

ECHOES '84
BLUE MOUNTAIN ACADEMY
HAMBURG PA.
VOLUME 29

When our school started there were no computers.
We only had an auditorium to worship in, a cafeteria of dullness and unfinished buildings.

Now, we have a gorgeous church to worship in, a room filled with seven new computers, and a cafeteria that provides a feeling of hominess.

We have a campus that is ever changing to meet the needs of God's children in a fast changing world.

THEME:
As the old comes to an end,
The new becomes our beginning.
As our life with God begins,
We can look forward to new life.

PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

We all have heard many times that our schools have been set up to help our young people to grow mentally, physically, and spiritually. Sometimes growth in these areas is almost imperceptible, sometimes it is exceptionally rapid. More than anything else, I hope that while you have been here at BMA you have learned to love Jesus. That is the reason why we built all of our buildings, dormitories, cafeteria, gymnasium, etc., and that is why we renovated our auditorium and built in its place a beautiful sanctuary. All the facilities and faculty are dedicated to introducing you to Jesus Christ.

Years from now, perhaps after many mistakes and heartaches have made you older and wiser, you will read this message and realize anew that the most important thing that you can do is to love, trust, and keep faith in Jesus. The Bible says, "He that overcometh shall inherit all things, and I will be his God, and he shall be my son." Rev. 21:7. Scripture also tells us, "I can do all things through Christ who strengtheneth me." Phil. 4:13.

I would ask each one of you to make Christ first, last, and best in all that you do. If you do this, you will not only be able to avoid a lot of hassels and pitfalls that this world has to offer, but you will also have the fantastic opportunity of living for time and eternity in heaven. Always keep the faith. Never despair. Jesus is always there!

Cordially,

Richard J. Emery
Principal

DEDICATION

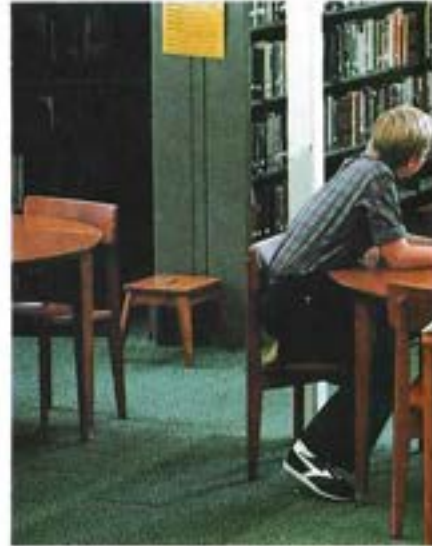

To the parents and guardians of students at B.M.A.,
We would like to dedicate this book to you,
Thank you for helping us through each year,
And for all the loving, guiding, caring things you do,
Although we may not always realize,
Our parents are a special treasure,
Sometimes we may not think this,
But just to have them is a pleasure,
You send us to a beautiful school so we will learn,
Physically, mentally, and so in us Christ you can discern,
Some will give up things, work harder, and even suffer,
So the tuition payments don't get any tougher,
Thank you for helping us build our tomorrows,
So that we won't have too many sorrows,
Thanks for caring about the things we do,
We appreciate and love each of you.

RELIGION-A PART OF LIFE . . .

SENIOR WILL

Troy Albright: To Susie Emmerling, a laugh so people stop making fun of her. To Kevin Norton, a girlfriend so he stops asking me to find him one. To Jo-Jo, next year filled with fun and happiness because she deserves it.

Mark Avery: My talent to mumble to Dean Righter, my sixer spirit and devotion to Gary Banks.

Glenn Banks: I will to the Junior class a great year in 1985. To Ron Mitrowski, my brown suit coat, and all my old razors. Thanks for your friendship and God bless you.

Karin Barlow: To Scott Harwood, I will a bag of potatoes for when he gets hungry for his "favorite food." And to Melissa Cuva, a 20-dollar gift certificate to buy one year's worth of giggles for her Senior year.

