A LETTER FROM THE PRINCIPAL

Footprints in Time." Whose footprints? Yours and mine. In time? What time? 1994 and 1995. Where? At Blue Mountain Academy.

The year is gone. But be assured the footprints are still there. Our lives touched someone else's. Yes, they did! Our footprints lead somewhere.

Where do our footprints lead?

Looking back at footprints can be fun. They tell a story. A story of joy and sorrow; losing and winning; making friends and changing friends; studying; working; playing; traveling;...Do they tell a story of how to find Jesus? Of learning to trust Him more? Do they show the struggle against temptation, and the victory won because we fought in God's strength?

Where do those footprints lead?

"Footprints in time." Yours and mine. I'm sure they weren't all that we hoped they would be. But I know they are filled with lessons and memories that can make us wiser in the future. For you and I are still leaving footprints. Whatever the past we need not be discouraged!

"If we confess our sins, He is faithful and just and will forgive us our sins and purify us from all unrighteousness." I John 1:9 (N.I.V.)

And then, let's let God lead! "I know, O Lord, that a man's life is not his own; it is not for man to direct his steps." "There is a way that seems right to a man, but in the end it leads to death." "Your word is a lamp to my feet and a light for my path." "Whether you turn to the right or to the left, your ear will hear a voice behind you, saying, 'This is the way; walk in it.'" "Trust in the Lord with all your heart and lean not on your own understanding; in all your ways acknowledge Him and He will make your paths straight." Jer. 10:23, Prov. 14:12 Ps. 119:105, Is. 30:21, Prov. 3:5,6 (N.I.V.)

Where will our footprints lead?

One day we will be able to look back at all of the "footprints in time!" I pray that we will see yours and mine ending at heaven's gate where we received God's welcome: "Come you who are blessed by my Father, take your inheritance, the kingdom prepared for you since the creation of the world." Matt. 25:34 (N.I.V.)

1994-1995 at B.M.A.
"Footprints in time."

A "NOTE" of Dedication

---

Thank you Mrs. Edison, for all your years of dedicated, hard work at Blue Mountain Academy. With your special talent, you have inspired us to practice hard to achieve the art of making music. Your bubbly, mischievous personality, along with your infectious laugh have made our lessons, classes, and La Sonnette tours fun and interesting. And whenever we needed a little TLC, or to talk about a problem you have always been there for us, to guide us along the right path, thus creating music for an eternity.

Our Lord's Footprints

Every day by faith we are striving to do as we have been taught to do
Leading others by our actions, telling them of God's love as we follow in the footsteps of our Lord.

We have dreams and desires that we want to achieve hopes and goals we're striving to uphold.
Four years at B.M.A. were not wasted at all for we're following the footsteps of our Lord.

All together fo so long makes us feel as we are one though strangers from the start we are now friends what we do and where we go will not matter in the end for we're following in the footsteps of our Lord.

We will each go our own way at the end of it all
But we will not forget the truths we've learned as we follow our Lord's footsteps.

MAKING AN IMPRESSION

Bringing the seniors to victory, Victor Bryan keeps stats for the Jr.-Sr. basketball game.

Every evening at 6:30 Jonathan Colon relieves his stress, center-court, in the M. W. Schultz gymnasium.

After playing the flute for 2 years in band, Annie Dembosky decided to take up the trumpet.

John Ebersole is glad to be finally graduating.

The senior class "tops it off" by winning first place at the SA Fall Picnic.

Brad Robinson is known for his skill in playing the baritone saxophone.

Thami smiles with pleasure as he aces yet another quiz.

"Of course I'm studying!" declares Tammy Allen during Anatomy/Physiology class.

Susie Eglinger can't help but smile after a nice hot shower (or was it cold?)!

Chalae Jones has her own personal remedy for runny noses.

To always keep her room neat & clean, Elizabeth Mesa puts her clothes away after doing laundry.

Rachel Stoll takes time out of her busy schedule to write a letter to that special someone via inner-campus mail.

