dedication

dedicated to the board:

if it had not been for this expert team, blue mountain academy might not be the fine center of learning that it is today. as dedicated as they are to us, we dedicate this yearbook to them.

dedicated to the bored:

without this sect of realists on our campus morale would have soared to dangerous levels. also responsible for the consumption of most past yearbooks, we dedicate this yearbook to them.

dedicated to the board (of education):

of all three things mentioned in this dedication, perhaps none has had as direct an effect as this. all who truly know it have "felt the board" to be very firm. they know that the board is not an end in itself, but a "means to the end."

PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

Dear Students:

Recorded on the pages of this beautiful yearbook are activities, events and people partly responsible for making the 1973-74 school year a success. Many hours of enjoyment will be yours as you recall the "good old times" at Blue Mountain Academy.

You will remember the beautiful buildings which were provided for your comfort and enjoyment. You will remember the valuable lessons you learned and the guidance you received from the dedicated staff. You will remember the lasting friendships that you formed and the many enjoyable moments you had together. You will remember the individuals, both staff and students, who encouraged you spiritually and the many opportunities afforded you for spiritual growth.

While beautiful buildings, a dedicated staff and a wonderful studentbody are essential ingredients for a successful school year, the most important ingredient is the spiritual growth of the studentbody. I am grateful that the majority of the students chose to strengthen their relationship with Christ during the school year which was largely responsible for such a successful year. As you go through life the evidence of your true success will be your growing relationship with Christ. Continue to grow spiritually for only "those who have fortified the mind with the truths of the Bible will stand through the last great conflict." The Great Controversy, pp. 593-594.

Preparing to meet the Lord is your most important work in this life. May God abundantly bless you in the days ahead.

New Evidence

in favor of Christian education!

You, the class of 1974, are the latest evidence in support of the value of the Seventh-day Adventist special philosophy of education. Your parents, teachers, and church leaders are pleased with you, the product of Christian education.

"[True education] is the harmonious development of the physical, the mental, and the spiritual powers. It prepares the student for the joy of service in this world and for the higher joy of wider service in the world to come."

—ELLEN G. WHITE.

wages ^aten times; but God suffered him not to hurt me.

8 If he said thus, ^bThe speckled shall be thy wages; then all the cattle bare speckled: and if he said thus, The ringstraked shall be thy hire; then bare all the cattle ringstraked.

9 Thus God hath ^ctaken away the cattle of your father, and given them to me.

10 And it came to pass at the time that the cattle conceived, that I lifted up mine eyes, and saw in a dream, and, behold, the ³rams which leaped upon the cattle were ringstraked, speckled, and grised.

11 And the angel of God spake unto me in a dream, saying, Jacob: And I said, Here am I.

12 And he said, Lift up now thine eyes, and see, all the rams which leap upon the cattle are ringstraked, speckled, and grised: for I have seen all that Laban doeth unto thee.

13 I am the God of Beth-el, ^ewhere thou anointedst the pillar, and where thou vowedst a vow unto me: ^fnow arise, get thee out from this land, and return unto the land of thy kindred.

14 And Rachel and Leah answered and said unto him, Is there yet any portion or inheritance for us in our father's house?

15 Are we not counted of him strangers? for ^ghe hath sold us, and hath quite devoured also our money.

16 For all the riches which God hath taken from our father, that is ours, and our children's: now then, whatsoever God hath said unto thee, do.

17 ¶ Then Jacob rose up, and set his sons and his wives upon camels;

18 And he carried away all his cattle, and all his goods which he had gotten, the cattle of his getting, which he had gotten in

Pa'-dán-ár'-ám, for to go to Isaac his father in the land of Canaan.

19 And Laban went to shear his sheep: and Rachel had stolen the ¹images that were her father's.

20 And Jacob stole away ²unawares to Laban the Syrian, in that he told him not that he fled.

21 So he fled with all that he had; and he rose up, and passed over the river, and set his face toward the mount Gilead.

22 And it was told Laban on the third day that Jacob was fled.

23 And he took his brethren with him, and pursued after him ⁷seven days' journey; and they overtook him in the mount Gilead.