Kristi Barlow: I will some bricks to Jim Slater to put on top of his head in case of another growing spurt; to Mark Navarro, someone new to explain Geometry to, and to pick on, and a fun Senior year to the class of 1985.

Dennis Batchelder: I do bequeath my outspokenness and all my talent in the bakery to my sister Kristin—good luck accelerating! I will 100 footwashes to John Normile, and my logical arguments to John Lello. And last (but never least), to Barbara Pichette, I will 85 green m&ms and much hugs, and kisses.

Jeff Batchelder: I, Jeff Batchelder, do will my socks, my good grades in Government, and the ability to keep quiet to Jim Kleitz. To Jim Slater, I will my good jokes and my sanity. To James Taylor, I will my ability to stay awake on the job. And to Glen Newhart, the ability to do a good job on Senior bathroom and shower.

Joy Bell: To Carla, I will luck to make it at Pine Forge. I also will my love for Michael Jackson. To Dollis, I will luck to make it at Pine Forge. I also will my patience with Carla. To Heather, I will happy times here next year, and also will my Reed Hunters shirt. To Sean, I will all the happiness in the world. (I'll miss you.) To Myron, I will all the good food BMA has to offer.

Cindy Binder: I will Becky Emery the ability to grade Mr. Canosa's papers with alot of patience. To Mark Grice, perseverance to make it to class on time and to get good grades. To Dana Hilton, a big Hershey's Chocolate bar and the best of luck. To Beth Ropka & Cindy Foster, a bag of potato chips to munch on when a Sunday comes around. To Jo-Jo, all the rainbows and unicorns that she can find, a box of CC to remind her of our nights of staying up, and to have a really great Senior year.

Kern Bridgewater: I will to Jean Clarke my bunny tie, and to all my daughters, the confidence and drive to continue in the direction they want.

Byron Burke: To Danny Hinds, my Aerial Aires backdrop. To Rhondey, my job (may he beat my high score in centipede); and to Steve Ertel, a copy of my software.

Karen Cale: To "Mons", I will my seat on the piano bench, and all my luck! To Stepher & Rabbit, many more great nights in Freshman bathroom & the experiences in room #47. To Paul & John—the ability to accept rules, and possibly choir, to Mr. Ed.—patience! And to this year's Seniors— all my love and best wishes!

Bill Campbell: I, Bill Campbell, being of sound mind and body, leave my health book to Scott Harwood; My worn out tennis shoes to the new occupant of my room; my frustrations I had here, I leave to the Freshmen of next year. To Sara Buckley, I leave a special thanks for the special friendship we shared.

Penny Chong: I will to Laura Green my "Candid" perfume and my SAT book. To James Taylor, manners when answering the phone, and to all Juniors, a great Senior year.

Jean Clarke: I will to Rosie, my cheerfulness, & love toward others. I will to Minnell, my nickels, dimes, and quarters for the vending machine at the mill. I will to Dietrah, my diet, which she has nothing to lose. I will to David, my Mill clothes. I will to Heather, some height. I will to Andrea, my smile.

Kelly DiMemmo: I will my position as Mr. Streidl's "Super Secretary" to Becky Lyons, all my love and perseverance to Jeff (my huggable brother); to Stephanie, my quietness; and all my love & littleness to "Gomer".

Karen Donachy: I will a pair of jogging sneakers to Dan McWilliams. To Mark Grice, all the "jam boxes" his heart desires and the best of luck to continue his last few years here at BMA. To Craig Jones, to have enough "nerve" to tell people to "bug off." To Stacey Yingst, my law enforcement materials with my "McGruff" GUARD DOG.

Scott Drais: I will to my brother, my car, and good luck at BMA.

Nadine Ennis: I will to Donette my high chair and the ability to keep your mouth shut sometimes. To Karen, energy to stay awake while on the job. To Paul, best of luck for your Senior year and thanks so much for being such a good friend. To Wilson & Richie, the ability to be as quiet as me and to stay out of trouble. To the 3 stooges, have good grades and to stay out of trouble. To Lloyd, Heather, Marjay, and Amy, a wonderful Senior year and to always keep on smiling. To next year's RA, all the patience and endurance to experience all the trials in the girls' dorm.