Jessica Castro beams with delight as she carries a package from her secret sister.

Making sure she leaves no room for doubt, Lorely Collado studies hard, making sure she will be marching come May 28, 1995!

Deanna Heisey, Shamet Patman, Delicia Harvey, & Mildred Brooks love to help their R.A., Shawnee Burns, to rise and shine early in the morning.

"Can you come back later, please?" inquires Shwna Schimp sleepily.

Mrs. Striedl & Mrs. Buller were a few of those special female staff members that brought 'breakfast in bed' to the girls on their first Sabbath at BMA.

Sylvia Obregon, assistant girl's dean, leads out in one of her many enlightening worship talks.

Rene Pinero is thrilled with learning the art of folding clothes.

Han Seong Woo beats the rush in the cafe by thinking ahead. Leftovers from home are good enough for him!

After a hard day of classes, Graham Baker takes a breather during study hall.

Heath Edwards marvels at his freshly painted room. (You can thank the '94 Dream Team for that!)

The photographer catches Tyler Sullivan and Vibert Neverson breaking in the guy's dorm furniture.

Miriam Bonilla takes a quick moment out of the 3 minutes between classes to smile at the camera.

Bugs!! Leah Patch and Amber Jackson find a friend that kindly helps them to complete their biology projects.

Jenny Williams studies hard to get good grades in English class.

Sophomore guys learn the 'BASIC(s)' of computer knowledge.

Danielle LeBrun and Amanda Edwards just aren't about to let that bug get away.

All eyes on the music and their director, band practices hard every evening at 6:00.

Guys' Home Economics class proudly shows off their Rainbow Tarts, proving that they too can cook.

Milfred Abraham is excited to be on his way to his next class.

Head RA, Barbie Eglinger, locks the Girls' Dorm to make sure no one can escape.

Marc Trout concentrates on folding shirts at Industry.

Always relaxed, Fergie gives good counsel.

Graham Baker gets his chance as floor worker.

Joel Schander is one of those few that relax and sit down on the job...correcting papers of course.

Ben Fellows makes sure the bathroom is squeaky clean.

Work

"Good evening, Blue Mountain Academy, Ladies Dorm,...May I help you???" quotes Miriam Bonilla many times each evening.

Switching from Industry to Vice Principal's Office was an extreme pleasure for Starla Overton.

Anne Dembosky , Industry QC, checks to make sure all the sticker work is in order.

Denise Kope puts Amber Jackson to work checking out her book.

Chow Time

Patently, Nicole Agbonkese shows Edilson Garcia the many keys on the cash register.

Kelly Cauley and Karen Corbin, both village, are among the few who enjoy the privilege of a hot lunch.

Having already eaten, Melissa Brenes enjoys a chat with Aprille Febre.

"Ooohhh my! What a meal!!!" exclaims David Swenson as he devours every morsel, including the spoon!

Dorm students are not as fortunate as Stephanie Holtry, who steps out of her car after driving to work.

Though village, Angela Evans enjoys using the computer lab during her free time.

Tammy Allen dreams happily of the day she will leave BMA!

Aviation

Harold Striedl Airport

Mr. Striedl was to the aviation students an example, a leader, and a father to his students. He knew when to encourage, when to scold, and knew each of his students like they were one of his children. He taught them well and dedicated his life to teaching students to 'fly' on to bigger and broader horizons. And for this reason the Blue Mountain Academy Airfield was dedicated and named to his honor in a public tribute on December 10, 1995 in the M.W. Schultz Gymnasium. From now on it will be called Harold Striedl Aviation.

Thank you, Mr. Striedl, for dedicating 32 years of your life and teaching to Blue Mountain Academy. We love you, Mr. Striedl. Your inspiration lives on in our hearts.

Sabbath School

In order to stimulate discussion, BMA has established small sabbath School Classes. Each person is given two Sabbaths to sample the different classes, while the third Sabbath is the final decision. The classes discuss some of the many problems that affect us as youth today.

