SIGNING OF THE CONSTITUTION

THE UNITED STATES . . . Howard Chandler Christy (American 1873-1962)

"The success which . . . is in part to be traced to the talents and matchless wisdom and integrity of the Commander-In-Chief . . . and to the superintending providence of God, who designed to rescue the Pilgrims from foreign oppression, and in spite of their many faults, to make them a great nation in which religious and civil liberty should be perpetuated, and all men left free to pursue their own means of happiness and develop the inexhaustible resources of a great and boundless empire."

HERITAGE

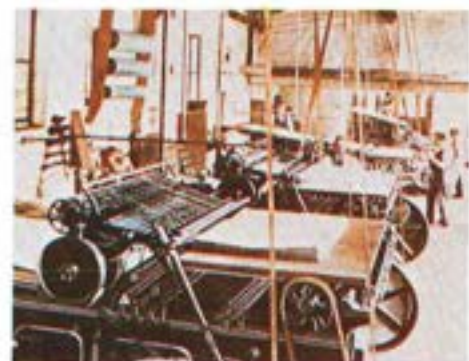

ADVENTIST

A church, first of all, is people. Our church in its early days was men like Joseph Bates, James White, Hiram Edson, and J. N. Andrews.

It was women too, like Mrs. Hiram Edson, who sold her silverware to help publish the sanctuary, and timid wispy Ellen Harmon, whom God called at 17 to teach a people the "matchless charms of Christ."

A church is people; but people aren't a church unless they have something to say, a message from the Lord.

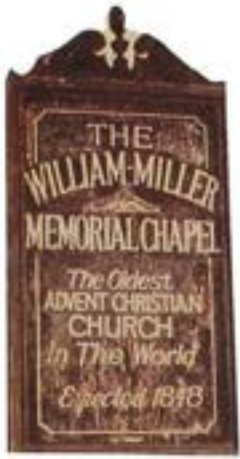

Seventh-day Adventists have seen miracles aplenty. Schools, hospitals, publishing houses established on a shoe-string. Visions sent from the Lord just when needed most. And greater miracles, the conversion and dedication of people, including young people, to difficult, selfless service.

But the great miracle that this church was designed for, it is still waiting to see. The Seventh-day Adventist Church cannot rest satisfied until Jesus comes again at the second advent.

"As God sent His servant to warn the world of the coming flood, so He sent chosen messengers to make known the nearness of the final judgment. And as Noah's contemporaries laughed to scorn the predictions of the preacher of righteousness, so in Miller's day many, even of the professed people of God, scoffed at the words of warning."

"Abundant light has been given to our people in these last days. Whether or not my life is spared, my writings will constantly speak, and their work will go forward as long as time shall last." E.G. White.

THE ADVENT REVIEW.
 Vol. 1. AUBURN, N. Y., AUGUST, 1860. [No. 1.]

"CALL TO REMEMBRANCE THE FORMER DAYS."

HELEN EDGEMOND, DAVID JACKSON, ISAAC E. HOLT, SAMUEL W. DENNIS, and JAMES WHITE, Publishers.

There is a great need of the Review in our country. It is a great need to the people of this country, and it is a great need to the people of every country. It is a great need to the people of every country, and it is a great need to the people of every country.

Our design in this review is to show and reflect the true belief, by showing the fulfillment of Prophecy in the past, wonderful work of God, in calling men, and separating them from the world and nominal church, a people who are looking for the second advent of the dear Saviour.

Those who claim to be Adventists should, in their conduct, acknowledge the same. God is weary, he is weary in having them in the light of the advent truth, one which has made them what they are. No one will deny the fact that it was the promise of the Lord, that it was written in the cloud, that caused the advent people to look for the Lord. If that cloud had not attracted and comforted, who had faithfully given the warning to the world, and were disappointed, when we passed the point of time, in which we are constantly looking for the Lord. In reviewing the past, we will quote largely from the writings of the leaders in the advent cause, and show that they were boldly advanced, and published to the world, the same position, relative to the fulfillment of Prophecy in the great leading advent movements in our past experience, that we now occupy; and also show the advent last week all united in 1844, they looked upon their movement in the same light in which we now view them, and thus show who have "LEFT THEIR ORIGINAL PARTS."