Karyl Ferguson: To my office buddy, Dan, I will 2,000 grasshoppers and someone to share philosophies on life with; to Annabelle Lee, I will Remington Steele and her very own penguin; to my two sweet sons, Steve & Scott, I will lots of love and good wishes; to Mark Navarro, I will much fun times next year; to Gary Banks, the ability to breakdance; to my co-workers, dreams of many green m&ms to come; and to our beloved tumbling team, many more fun and crazy times on trips and in practice.

Glen Foulke: I will the nine months of hard work and tons of tests to all the Juniors.

Joe Francisco: I wish the best to all the classes, especially the class of '86. Study alot and don't cheat because it won't do you any good in the near future. May God be with you all. Good Luck.

Craig Garland: I will to Keith, a Reach toothbrush; to Danny Hinds, my Algebra 2 book; to Sean Anderson, a wave kit; to Craig Williams, a Bob Marley poster; to Steve Ryan, a new pair of unbreakable glasses with flexible lenses. For the rest of the student body, I will my personal signature

Craig Garland

Desiree Gibson: The class of 1985, the encouragement to strive on with God, and be the best leaders a school could ever have.

Victor Gilbert: I will, that you will understand God's will for your lives, and that the peace that comes from knowing Jesus will fill your life with God's true joy. For "higher than the highest human thoughts can reach is God's ideal for His children, Godliness, and Godlikeness is the goal to be reached."

Lisa Gillin: To all the Seniors—Good Luck in all that life may bring you. God bless you all. To Ben, Mike, Jeff, Kris, Sue, and Shauna—the best of luck in all the years to come. Keep your chin up and your eyes on Christ. Thanks for everything. To Jo-Jo—all the rainbows in the sky and unicorns to fill her every day with joy. To Beth, Dana, Cindy, and Donna—Good luck in all you do. Have fun with "Animal" and don't get caught. To John Z.—all the "foxy" girls he may run into. To Keith H.—all the "gorgeous" girls he may meet along his path in life. To all guys on Freshman floor—a tube of "Ultra-Brite" for their toothpaste battles. And finally, last but by far not the least, to Nathaniel Gibson—I will all the patience in the world & the remembrances of all the happy times we have shared together. May you look back on them happily, as I will. Good luck in the years to come and finally—All my LOVE!

Marc Harrington: To the next Senior Class President, my sympathy & prayers. To the next head ABJ, my years of experience behind the buffer. To the next dorm nurse, my two trusty thermometers.

Andrew Harris: I will my flying ability to Rhondey Harford, and the best of luck to all underclassmen.

Kamini Seenanine: To Andrea Fox, lots of sense, cause she needs it bad. Michael Osborne, memory of my valuable advice. My daughters, my love, and the ability to be a perfect angel like me. My brother Gary, memories of BMA and D.V.J.A. days. Kim Walker, head judgeship of "the contest". Whoever takes my place in His Own, as much fun as I had.

Pami Simpson: I want to will my Charlie to Jeannie. I will all my books to my sister, Wylene. I will my Elephant Plant to Ruth Feeser. To my daughter, Ann, I will my magic pen. To all the teachers and friends, I would like to wish them the best for years to come.

Jeannine Slater: I will to my brother, Jim, 20 pounds so he's not so skinny, and my straight hair, I also will him a dozen pens so that he is not always borrowing mine. I will to Mark, my love. I will to the underclassmen, good years at BMA.

Linda Sorensen: I will to the class of 1985, a great Senior year. Make it worthwhile!!

Anna Tang Kwok: I will my good humor in P.E. and my rose poster to Marjay. My enthusiasm to my brother, and also, continuous "good days". To Laura Green, I will a free summer, and good memories of the "Master".

Dawn Valenti: I will to Eric Zarska, his bed back, and my breath. Dan McWilliams, my mathematical genius, and good luck the next two years in the Business Office. Barbara Pichette, good luck in the future, and a great Senior year. Joe Livergood, my ability to get to class on time. Kevin Norton, success in his basketball career. Paul Zirakian, my ability to concentrate on my work. To all the Juniors, the ability to survive their last year.