When second semester came around we were again allowed to choose a Sabbath School class. Some preferred to choose a new class for various reasons, while others chose to stay.

Vespers

Friday evening vespers is a time when students can put away all their troubles and homework for the week. The worries and stresses can be forgotten and students can focus on Jesus and the love He has for each one of us. The faculty have worked hard to create a family atmosphere in which the students can relax.

Vespers begins with a rousing song service, after which an inspiring story is shared. There are several meaningful scriptures, and the service usually ends with another hymn. Another Sabbath has begun. How many more Sabbaths 'till we will have vespers with our friend Jesus?

During Fall Week of Prayer Elder Peter Smaela told us how God worked in his life.

Kathy Smaela also shared about her childhood and the difference God made in her life.

Miriam Bonilla gave a powerful testimony and challenge to the students at the close of the Week of Prayer.

Dean Smith and Liz Mesa sang beautifully during a call for students to "Surrender All."

FOCUS Week

Students like Idamis Melendez and Tyler Sullivan led out in song services.

Heather Young played the piano for special music during the Winter Week of Prayer.

Ms. Obregon played a beautiful flute solo as one of the special numbers.

Other song leaders were Aprille Febre and Christina Golden.

Dean Smith shared with us how God can take our broken alabaster boxes and turn them into something beautiful.

Mr. Edison was one among many faculty who gave their testimonies, sharing how God led in and is leading in their lives.

Service Day

Several Seniors decided to provide extra service to the school on their own time.

Mrs. Matthias's homeroom folded the 'Communique'.

Liffny Fuentes walks a Husky in the rain for Service Day.

Rick Torrez demonstrates how to use a puppet to an elderly man at Laurel Living Center.

Cindy Adams and Tyler Sullivan help in keeping B.M.A.'s campus clean.

What a bunch of clowns! This group cheered up many elderly folks.

Sofia Zuberbuhler and Jacelyn Coffman plan how to decorate their birdhouses.

Elder Fergie and Edmundo Delgado prepare the sides of the houses while Sam Hutchinson drills the holes.

Mrs. Kramer explains to her homeroom what they will be doing for Service Day.

The results of Mrs. Kramer's busy beavers are shown in these hand-crafted cards.

Heather Lemke brightens someone's day with her puppet.

*Hast thou not known? hast thou not heard,
Creator of the ends of the earth, fainteth searching of his understanding. He that have no might He increaseth and be weary, and the young men upon the Lord shall renew their wings as eagles; they shall run walk and not faint.*

that the everlasting God, the Lord, the not, neither is weary? there is no giveth power to the faint; and to them strength; Even the youths shall faint shall utterly fall: But they that wait strength; they shall mount up with and not be weary; and they shall Isaiah 40:28-31

Handshake & SA Mixers

With a big smile, Brian Becker shakes hands with Mr. Rouse.

Victor Bryan, SA Treasurer, says "Hey!" to a couple of friends he hasn't seen in 3 months.

Mrs. Matthias greets Amber King, a new Junior.

Mike Canon, also a new Junior, meets Mrs. Kramer.

Have you ever tried to play beach volleyball on the "Down Low"?

Ben Lehman uses all his strength to get that volleyball back over the net.

Amber Jackson and Heath Edwards intently guard their prisoners, Sherry Haakenson and Leah Patch, in a game of Wink-um.

Musical chairs was exciting for some; for others, it was no big challenge.

Andre Lindo, a junior from Philadelphia, poses for G.Q.

OUTDOOR SCHOOL

Ingrid Forss

"...I went 'Day Hiking'. It was a different experience. But next year I am going to try something different."

