.; Wayne Price, President; and Jim McLaughlin, Pub. Relations Secretary.

Nanette Wuchenich explains a formula to Mr. Streidl, Ray Wilson and Jim McNeill.

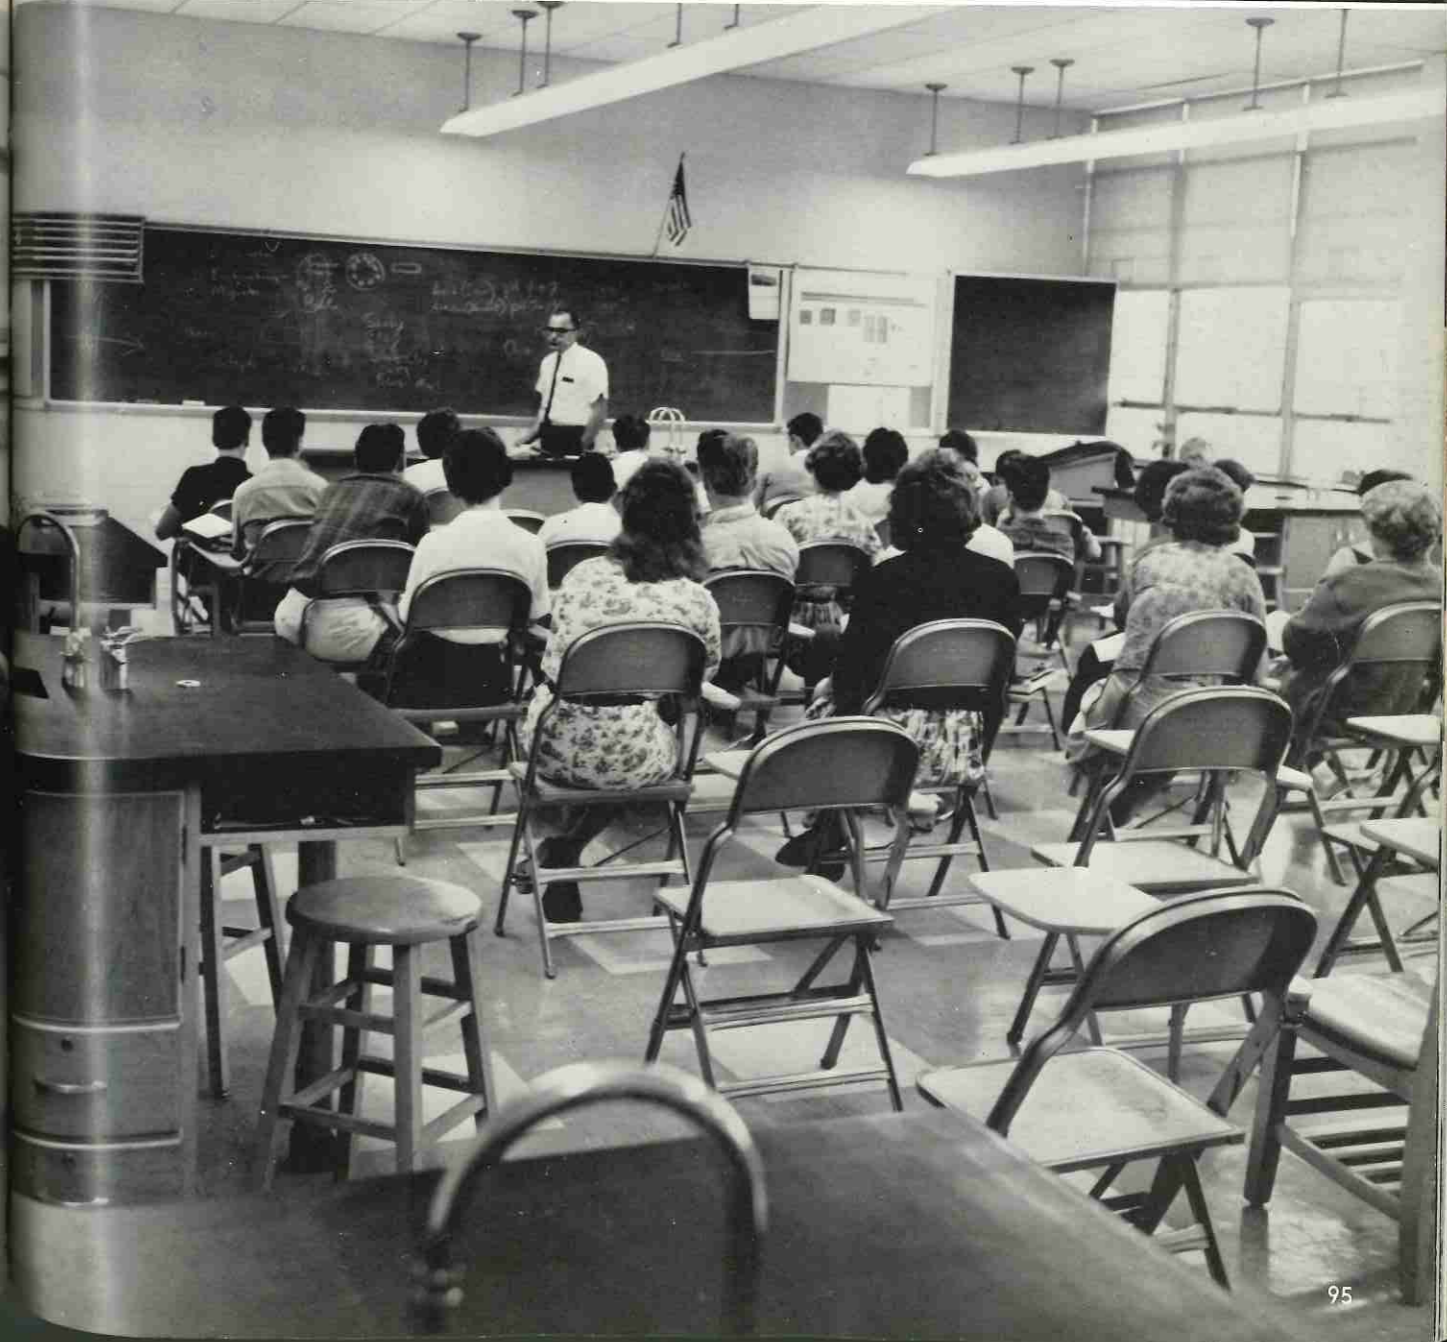