Bryan vonDorpowski: To Gary Banks, my "White Boy" jump shot, to Danny Hinds, my SC hat, to Susie Emmerling, my "Thug" hat that you have had for a year; to Craig Williams (Homegrown), an American accent, and to Becky Emery, good memories.

Wendy Walker: To my sister, two final great years in Academy.

Mark Watson: I will to Lennard Pan my height and curly hair. And to Jeannine, ALL MY LOVE!!!

Joan Weeden: I will to Stephanie, 1000 green MSM's, Becky deGraaff, a handsome hunk. Steve Ertel, wicked great 3 more years. Todd Hart, a beating for all the times I've refrained from giving you one. The Comleys, a peaceful home in my absence. Arnie, a green one.

Karen Zarska: To Dan McWilliams, somebody to pick on in the Business Office next year. To Gary, the job of doing the whole school's time cards. To Becky, a good Senior year and lots of fun on the "team". To Sherry, more fun being in the "morning crew". To Eric Z., all my sweat pants, and a good 4 years at BMA. To Stephanie, the ability to transcribe at 120. To Shannon, an exciting and rewarding Senior year.

Cindy Lee,

Thanks for making us very proud to have a daughter like you.
Continue to climb the ladder to success.

Love,

Mom, Dad, Brothers, & "Shaki" '84

Dearest Linda,

We are so proud of you and the "class of 84". This is such a special time for both you and your family. We thank God for the kind of person you are. Our prayers continue that a close walk with the Lord and happiness always be in your life. Remember that we are always there when you need us.

Make Jesus first. We love you!

Dutz, Mom, &

Congratulations Parchial

Congratulation to our Son:
Denzie Henry

Thank you for giving us the opportunity of being extremely proud of you. We know this is only the beginning of greater things to come.

Never forget the way that God has led you in the past. Always let God be first and best in your life.

Learn to be wise and develop good judgement and common sense; cling to wisdom. And son, always remember that heights by great men reached and kept were not attained by sudden flight, but, they, while their companions slept, were toiling upwards in the night.

Lovingly,

Mom & Dad

A SPECIAL HOSPITAL FOR SPECIAL PATIENTS

In the belief that rehabilitation could best be furthered in a quiet setting, a group of Seventh-day Adventist laymen purchased a 260-acre estate on a wooded hilltop and established the hospital in 1960.

Realizing the need to serve the increasing number of disabled persons, the board decided to build a larger facility with an 80-bed capacity, which was completed in 1974.

We are the only free-standing rehabilitation hospital in the Adventist Health System and are accredited by the Joint Commission of Accreditation.

Our comprehensive rehabilitation hospital serves the special needs of patients who are determined to return to a productive lifestyle after suffering from disabling injuries or illnesses.

Our medical, nursing, therapeutic, and ancillary staff of over 300 workers is dedicated to our patients' physical, emotional, social, and spiritual health.

TEAM FOCUS ON INDIVIDUAL NEEDS

Reading Rehabilitation Hospital exists as a bridge between helplessness and a useful and meaningful lifestyle. The restoration of human dignity is the goal of each rehabilitative endeavor at our facility.

To reach the goal, our hospital offers specialized services and programs focusing upon the total rehabilitative team effort for the patient. Effective rehabilitation depends on the combined efforts of the patient, the family, and the professional team under the direction of the physician. Our programs are designed to meet the physical, psycho-social, and spiritual needs of each patient.

CONDITIONS TREATED

Rehabilitation services rendered for the following diagnoses:

- Amputee
- Arthritis
- Back Pain (Acute & Chronic)
- Burns (Rehabilitative Phase)
- Hand Trauma and Disease
- Neurological Disorders:
 - Cerebrovascular Accident (Stroke)
 - Head Injury
 - Multiple Sclerosis
 - Parkinsonism, Complicated
 - Spinal Cord Injury and Disease
- Orthopedic Problems:
 - Fractures
 - Joint Replacement

This list is not intended to be a comprehensive list of conditions treated.

