Dedication

Because of his work with the youth, his understanding, his guidance, and his dedication, Echoes '70 would like to pay tribute to Mr. Epperson by dedicating this yearbook to him. Mr. Epperson, one of our physical education instructors, has made the gymnasium a place of true Christian recreation and exercise. High ideals have inspired all who associate with him on to greater goals. Mr. Epperson, you have our appreciation for your Christian devotion and faithfulness. We thank you.

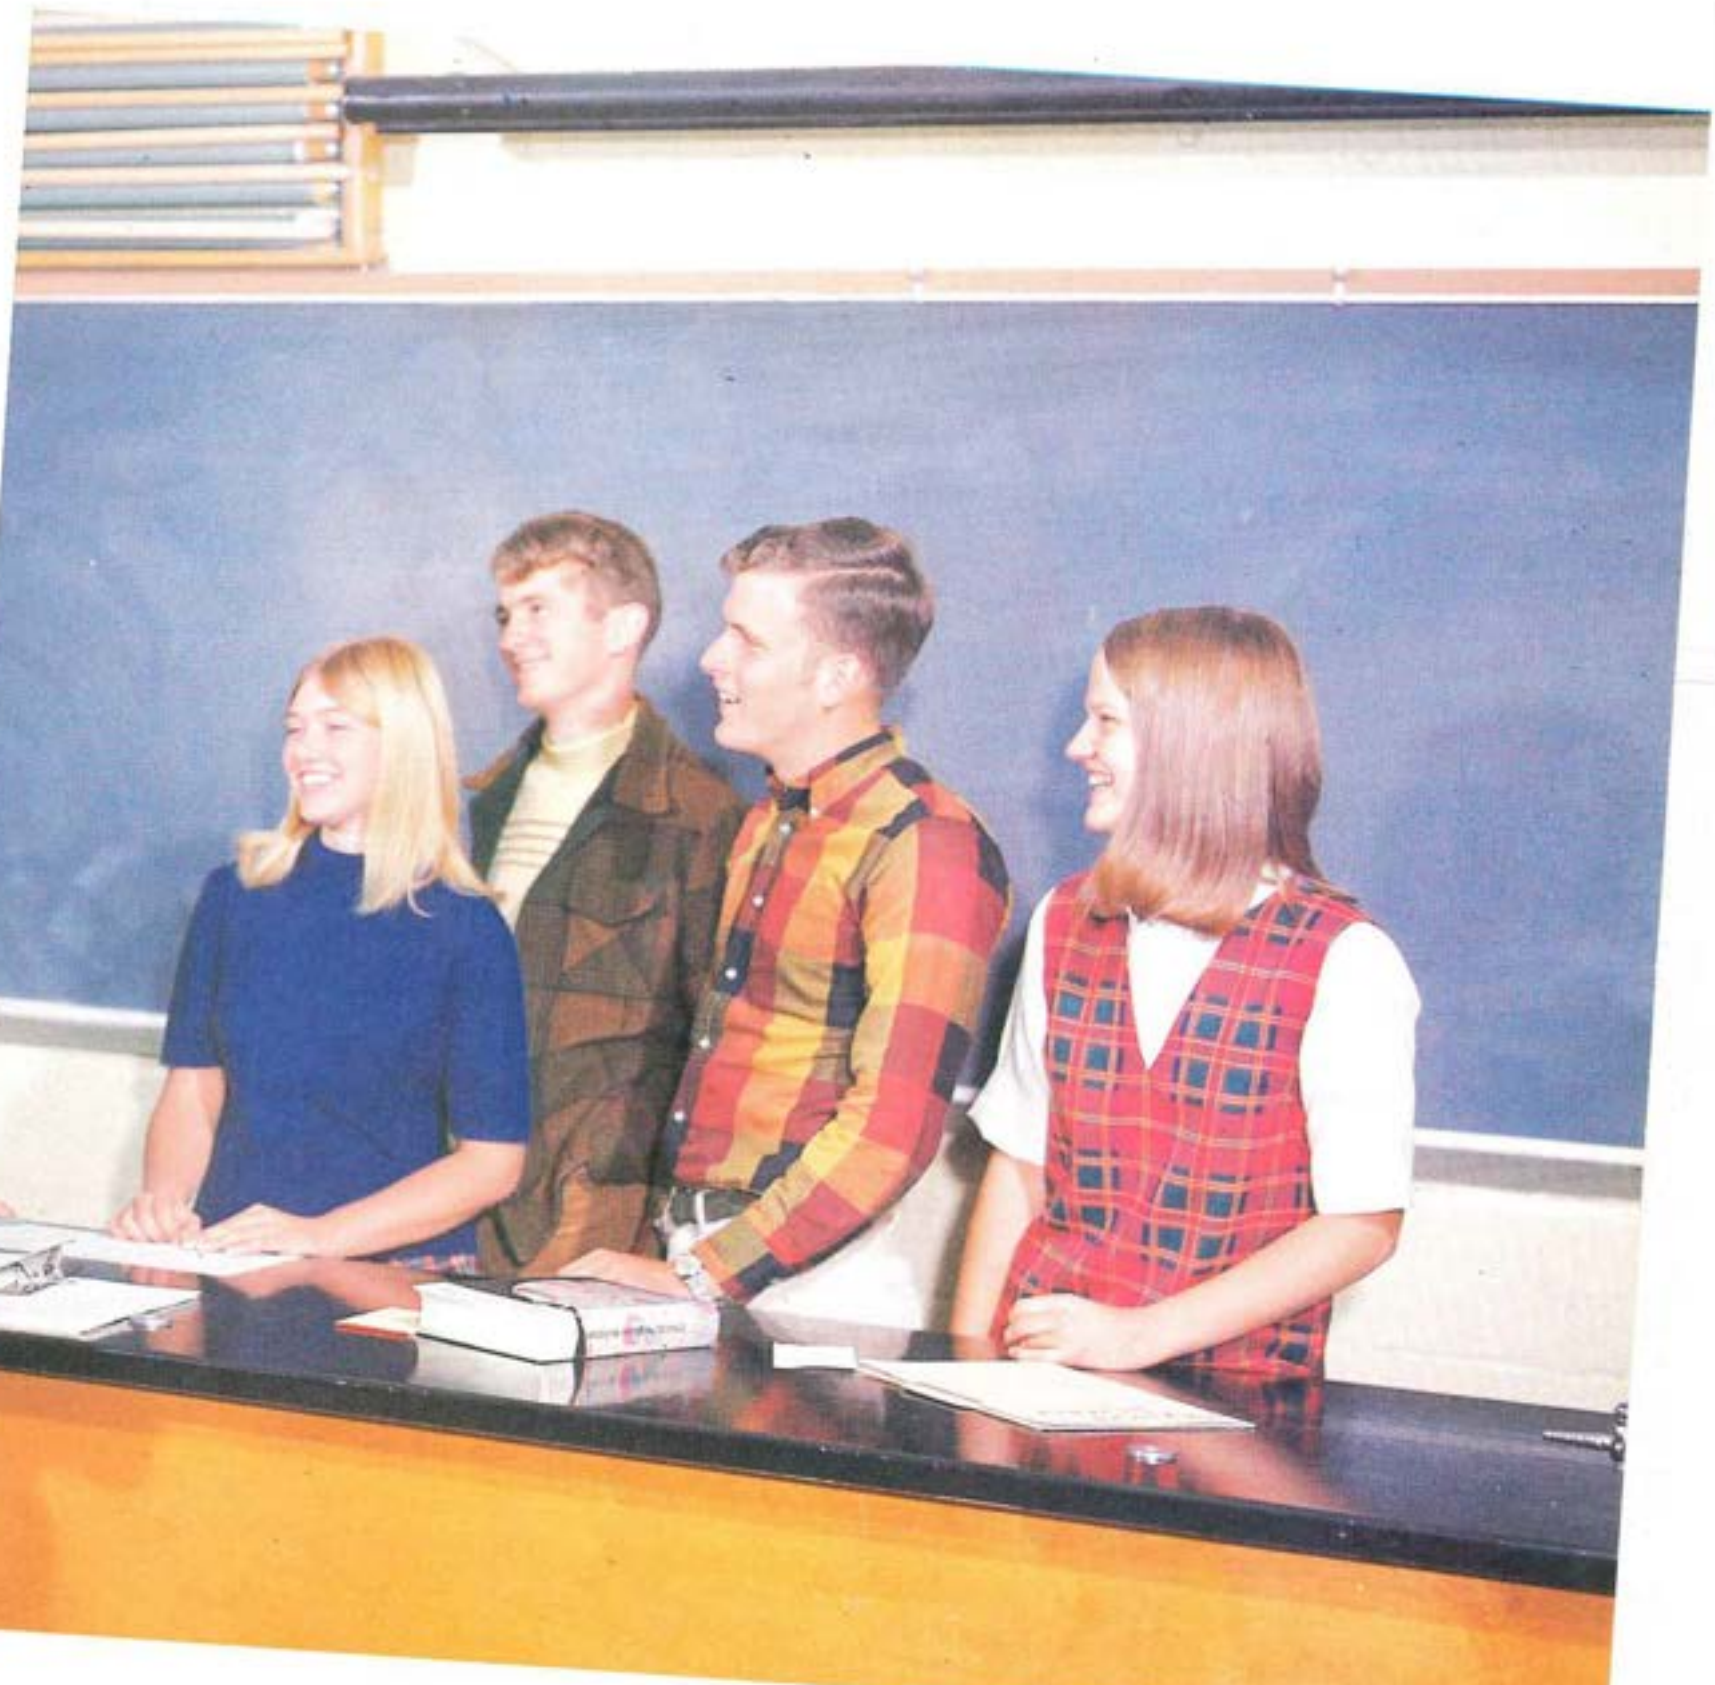

Prologue

A purpose of a school is to bring students and teachers together. The purpose of Blue Mountain Academy is to make a change in the lives of the students by this confrontation. This change is manifested in a Christ-like life, clear mind, and fit body.

Dear Students:

Blue Mountain Academy has afforded you many opportunities for spiritual, physical, mental, and social development during this school year. Your experiences and friendships have helped to form your character and prepare you for a future life of service.