Ron, Jeannine, Donna, Bob, and Jim struggle over a physics problem.

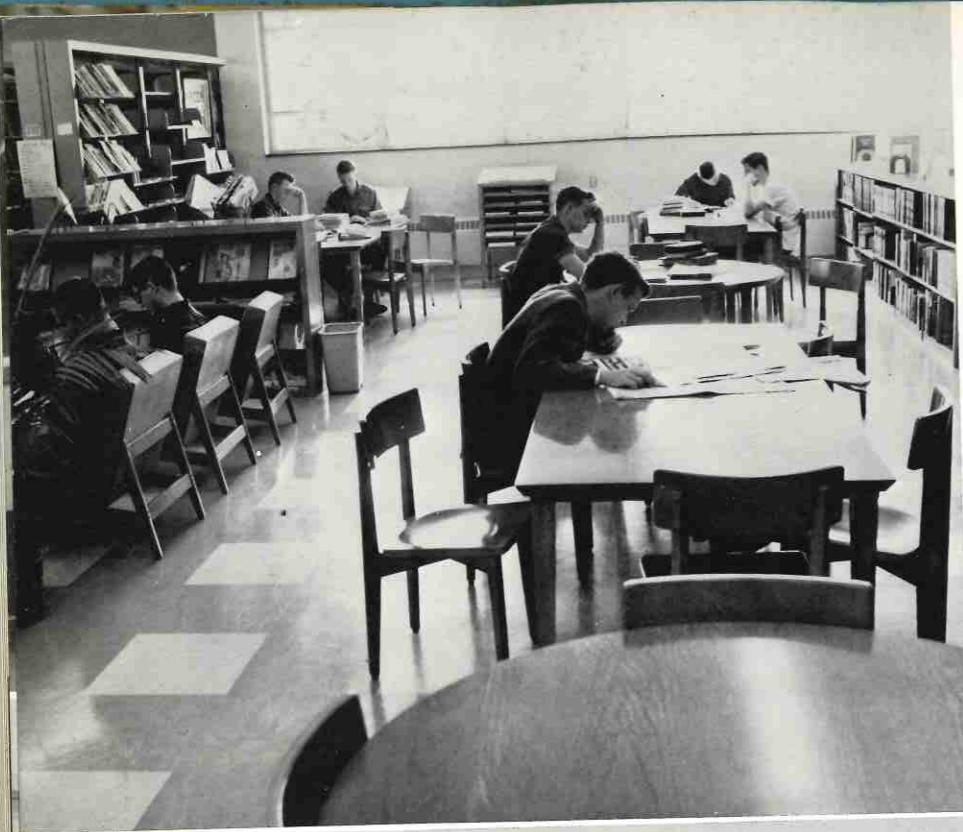

Mr. Kainer points out the importance of Christianity in Bible class.