The special attention of the reader is called to the following language, extracted. It is written, based on carefully, and personally, and it will lead you to have confidence in your past experience in the holy advent cause, conditioned in God, and His holy work. It is from the "Advent Herald" for November 13, 1844.

On July 4, 1948, at the conference campground of Westcosville, conference leaders held a meeting to decide whether or not to build a boarding academy for Pennsylvania Youth. Elder T. E. Unruh was for this idea and strongly urged it on.

A committee was formed, called the Educational Expansion Committee, and was given power to act for the constituency in the matter of establishing the boarding school. As the committee brought their ideas to the churches of Pennsylvania, 96½% of the members approved the plans and played their support.

The search began for the land on which this boarding school could be built. Three years passed and there was no land to be found.

The building funds were going down, as was the faith. In 1949, the churches contributed nearly $5000.00, in 1950 less than $1500.00 and in 1951 there was $800.00.

In August 7, 1952, Mr. J. Lu Bausher consented to consider an offer. Bausher was the owner of the Blue Mountain Springs Dairy, outside of Hamburg. On January 28, 1953, the sales agreement was signed. The final settlement was on April 1.

The new owners of the Blue Mountain Springs Dairy was the East Pennsylvania Conference. The land they owned consisted of 667 of land, 169 head of cattle, and a full line of farm equipment.

During the first year, the Building Fund's staggering sum was nearly $220,000.00.

May 3 and 10, 1953, were the first official visiting days to the new school property. More than 500 people toured the grounds of the anxiously-awaited land of their school.

April 4, 1954, was the official "Ground-Breaking Day." The people who participated in this event were: W. B. Ochs, Charlene Snyder, D. A. Ochs, E. A. Robertson, David Martin, Harold S. Campbell, and T. E. Unruh.

Soon excavation was begun and then the construction of the buildings commenced. The Girl's Dorm, the Boy's Dorm, and the Dining Hall, were completed on March 1, 1955. School began in the Fall!

"Servants of God, with their faces lighted up and shining with holy consecration, will hasten from place to place to proclaim the message from heaven. By thousands of voices, all over the earth, the warning will be given. Miracles will be wrought, the sick will be healed, and signs and wonders will follow the believers. Satan also works with lying wonders, even bringing down fire from heaven in the sight of men. Thus the inhabitants of the earth will be brought to take their stand."

p. 612 GC

"The great controversy is ended. Sin and sinners are no more. The entire universe is clean. One pulse of harmony and gladness beats through the vast creation. From Him who created all, flow life and light and gladness, throughout the realms of illimitable space. From the minutest atom to the greatest world, all things, animate and inanimate, in their unshadowed beauty and perfect joy, declare that God is love."

“Even So, Lord Come Quickly”

“And the years of eternity, as they roll, will bring richer and still more glorious revelation of God and of Christ. As knowledge is progressive, so will love, reverence, and happiness increase. The more men learn of God, the greater will be their admiration of His character. As Jesus opens before them the riches of redemption, and the amazing achievements in the great controversy with Satan, the hearts of the ransomed thrill with more fervent devotion, and with more rapturous joy they sweep the harps of gold; and ten thousand and thousands of thousands of voices unite to swell the mighty chorus of praise.” P. 678 GC

DEDICATION

To the pioneers who came to this country in search of religious liberty;
To the men who struggled to develop a nation where each man can worship according to the dictates of his own conscience;
To the millions who gave their lives for freedom's causes; Many generations have passed since your time, but we still remember your sacrifices;
To that small group of men and women who sought and found new truth;
To those who worked to raise a church which would strongly support religious freedom;
To those who gave of themselves that others might have new life;
Other leaders now fill your places, but we have not forgotten the heritage you gave us;
To the men and women who, over twenty-five years ago, had a dream of a school where their young people could be taught of God;
To those who sacrificed to make that dream a reality;
To the parents and staff who have tried to teach us of the Man who gives real freedom;
To all of you, the founders and supporters of religious liberty, we dedicate this album.