24 And God ^dcame to Laban the Syrian in a dream by night, and said unto him, Take heed that thou speak not to Jacob ⁴either good or bad.

25 ¶ Then Laban overtook Jacob. Now Jacob had pitched his tent in the mount: and Laban with his brethren pitched in the mount of Gilead.

26 And Laban said to Jacob, What hast thou done, that thou hast stolen away unawares to me, and carried away my daughters, as captives taken with the sword?

27 Wherefore didst thou flee away secretly, and ⁵steal away from me; and didst not tell me, that I might have sent thee away with mirth, and with songs, with tabret, and with harp?

28 And hast not suffered me ^hto kiss my sons and my daughters? thou hast now done foolishly in so doing.

29 It is in the power of my hand to do you hurt: but the ⁱGod of your father spake unto me ^jyesternight, saying, Take thou heed that thou speak not to Jacob either good or bad.

30 And now, though thou wouldest needs be gone, because thou sore longedst after thy father's house, yet wherefore hast thou ^b stolen my gods?

31 And Jacob answered and said to Laban, Because I was afraid: for I said, Peradventure thou wouldest take by force thy daughters from me.

32 With whomsoever thou findest thy gods, let him not live: before our brethren discern thou what is thine with me, and take it to thee. For Jacob knew not that Rachel had stolen them.

33 And Laban went into Jacob's tent, and into Leah's tent, and into the two maidservants' tents; but he found them not. Then went he out of Leah's tent, and entered into Rachel's tent.

34 Now Rachel had taken the images, and put them in the camel's furniture, and sat upon them. And Laban ¹ searched all the tent, but found them not.

35 And she said to her father, Let it not displease my lord that I cannot ^h rise up before thee; for the custom of women is upon me. And he searched, but found not the images.

36 ¶ And Jacob was wroth, and chode with Laban: and Jacob answered and said to Laban, What is my trespass? what is my sin, that thou hast so hotly pursued after me?

37 Whereas thou hast ¹ searched all my stuff, what hast thou found of all thy household stuff? set it here before ^l my brethren and ^m thy brethren, that they may judge betwixt us both.

38 This twenty years have I been with thee; thy ewes and thy she goats have not cast their young, and the rams of thy flock have I not eaten.

39 That which was torn of beasts I brought not unto thee;

I bare the loss of it; of ^a my hand didst thou require it, whether stolen by day, or stolen by night.

40 Thus I was; in the day the drought consumed me, and the frost by night; and my sleep departed from mine eyes.

41 Thus have I been twenty years in thy house; I ^c served thee fourteen years for thy two daughters, and six years for thy cattle: and ^d thou hast changed my wages ten times.

42 Except the God of my father, the God of Abraham, and ^e the fear of Isaac, had been with me, surely thou hadst sent me away now empty. ^f God hath seen mine affliction and the labour of my hands, and rebuked thee ^g yesternight.

43 ¶ And Laban answered and said unto Jacob, These daughters are my daughters, and these children are my children, and these cattle are my cattle, and all that thou seest is mine: and what can I do this day unto these my daughters, or unto their children which they have born?

44 Now therefore come thou, ⁱ let us make a covenant, I and thou; ^j and let it be for a witness between me and thee.

45 And Jacob ^k took a stone, and set it up for a pillar.

46 And Jacob said unto his brethren, Gather stones; and they took stones, and made an heap: and they did eat there upon the heap.

47 And Laban called it ² Jé-gär-sā-hā-úú-thá: but Jacob called it ³ Gá-lêed.

48 And Laban said, This heap is a witness between me and thee this day. Therefore was the name of it called Gá-lêed;

49 And ⁴ Mizpah; for he said, The LORD watch between me and thee, when we are absent one from another.