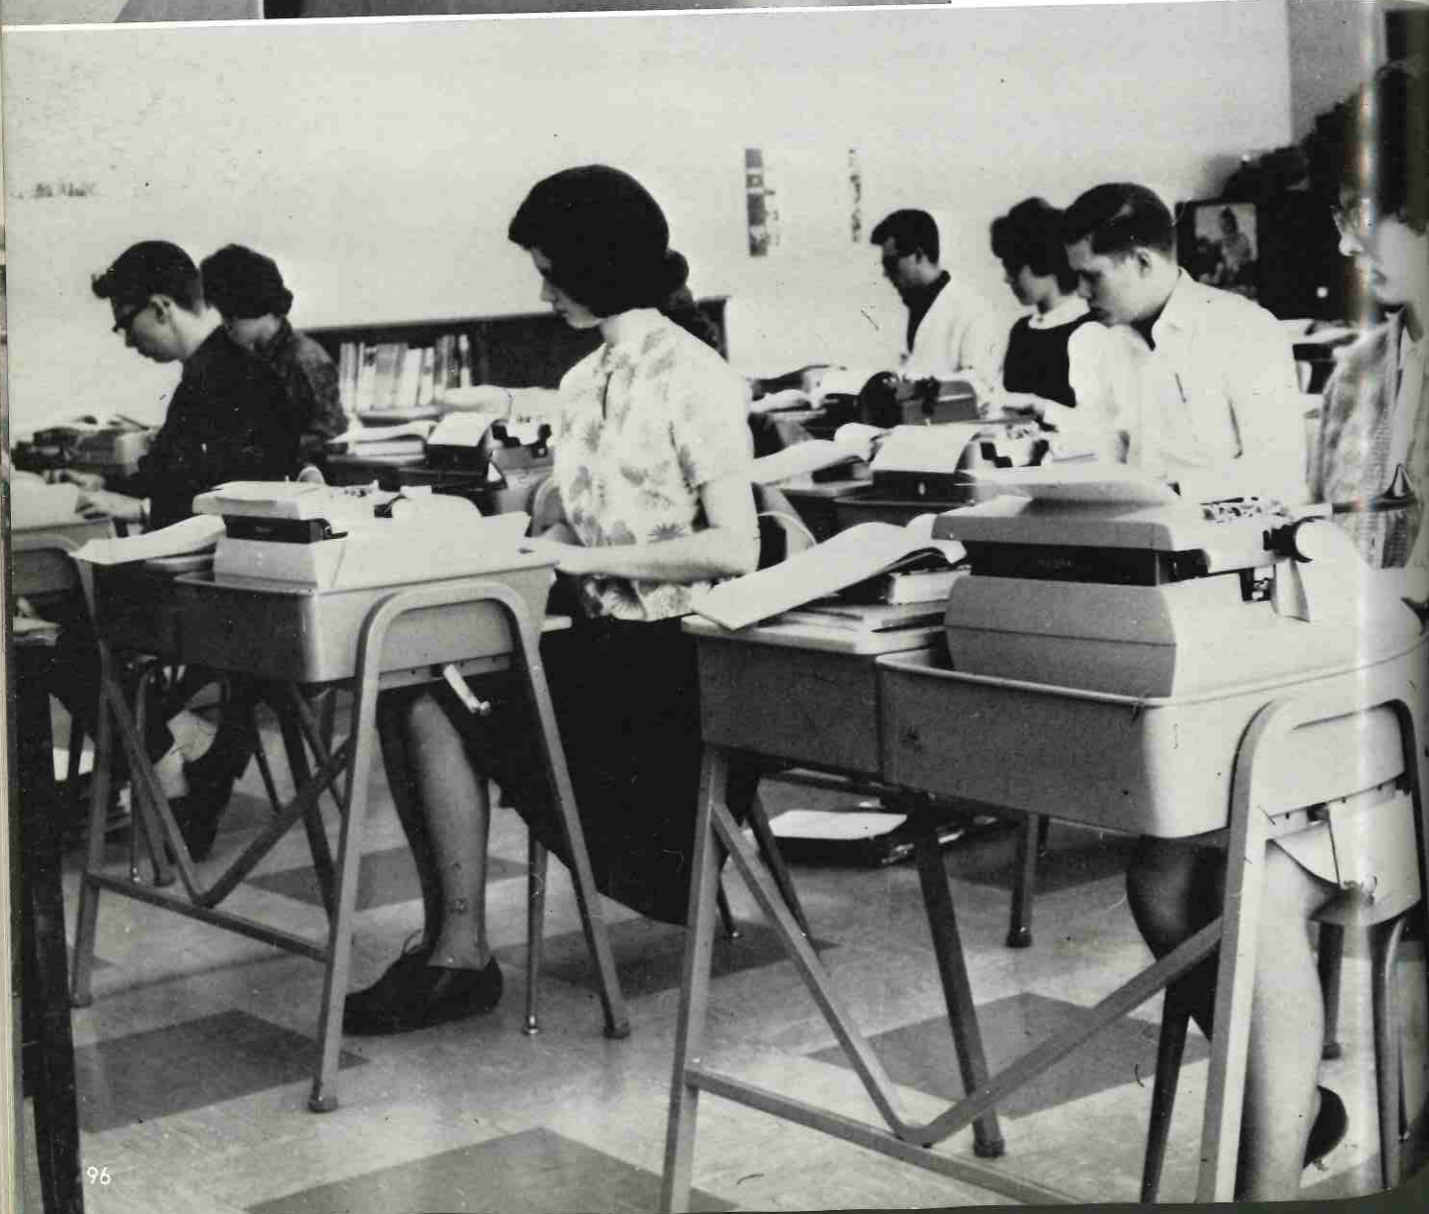

Mr. Streidl points out the importance of the field of biological science.