Principal's MESSAGE

Dear Students,

It has been a privilege to have you as students at Blue Mountain Academy this year. I have especially appreciated your positive attitude, your spirit of cooperation and sense of dedication. Blue Mountain Academy has been made a much better school because of your contribution. You will recall the wonderful time you had at BMA as you leaf through the pages of this beautiful yearbook in the days ahead.

The staff has endeavored to give you every opportunity to grow spiritually this year. Some of you have accepted Christ for the first time while others have rededicated their lives to Him. This spiritual growth on campus has resulted in a very positive year. I pray that you have taken full advantage of the spiritual opportunities and are daily preparing to meet Jesus when he comes in the very near future. Christ's work as our intercessor will soon be completed and He will declare, "He that is unjust, let him be unjust still; and he which is filthy, let him be filthy still; and he that is righteous; let him be righteous still; and he that is holy, let him be wholly still." Revelation 22:11.

Jesus has gone to prepare a place for each one where the "ever-flowing streams, clear as crystal, and beside them waving trees cast their shadows upon the paths prepared for the ransomed of the Lord. There the widespreading plains swell into hills of beauty, and the mountains of God rear their lofty summits. On those peaceful plains, beside those living streams, God's people, so long pilgrims and wanderers, shall find a home."

"My people shall dwell in a peaceful habitation, and in sure dwellings, and in quiet resting places. Violence shall no more be heard in thy land, wasting nor destruction within thy borders; but thou shalt call thy walls salvation, and thy gates Praise. They shall build houses, and inhabit them; and they shall plant vineyards, and eat the fruit of them. They shall not build, and another inhabit; they shall not plant, and another: . . . Mine elect shall long enjoy the work of their hands." Great Controversy, p. 675

Where have you chosen to spend eternity? Will you be ready when Jesus comes? It has been a thrilling experience for me to assist you in your educational and spiritual development this year, and I pray that you will remain faithful to your commitment to meet Jesus in the near future.

M. W. Shultz, Ed. D.

REGISTRATION

Long lines, hot and tired feet, strange faces and "mug shots" are some of the memories of registration day. It was August 28, anytime between 8 a.m. and 6 p.m. that students and parents lined up in front of the west entrance hall to pick up their blue registration forms. This was one of the many stations that constituted the registration process. It was here that you received vital information and also had your card endorsed by the people responsible for each area.

Station I was where the Preview pictures were taken. This was sponsored by the Student Association so the camera was operated by Randy Williams and Brad Easter, two of the S.A. officers. After the pictures, financial problems were taken care of by Mr. Standish and his workers.

Mr. M. L. Whiting, our new vice principal, assigned jobs to students and made sure that signed work papers, birth certificates, and social security numbers were filed for everyone.

Stations IV, V, and VI were Career Education, class schedules and music, respectively. The schedule line, being the longest, was bypassed most often by those who became impatient with waiting. At station VII, we financially supported our classes by paying our dues.

Height and weight measurements, taken at the school clinic, were done by Mrs. Shobe and Mrs. Wentland.

The last step of registration was to find our respective dorms and check in, but this wasn't all. To try and familiarize ourselves with all those strange faces, the annual Student/Faculty handshake was held in the gym on August 29. Of course, most of us forgot what name goes with what face, but there is always one face at least that you will remember.

HOUSE

OPEN

"New England" was the theme of this year's Girls' Open House-Boys' Reception which began at 6:00 p.m., November 6, 1977. The cafeteria, first meeting place of the evening had been decorated by the boys' dorm. The main attractions were an old-fashioned buggy and an authentic covered bridge where food could be procured. A delicious choice of foods was provided. They included rolls, salad, fritters, scallops, baked beans, and dessert.

After the meal there was a tour of Ellis Hall. Each floor was decorated as a New England state:

Senior floor—ski lodge in Vermont.