God needs your energy and newly acquired skills to counteract the sin and injustice found in the world today. "The greatest want of the world is the want of men — men who will not be bought or sold, men who in their inmost souls are true and honest, men who do not fear to call sin by its right name, men whose conscience is as true to duty as the needle to the pole, men who will stand for the right though the heavens fall." E. G. White, Education p. 57. Do you measure up to God's expectations? Don't ever disappoint Him in your personal life or service to others.

It has been an enjoyable and enriching experience to serve as your principal this year. I am justly proud of you and will follow your progress with keen interest each passing year.

I challenge you to continue to prepare for that place where "Eye hath not seen, nor ear heard, neither have entered into the heart of man, the things which God hath prepared for them that love Him." 1 Cor. 2:9.

Your Friend,

M. W. Shultz, M.A.

School life is a developing process. The physical, spiritual, intellect and cultural faculties are developed and changed. Every part of school life has a direct influence on a student character. The type of influence depends entirely upon the student.

In Memory Of Ervin W. Truitt

A terrible tragedy occurred on the campus of Blue Mountain Academy this year. Ervin W. Truitt, a sophomore, lost his life on December 6, 1969, when he fell through the ice in a pond on the Academy grounds and drowned. Frantic efforts by his companions failed to save him. The funeral was held in the Blue Mountain Academy chapel.

The vacancy left in the student body as a result of the accident can never be filled. The Echoes Yearbook staff and student body regret the loss. Ervin was a cheerful student, liked by many, and is sadly missed.

The Lord may have allowed this to happen to show us the seriousness of life and human frailty and to lead us to a closer relationship with Him. We must be conscious of our reliance on Him.

Though the youngest and smallest class, the Freshmen are still very important. Their class officers are, President; Lon Hudgins, Vice President; Joan Bozzelli, Secretary; Glenda Manspeaker, Treasurer; Melanie Wuchenich, Pastor; Glen Woolever, Sgt. at Arms; Gary DeHaan, their class representative was Dave Garey.

Epilogue

Another end has come; another beginning has started. We are left only with memories. The experiences received, the friendships formed, the victories gained, and the defeats felt have changed us in many definite ways. May these changes bring us closer to our Lord and lead us to serve others.