The successful students can be found in the library during free periods.

Beginners in typing learn under the instruction of Mrs. Summers.

Mr. Edison points out to Jim Maxwell that the note is a sharp not a flat.

Mrs. Edison and Wayne Price are deciding just which Registration is best.

Glenda Schulster listens intently as Mrs. Leftrook explains the difficult score.

Mr. Runyan inspires Jeanette Hoffman as he sings with her during her lesson.

Work Activities

Sandy Schleenbaker, Nancy Garner, Lucille High, Mina Hartshorne and Shereen Shorter help Mr. Summers and Mrs. Kainer with library duties.

Shereen checks out a book for Dick Rowe.

Mr. Leftrook, the Registrar, gives directions to Janet Laubach.

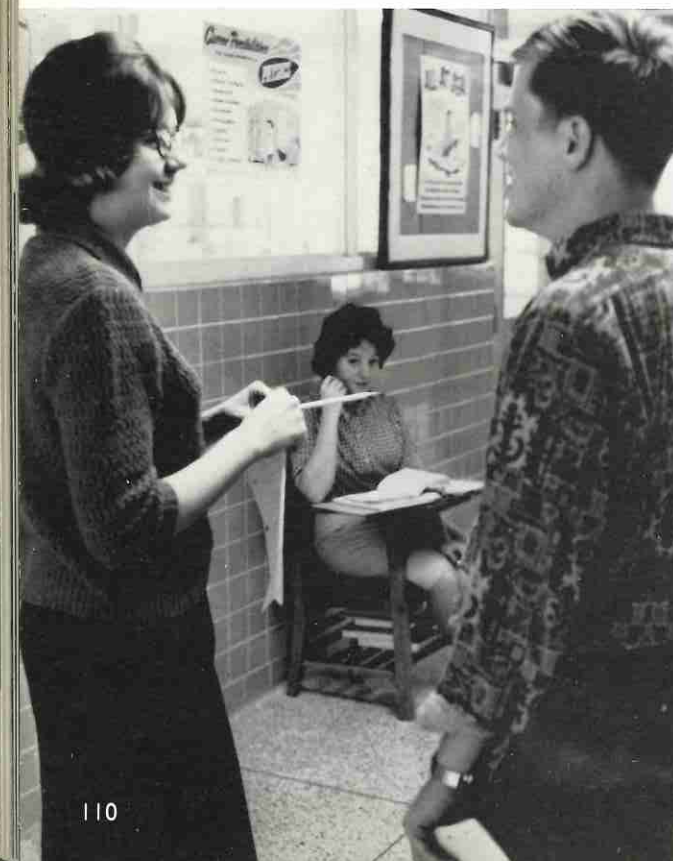

Minnie Sayre and Sandy Bernet help Mr. Halvorsen in the business office with statements and general office work.

Linda McCartney and Jim McNeill are readers in the science department.