Freshman floor— sea wharf in Massachusetts.

The tour concluded, the boys voted the floor that best represented New England. Junior floor came out the winner.

To complete the evening, the boys' club showed the movie "Lieutenant Robinson Crusoe," starring Dick Van Dyke.

HOUR

AMATEUR

On December 3, 1977 in the BMA gymnasium, Ho Sigma Kappa presented "People". This was the title given to the Old Fashioned Amateur Hour. Trenton Schwarzer, Boy's Club President, started off the evening with the welcome and by introducing the Masters of Ceremonies, our beloved deans, Mr. Wayne Wentland and Mr. Gary Sudds.

A person in the audience might well have forgotten that he was in Hamburg instead of Hollywood. The live music by the BMA Cantabile, and the great acts were of a super special quality. Skits of all kinds to vocal solos, duets and trios to instrumental numbers was the scope of the program.

The highlight of the evening was when the guest artist performed. After a year of voice lessons from Mr. Karpenko, Mr. Sudds sang his rendition of "How to Embarrass Yourself in Front of 1000 People." At least that's the way it ended up!

Amateur Hour 1977 was a great success, and a lot is due to the good stage crew and P.A. men. Also, let's not forget Rodney Becker's spotlight.

Senior Recognition

There was excitement in the air among the Seniors during the weekend of November 18-20, 1977. This special weekend was Senior Recognition, an event totally devoted to the Seniors of 1978.

The program started Friday night with Vespers. There was a speech Choir led by Mr. Heisey and singing by Cellirose Johnson, Jan Egbert, and Christy Simpson. The message for the evening was given by Colin Cook.

The Church service the next day was also by the Seniors. Scott Gardner, the Senior Class president gave his opening remarks; then the Choir did two songs. The sermon was given by Robert Dunn, The Senior Class sponsor, who spoke on keeping our eyes on Christ and relying on God so we may become like Him.

Saturday night the chapel was filled to capacity! It seemed that proud parents and friends just couldn't stay away. Linda Whiting the Senior Class vice-president welcomed all and assured everyone of a pleasant evening of enjoying the "great Senior Talent." There were vocal and instrumental performances to please those of the most discriminating tastes.

Elder C.C. Weis told of a personal experience of how God protected him during a dangerous time in his life. Scott Gardner gave his response, "I accept this challenge to show the school and the whole world that there hasn't been a class like ours before—a great senior class!

The seniors then stood and sang their class song "Nadia's Theme"

CHRISTMAS PARTY

Saturday night marked an event destined to go down in the annals of BMA as one of the most exciting events in school history. What am I referring to? None other than the annual S.A. Christmas Party.

The party started at 7:00 with games in the gym led by Coach Reading and Mr. Aumack. Then the students sat down and were entertained by the Bel Canto singers doing a rendition of "The Twelve Days of Christmas." Then Cristy Simpson sang a song entitled "Christmas Is A Feeling" with a generous assist by Shirley Borsuk and Cathy Adams. After that we heard a tape dealing with the meaning of Christmas from the point of view of a Christmas tree and that jolly old man with the antlers, oops red suit. (Sorry Steve)

Following this the students retired to the chapel to watch cartoons. Then came the fun part. Ice-cream Sundaes were served from the Home-Ec. room to the hungry clamoring students. After a round of eating and general merrymaking the students went back to the chapel to see a film entitled, "One Little Indian." Of course, the party was made complete by a visit from St. Nicholas who "Ho Ho Hoed" his way into the hearts of everyone there. Santa had gifts of candy for all and a privileged few got the honor of sitting on Kris Kringle's lap. Some of these were Coach Reading, Mr. Beagles, Mr. Karpenko and Larry, Mrs. Whiting, Dr. Shultz, and Stacy McQuistan. No one knew who Santa was but there were some rumors of soap Suds and bubbles at the bottom of his bag of toys.

VALENTINES

On the weekend of February the 11th. and 12th., when Cupid was busy shooting arrows and matching hearts, the members of the Student Association were frantically running to and fro trying to finish last minute details.