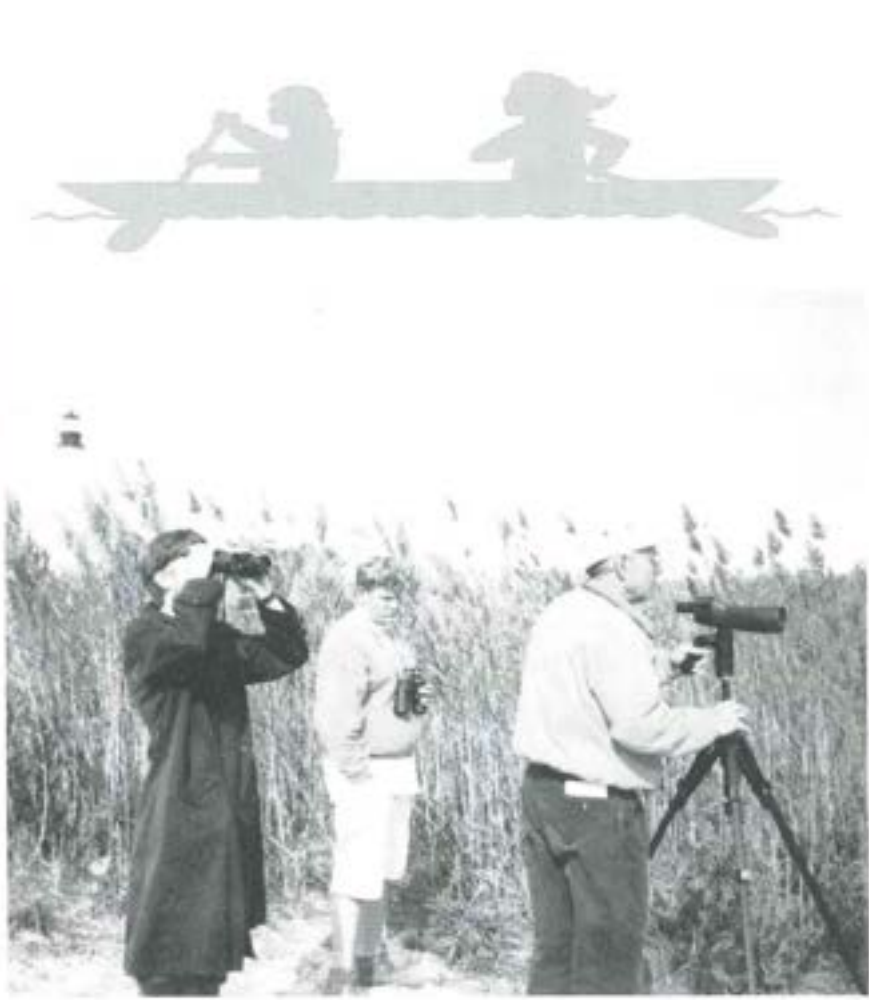

Andy Van Arsdale

"...I went backpacking and enjoyed it very much. I learned to survive with my fellow backpackers in the Pennsylvania wilderness. Seeing the beauty and wonder of God's creation was a very uplifting experience."

Barn Party & Almost Anything Goes

Di Melendez and Diana Piper are surprised by an extra flash of light during the dark hayride.

E.J. Reynolds looks eagerly for a soft place to land.

Edilson Garcia show us one of the many exciting ways you can jump off a rope.

Wendy Adams cheered in amazement after Veronica Bonilla finally got that apple!