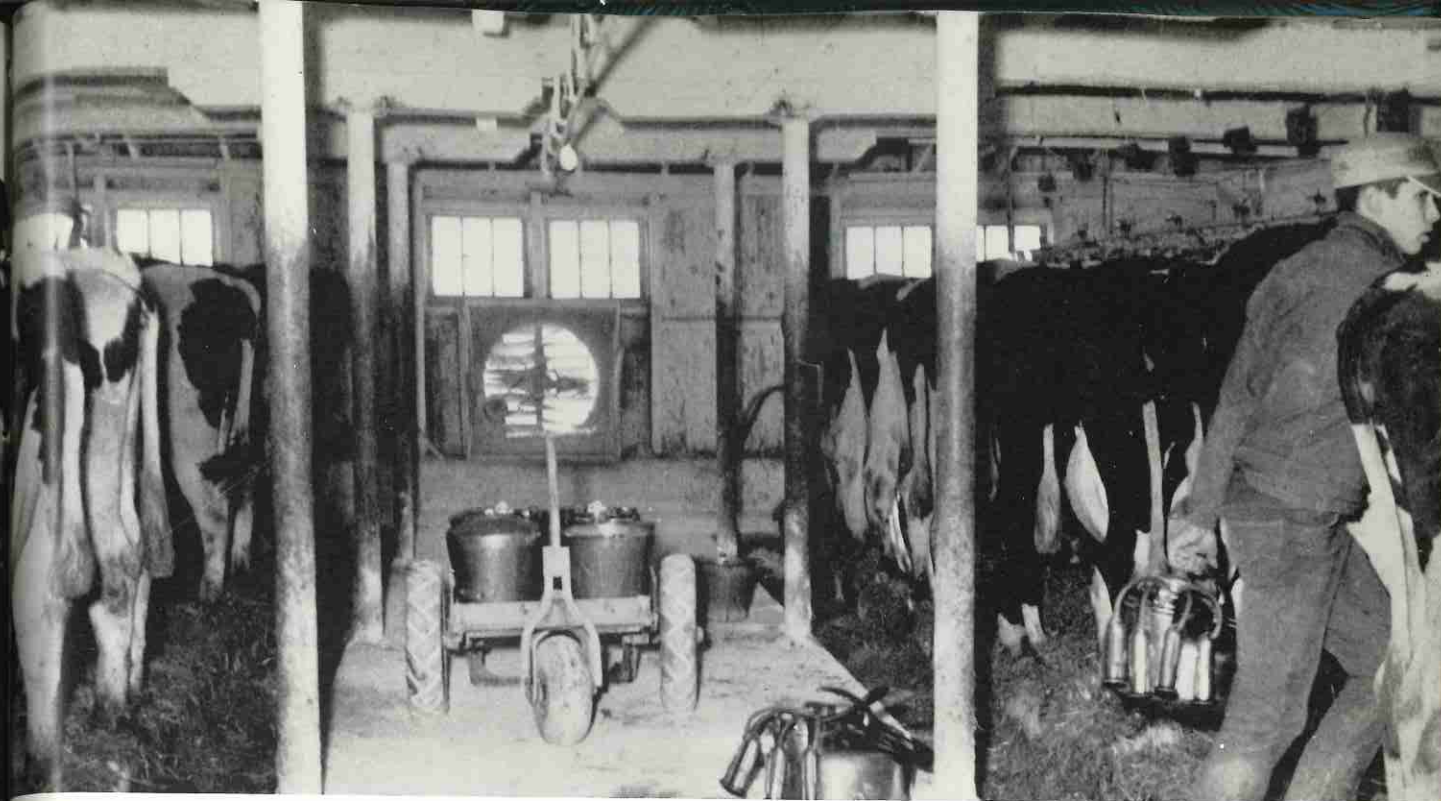

Lunch Time at B.M.A.

Sandy Sturm chats with Jim Karr about janitorial duties in the Ad. Bldg. while hall monitor Diane Thomas looks on.