As the clock was slowly approaching 5:45, panic and hysteria had reached a lull-before the storm, that is. And then it hit!!

A strange, yet familiar species was seen approaching the Girls Dorm. The alarm was sounded and feminine voices could be heard chattering in a frenzy of distress over the lack of such necessary items as ribbons, perfume, and hair-spray.

Meanwhile, masculine forms nervously awaited that special lady. Finally the last twosome slipped and slid as they carefully made the short, but treacherous journey to the cafeteria. Then the fun began!

The men visibly relaxed as the tantalizing smells wafted through the air bringing back fond memories of previous memorable cafe meals. While each couple was making the most of the opportunities provided, a caricaturist by the name of Baz, was seen roaming the room choosing victims for his next artistic shock.

During the final moments of the meal, the Courtesy Court was presented by Elder Wuttke and Miss Peters, commemorating Valentine's Day and Courtesy Week.

As last minute pictures were being taken, the couples started toward the Ad. Building through wind, snow, and ice. Quickly the Chapel filled for the long anticipated entertainment of the evening that was about to begin. The movie shown, "That Darn Cat" was a mixture of laughter, mystery, and last but not least romance. Following the program, tired pairs began winding their way to that distant place called Ellis Hall. So endeth another exciting chapter in the life and times of BMA lovelife.

Student Week of Prayer

"You Will See Your Lord a Comin'" was the theme for the Student Week of Prayer. Held January 23 through the 28th it endeavored to show the students a dramatization of the closing scenes of Earth's history.

There were skits dealing with the passing of the Sunday Law and subsequent death decree as seen through the eyes of the world. There were also scenes of faithful Christians on the run to escape persecution. The Student Week of Prayer culminated with a stirring portrayal of the second coming of Christ, following which a communion service was held.

"Growing in Christ," Elder Dick Winn said, "is not just reading the Bible, studying, and praying, although these three are very important." Growing in Christ consists of responding to what God has to say to us through these three, also to what He has to say to us throughout the day as we are impressed with events that happen around us. The people who respond to God's signs are those who are accepting new challenges and concepts daily and who are settling into the truth. At the time of the end, when people will be tried and tested over and over again, these responding people will be the ones who will stand boldly with Christ as their leader, and be triumphant and victorious.

Such was one of the topics Elder Winn spoke about during the Fall Week of Spiritual Emphasis, Oct. 7-14, 1977. Other topics included: "Why Should We Be Good?" "Who You Really Are", "What Faith Is Not," "Human, Sinful, and Divine Nature," and "Dating."

The Week of Spiritual Emphasis concluded with a communion service, during which Bel Canto sang. Many faculty members and students felt that Elder Winn's talks were well presented and meaningful, partly because he used a projector to portray his lessons.

AVIATION

Flying—Mans' greatest dream. With the invention of the airplane this dream became a realization. Here at B.M.A. students are being instructed in the art of flying. Students take it for different reasons. Some take it because they want to be a commercial pilot, and others to be missionaries and feel flying would come in handy. Whatever the reason all agree, "There is nothing like the thrill of flying."

SCUBA

Ever looked at divers on T.V. with envy? Well B.M.A. has a solution, SCUBA! Students learn the technique of underwater diving with the aid of SCUBA gear. Taught by trained instructors at a local Y.W.C.A. this class undoubtedly is one of the most interesting classes offered at Blue Mountain Academy.

The B.M.A. chapel filled with excited students on September 27, 1977. It was the eve of class elections and all were anticipating the outcome that would show them their leaders.

School opened with a bang for the Juniors as Professor Jacobson tried in vain to teach the class, but was rejected when the students threw paper airplanes, turned their desks around, and were about to over-rule the teacher when Mr. Aaby came to his rescue and began asking a series of questions to eliminate the dumb-bells from the "brains". As it turned out, the "brains" were the Junior Class Officers: Randy Shultz, Brenda Lang, Debra Boyer, Sherry Wood, Laura Mayer, and John Dancek!