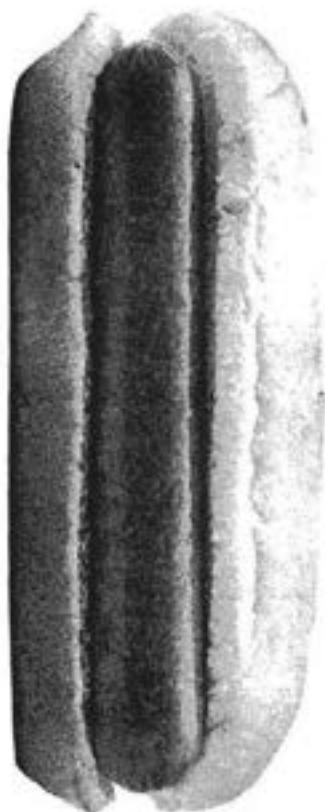

YOU CAN JOIN OUR TEAM

Because the average length of the patient stay is 30 days, our staff members have an excellent opportunity to develop social and spiritual relationships with the patients and their families. To become a part of this result-oriented team, please write the Reading Rehabilitation Hospital, R.D. #1, Box 250, Reading, PA 19607, or call 215-777-7615, extension 203.

At Columbia Union College we encourage our students to exercise and keep in shape, but our dedication to fitness extends beyond the physical. Fitness in education and job preparation is even more important, and we will tone your mind for mental exercise and develop your skills to guarantee success.

Working out in our Cooperative Education program is one way that we train you to be competitive in the job market, not only after graduation, but also during the school year and the summer. Practical experience in a field directly related to your career goals is an invaluable opportunity offered exclusively at CUC. Imagine... working in a law firm that supplements your pre-law business major, or working in an animal clinic that supports your goal to be a veterinarian, or working at a local television station complementing your desire to work in broadcasting.

Our Co-op program is what you need to shape up your existing skills and discover new ones. We believe in fitness of mind as well as the body, and we're challenging you to be a champion. Columbia Union College prepares winners—winners in life and winners in careers. Join us and watch yourself become a professional.

I Corinthians 13

Though I speak with the tongues of men and of angels, and have not charity, I am become as sounding brass, or a tinkling cymbal.

2 And though I have the gift of prophecy, and understand all mysteries, and all knowledge, and though I have all faith, so that I could remove mountains, and have not charity, I am nothing.

3 And though I bestow all my goods to feed the poor, and though I give my body to be burned, and have not charity, it profiteth me nothing.

4 Charity suffereth long, and is kind, charity envieth not; charity vaunteth not itself, is not puffed up.

5 Doth not behave itself unseemly, seeketh not her own, is not easily provoked, thinketh no evil.

6 Rejoiceth not in iniquity, but rejoiceth in the truth;

7 Beareth all things, believeth all things, hopeth all things, endureth all things.

8 Charity never faileth; but whether there be prophecies, they shall fail; whether there be tongues, they shall cease, whether there be knowledge, it shall vanish away.

9 For we know in part, and we prophesy in part.

10 But when that which is perfect is come, then that which is in part shall be done away.

11 When I was a child, I spake as a child, I understood as a child, I thought as a child; but when I became a man, I put away childish things.

12 For now we see through a glass, darkly; but then face to face; now I know in part; but then shall I know even as also I am known.

13 And now abideth faith, hope, charity, these three, but the greatest of these is charity.

OUR SCHOOL . . .

AUTOGRAPHS

Epilogue

Looking back over the year and seeing all of our new beginnings gives us a feeling of success. It is a feeling that should be given to God. God has really been in our school this year. He has provided ways that seemed impossible to us, but He always found a way to open the door for us. The Lord can and will open any door as long as we have a close communion with Him. We feel that this year has had success, because of the close communion with God the students and staff have had. He has given our school a “new beginning” that will never be forgotten. May the Lord richly bless this school in the years to come.