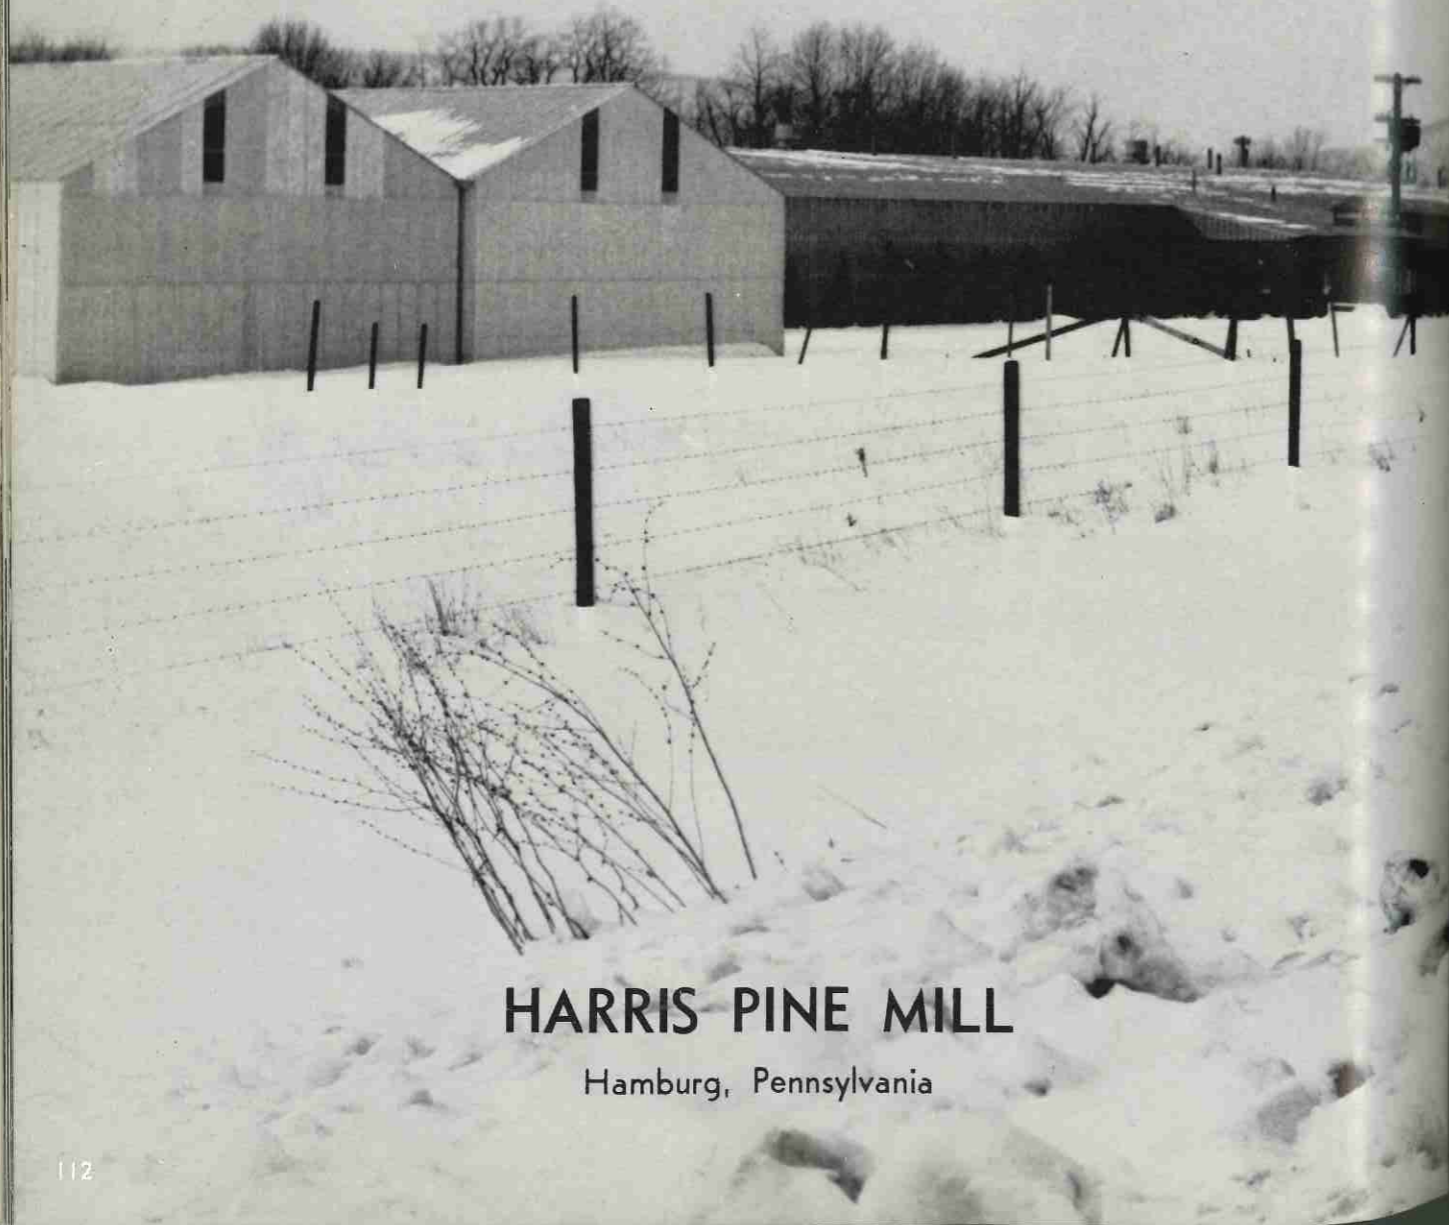

Sgt. Sturm gives direction to her janitors.

Mr. Wallace, our herdsman, manages a morning and afternoon dairy crew. Milking begins at 4:00 A.M. with Gary Gross, Chris Gluck, Paul Purdy, Sonny Bennicoff, Tom Diller and George Kramer. Jerry Stimpson is shown as he began to milk at 3:00 P.M.; John Sparks, Harry Schropp, Bill Sitler and Glen Martin are the other P.M. workers. The B.M.A. herd consists of 43 cows who produce 800 lbs. of milk per milking. This milk is sold to Clover Farms at Reading, Penna.

Dean Upchurch puts his horse "Coney" through the pace of training. Coney is a real western thorough-bred from Walla Walla, Washington.