The B.M.A. chapel filled with excited students on September 27, 1977. It was the eve of class elections and all were anxiously anticipating the outcome that would show their leaders.

Suddenly a gasp escaped from the crowd as a stern looking policeman walked up to the front of the room. He proceeded by arresting several students who were told to gather their belongings and go to jail. The criminals, the Sophomore Class Officers, were Jeff McAullife, Debra Shultz, Carol Klim, Michael Whiting, Darryl Gustafson, and Bob Easter.

DEBBIE ZIRAKIAN
FRESHMEN CLASS REPRESENTATIVE

The B.M.A. chapel was filled with excited students on September 27, 1977. It was the eve of class elections and all were anxiously awaiting the outcome that would show their leaders.

Football was the name of the game for the Freshmen in presenting their representative, as two teams battled it out for the victory. Who was the most outstanding player who stole the game? Debbie Zirakian, the elected Freshmen Class Representative!!!

Dear Brad,

You've reached a wonderful milestone. We are all so proud of you. Keep your eyes upon Christ and trust in Him.

Love,

Mom, Monica, & Mike; Melody, Ed, & Richard; Melinda, and Marnette

Dear Steve,

Your sweet Christian example, your unswerving principles, your goals of achievement, have filled us with pride, pleasure, and inexpressible love. As a team we've worked here—as a team we'll reach Heaven!

Lovingly,

Mom and Dad

Dear Roberta,

Congratulations! We thank God that you are our daughter. Our prayers are that you will remain close to Him always.

Love always,

Mother, Daddy, Dennise,
Larry, and Doug

Congratulations Walt,

You've made us so very proud. May this just be the beginning of your life's dreams. We know that the Lord will continue to bless and guide you. We all love you very much.

Mom, Dad, and Bon

Dear Ruthie

"Trust in the Lord with all thine heart; and lean not unto thine own understanding." Prov. 3:5

"...Personal understanding from the teachers and the warmth from fellow students makes Columbia Union College special to me..."

Today's world is filled with challenges that many times go unrecognized. At C.U.C. you will have the opportunity to choose from a broad curriculum, areas of specialty to fit your special needs in preparing for the future demands of life.

Located at the heart of the political universe Columbia Union College is surrounded by bigness... yet small enough to meet individual needs and to present personal challenges. Here you will be given the opportunity to grow up... to develop your own uniqueness... to be a thinker, not just a reflector of other people's ideas.

Emphasis is always placed upon the spiritual aspect of Christian living... and the need for service in the finishing of God's work. At Columbia Union College it can be said that... "service to humanity is the best work of life."

"50'S DAY"

On Tuesday, November 8, at Blue Mountain Academy, the Student Association sponsored a schoolwide "50's Day." The student body and the faculty came to school dressed in outfits portraying the fashions of the fifties.

At the S.A. meeting that same night a contest was held for the best hairdo, most authentic, and all-around funniest. The judges of the contest were Mrs. Easter, Mrs. Wentland, and Dr. J. (alias Mr. Jacobson). The contestants were nominated by the student body from the floor and then sent to the stage where they were judged. The winners were Jan Egbert and Randy Gustafson for the best hairdo, Addy Murdock, and Walter Jones for the most authentic costumes and Terri Tirado and Rod "Skeek" Lewis for all-around funniest outfits.

The Echoes staff. Twenty positions coveted by the entire student body. Now you tell a joke. Anyway, working for the Echoes sounds like fun but it's not all fun and games (except for Debbie Harris).

Led by our fearless leader, Alan ("Big Reek") Newhart, the Echoes staff labored selflessly day and night to get the yearbook finished on time and with the high quality typical of B.M.A. yearbooks.

There are many things involved in the making of the yearbook. Endless diagrams of pages, stories to write and of course hundreds and hundreds of pictures. To put all this jumbled mess together really takes a team of highly skilled pros (if you've seen the Echoes office you know what I mean).

So, the next time you see an Echoes staff member remember all the work they did to give you your yearbook and give them a big smile and a hug and a kiss and oops! heh heh!!!!
