ECHOES

"Train up your child in the way he should go; and when he is old, he will not depart from it." (Proverbs 22:6) Sister White, in her book Fundamentals of Christian Education, further states "the physical, mental, moral and religious education of children must have attention." This means that a good quality education must be well rounded in these areas.

Applying Mrs. White's advice, Blue Mountain Academy has advanced a great deal in the areas of religious, academic and vocational education.

For this educational balance, we salute BMA and look forward to continued advancements through God's divine plan to educate the whole person.

PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

It has been said that our only obligation in any lifetime is to be true to ourselves and true to our God. As we endeavor to do this as Christians, we need to get involved in strategies to offset the debilitating, insidious, cynicism and distrust that people have for our church, our schools, and our God. There are those around us that are declaring in unison that we have been dealt a knock-out blow. They say Christianity is on its way out. There are those who invoke pessimism and generate gloom and those that are determined that all is despair, but don't believe it! In a country where there is a divorce from every two marriages the statistics show that in the marriages where the husband and wife have worship together every day, pray together, and attend church together, divorce is practically unheard of. Where young people are brought up to respect their mother and father, they also have respect and honor for God. But these facts never get into the newspapers or are never shown on the television set. These are some of the dividends that you and I can have if we remain true and firm to God and to the commitments that we have made.

Young people, I pray that you will come through for BMA, for your church, and for yourself. I know that you will, because in moments of adversity individuals are generally at their best.

Recently I found a poem that expresses the thought that our lives must be anchored by ropes of gold, that give us purpose, meaning and hope.

*"These friends are the ropes of gold
With all our precious freedoms hold
To look around at the distant star
To look ahead to horizons far
To look upward to the dawn
To trust in God, and to carry on."*

Young people, this is my prayer for you. I will see you in the Kingdom.

Cordially,

*Richard J. Emery

*Risin' up, back on the street,
Did my time took my chances,
Went the distance. Now I'm back on my feet,
just a man and his will to survive.*

*So many times it happens too fast,
You trade your passion for glory.
Don't lose your grip on the dreams of the past.
You must fight just to keep them alive.*

*It's the eye of the tiger,
It's the thrill of the fight,
risin' up to the challenge of our rival.
And the last known survivor
stalks his prey in the night,
and he's watchin' us all with the eye of the tiger.*

*Face to face, out in the heat,
hangin' tough, stayin' hungry.
They stack the odds,
still we take to the street
for the kill with the will to survive.*

*Risin' up, straight to the top.
Had the guts, got the glory.
Went the distance. Now I'm not gonna stop,
just a man and his will to survive.*

It's the eye of the tiger!!!!

You are so special to us, Eric, and we are so very proud of you . . .