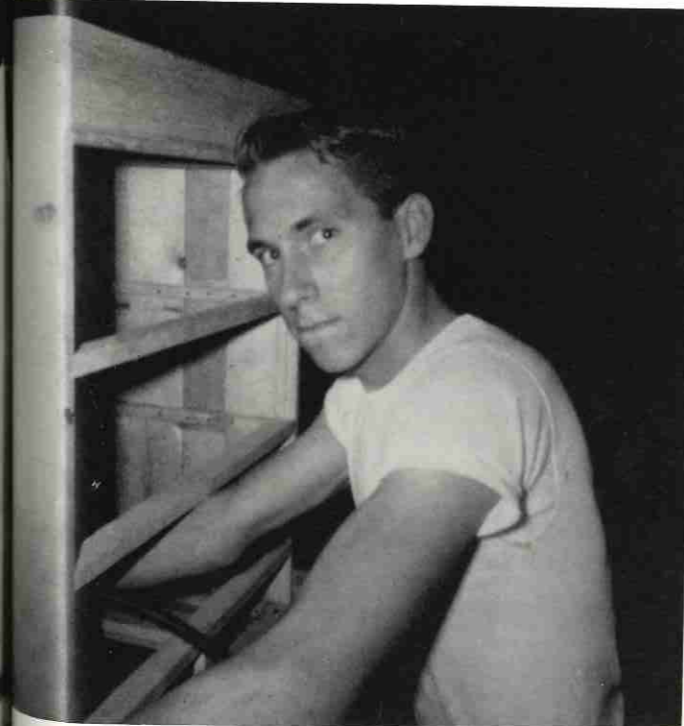

HARRIS PINE MILL

Girls' Dorm

Most of the girls rise at 6:00 AM and not until 7:30 PM are they all "gathered into" the dorm. Study period begins at this time and continues until 9:30 PM. The girls must learn to concentrate because most of the rooms house 3 students; however, in the bottom picture we see 4 girls occupying one room and Sharon Brophy reads them a bed-time story, but Jeannine Reese advises her 2 junior roommates that study and concentration are very important if you expect to graduate from B.M.A.

