A WAY OF LIFE

THE SETTING FOR A LIVELY EXISTENCE . . .

Overlooking the campus is the girls' dormitory, and the gymnasium crowns the skyline with its new-born glory.

AND FOR FEW MOMENTS OF SILENCE.

For more than 180 students, the boys' dormitory has become a center of existence, and three times a day the cafeteria is foremost in all thoughts.

At first glance, life at Blue Mountain Academy may appear like that of any boarding high school. However, a closer look reveals a community of students and instructors who are constantly seeking a better life through the help of God.

In a nearly perfect physical environment, the student has only the duty, or pleasure, of living.

The purpose of Blue Mountain Academy is to direct this activity toward the perfect way of life, which is union with our Creator.

PROLOGUE

DEDICATION

Vital to the academic life of Blue Mountain Academy are its teachers and administration. Vital to an atmosphere conducive to study and the perfection of character is their dedication. Elder Gordon Kainer, teacher of Bible Doctrines and New Testament History, is not only dedicated to his work, but is also dedicated to helping the students attain high goals. His complete organization strikes and awes everyone who enters Room Two, while his sportsmanship and athletic ability demonstrate a well-balanced life. Students find delight in trying to decipher his chalk scribbles or his detailed charts. Everyone will remember his "hilarious" jokes and quick laugh, and his profound closing comments after Saturday night programs. Elder Kainer, thank you for your seven years of service to Blue Mountain Academy. We proudly dedicate this 1968 Echoes to a true friend of the students.

Thousands of students would never have experienced life at Blue Mountain Academy, if the Academy Board had not prayed and worked for the existence of this school. Their guidance and personal interest, along with the leadership of our principal, Elder Shultz, has made the school into a place of which we can be proud.

PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

Dear Students:

Blue Mountain Academy was privileged to have had you among the student body during the 1967-68 school year. Your "Echoes" has, for your enjoyment, beautifully recorded the highlights of this year. With each passing year you will appreciate this invaluable store of memories more and more.

The primary objective of this school was to give you an opportunity to develop a sound character.

Many of you chose to take advantage of this opportunity, and it was indeed gratifying to note your progress. Many of you gave yourselves fully to God to be guided by His divine hand, while a few chose to live unto yourselves resulting in failure. Did you take advantage of the many spiritual opportunities afforded you this year?

It is my prayer that you will not be satisfied with your present-day attainments but will determine with the help of God to reach His ideal for you. Blue Mountain Academy endeavored to give you the best education possible, and you can be justly proud that you were a student here.

Inasmuch as it was your privilege to attend this school, it is also your responsibility, in the years to come, to uphold its good name and reputation.

You, the graduates of 1968 are the leaders of tomorrow. Blue Mountain Academy is proud of you and will be watching with great interest as you further your education and then, following God's leading, take up the responsibilities of leadership. It has been my privilege to become better acquainted with you and my pleasure to serve as your principal.

I will count it an honor to have you, the returning students, back on campus in September and will look forward to working with you. I am anxious for your success and would like to commend to you the following counsel from the pen of inspiration, "What is worth doing at all, is worth doing well." E. G. White, Fundamentals of Christian Education p. 118.

May God bless you as you live, work, and prepare for Him.

Your friend,

M. W. Shultz, M.A.

not." Proverbs 8:33.*

Everyone can find a few moments for leisure from his busy school activities. Some like to just sit and talk, some consider Saturday night programs to be their leisure time, and some take advantage of the new gym during every free moment. But then there are always those who like to just plain "goof around."

The life of a student naturally includes concentrated study. He is impressed with the fact that it is his duty as a Christian to use intelligence to its full capacity. And, then, in order to balance his activities, he realizes that hard work is necessary to give him a balanced personality. Whether this work be cleaning in Harris Pine or emptying trash cans in the administration building, it helps the person and it helps the school.

Blue Mountain Academy '67

April, 1968 the erection of a Campus Center building will begin. Located on Flower Avenue adjacent to Morrison Hall, this four-story building will provide for a modern dining room, student lounge, health center, bookstore, snack bar, guest rooms and Student Association offices. There will also be offices and classrooms for the Behavioral Science, Nursing, Physics, and Mathematics departments. It will bring to the campus an integrated center meeting every need of the student body. Added to the two modern dormitories, it will make living on the Columbia Union College campus efficient and comfortable.

Several years ago you began your personal quest for knowledge. That first day of school brought you in contact with a completely new world—a world of knowledge.

But much of the knowledge of a decade ago is now obsolete. It has been superseded by new discoveries, new ideas, and new methods.

Knowledge is increasing at a fantastic rate and will continue. There is only one Source of knowledge that does not change because it is constant. "Seek ye first the kingdom of God, and his righteousness; and all these things shall be added unto you."

The beauty of darkness envelopes a busy way of life. One by one, lights are extinguished, but the beat of life continues while waiting for another day. Some will awake to the same existence; some will awake to something more nearly perfect.

The restfulness of summer dissolves the bustle of school activities. One by one, students graduate, but the remaining ones look forward to another school year. They will come back to the same, comfortable way of life; the graduates will experience the thrust forward into the way of the world.