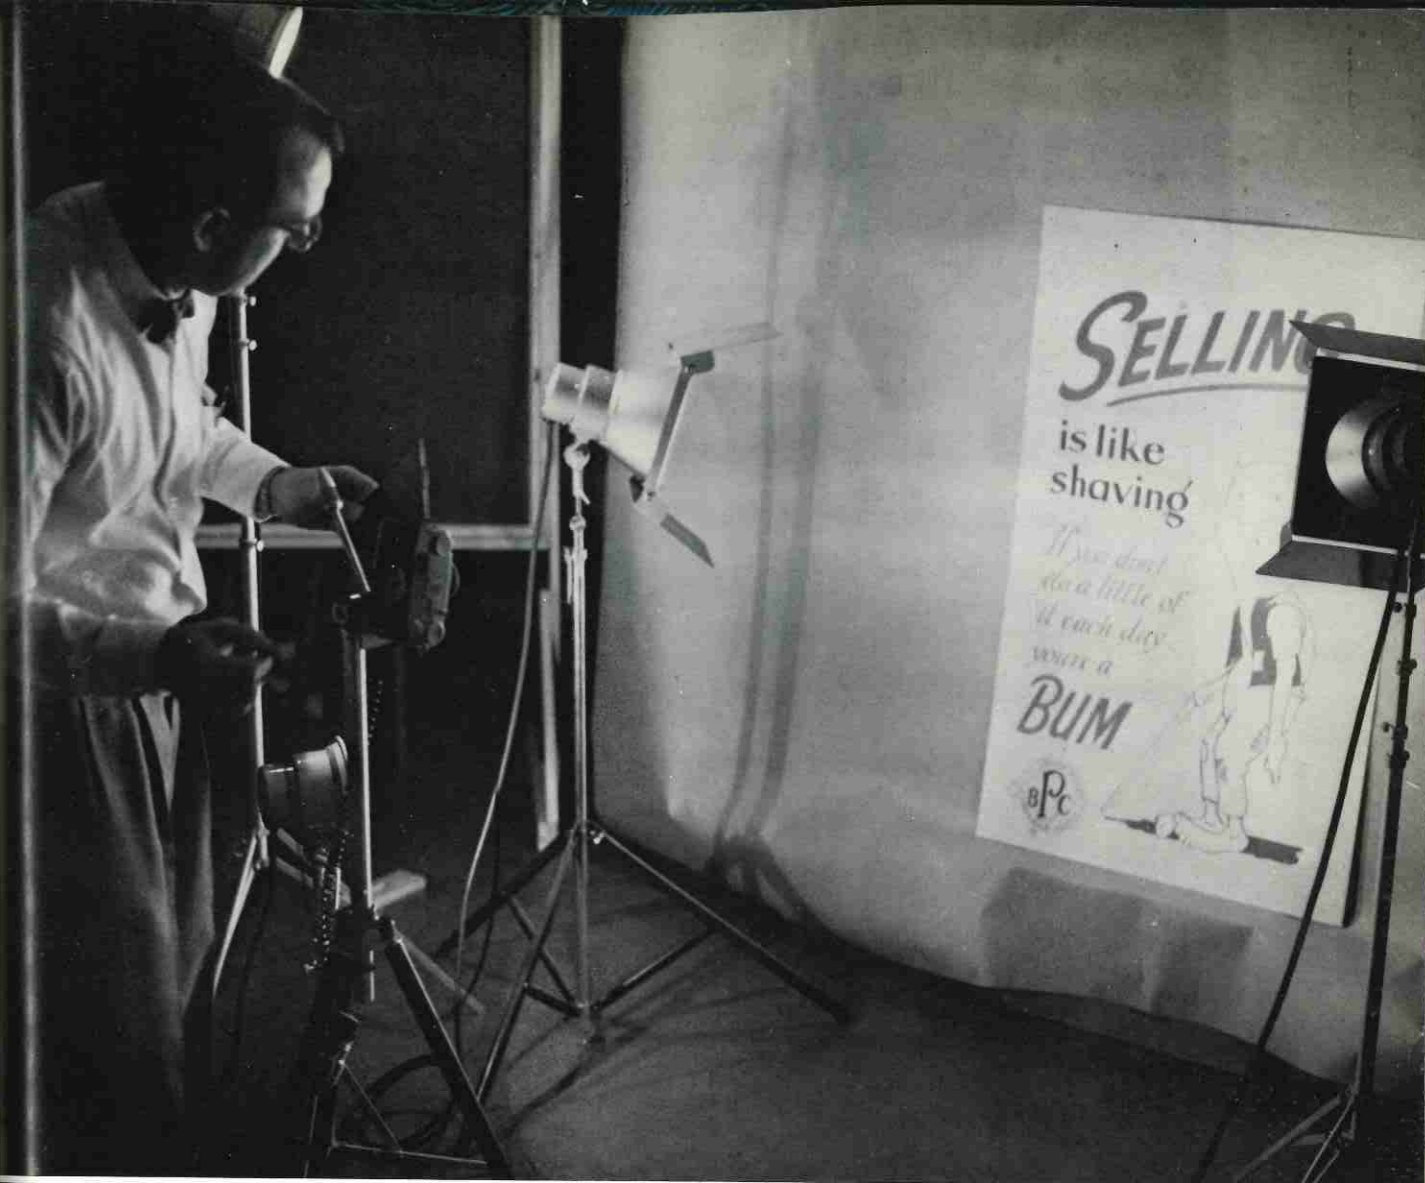

Sophomore Cindy Bordt is seen operating the switchboard during study period. The switchboard is under the supervision of Mrs. Runyan and her helpers include Sandy Cowell, Bonnie Dietz, Vicki Scott, Cindy Bordt, Ann Ipes and Jeannine Reese.

The girls in the bottom picture live in the Girls' Annex. Miss Henderson is mother to 40 girls, most of the annex rooms house 3 girls—as you see in the picture below Jo Ann Campbell, Judy Spencer and Dianne Digman prepare for "40 winks" and wish "40 winks" would increase because 6:00 A.M. comes all too soon.

Boys' Dorm

Here we see 5 of Dean Upchurch's "CHERUBS." Their schedule is largely the same as the girls' and most of the rooms house 3 boys. Ben Helbly and Vic Hanlein share a room but Roger Philbrook, Scottie Johnson and Ed Pflaumer "triple" a room and seem none the worse for it. Rising time begins at 3:30 A.M. for some of the boys especially those who work on dairy, but the rest may blissfully "sleep in" until 6:00 A.M. Study period begins at 7:30 P.M. in the Sylvan Knights Castle and continues until 9:30 P.M. Of course the heirs of King Upchurch, Prince Jackie and Princess Jill have been asleep long before 9:30 rolls around. Queen Upchurch manages her household very well 'mid all these Knights and seems to enjoy it.

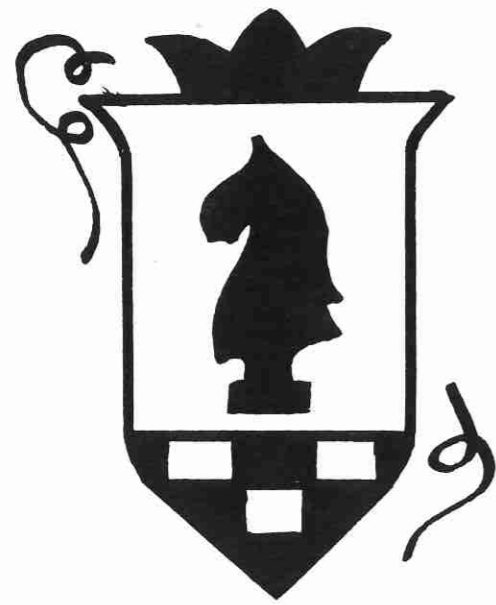

We, the student body and faculty, want to thank Mr. Biehl for his time and patience with us. The success of our annual is due to his expert photography.

A. S. B. CHRISTMAS PARTY

Each Christmas the A.S.B. selects a family to entertain and to present them with gifts. Here we see the 1963 Christmas Party.

132

Carl Grimes just loves to scrub sinks.

Jimmy Page is Dean Upchurch's No. 1 janitor.

Miss Wilson thinks she can shovel snow, but she can't!

Miss Henderson talks long distance to Alabama.

Dani and Rhonda Runyan like to do the dusting.

Jackie and Jill Upchurch play Doctor.

The end is near; the voice we hear of summer's beckoned call.
The hour is late; our leave we take until we meet next fall.