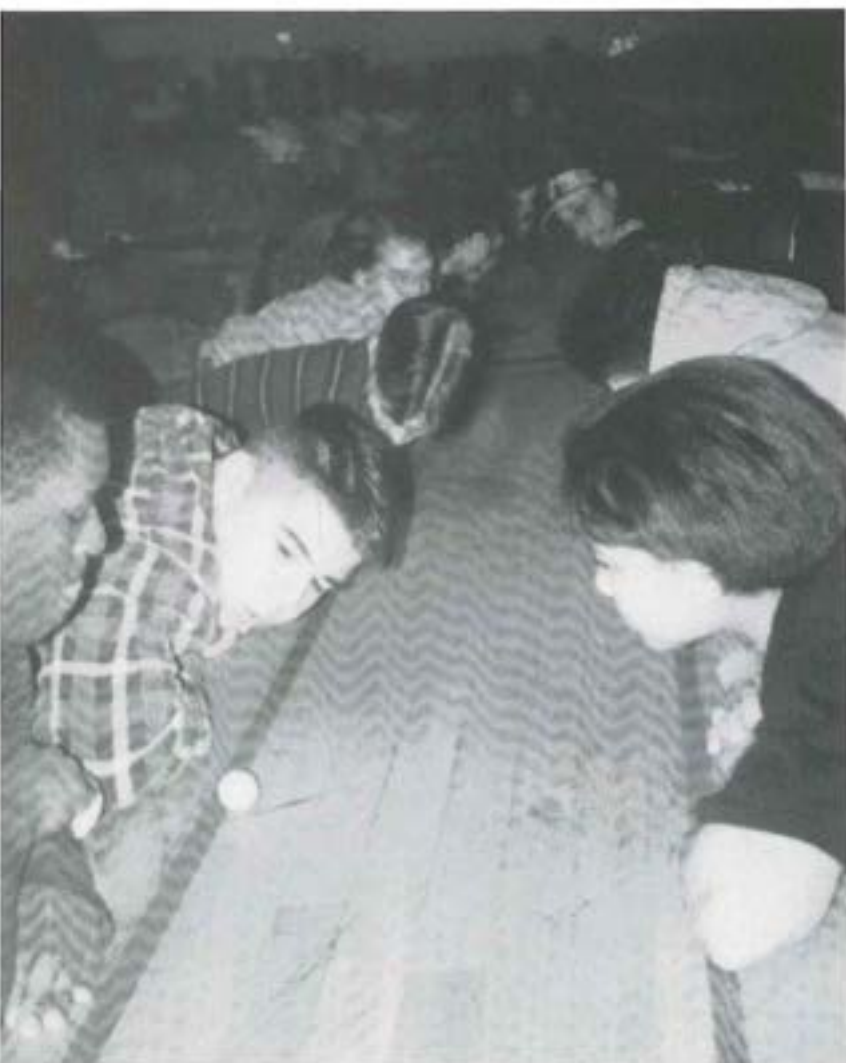

Tim Calhoun and Diana Piper competing in the game of Snuggle.

Jacelyn Coffman hangs on for dear life as she rides the mattress.

Aaron Gates coaches Vanessa Vasquez on how to get all the beans to the bucket in the Bean Dip.

Joe Mitosuras and Jen Nino stand ready to let the ball through the hole in the football toss.

The Freshmen blow their hardest in Ping Pong Pucker Power.

Russell Hallman was the little old man in the candy store, angry at the thought of $0.10 worth of Jolly Ranchers.

Back in the '60's, when the thing was 'Tap,' Yamil Hernandez would have fit in with his leather jacket and slick hair.

Manfred Brenes singing his very popular song, "Seniors!"

During 'Senior Expressions', Ellen Gibson blessed us with her piano solo.

Janette McDade and Starla Overton harmonized together beautifully as they say, "The Rose."

Senior Recognition

---

Chalae Jones was one of our very own 'Lollipop Girls!'

"We are His Hands," was performed by Teri Brown and Anne Dembosky.

With that double polyester, triple wool, 3-piece suit, Billy Heywood shows off the threads!

Prelude and Postlude for 'Senior Expressions' was played by Sandra Hutchinson.

Parent Day & Career Day

Nadine Briner, Amber Jackson, and Starla Overton perform with the Band as 1st Chair Flutists.

Denise Kope, Sandy Hoch, Christa Dancek, & Linda Walsh give their final adieu as they finish their first performance of the year.

Alex DuBee accompanies Bel Canto, as they sing for their parents.

Anne Dembosky and Tony Rouse warm up before they begin playing.

Jennifer Nino's question about CUC and her career choice was answered by Helen Wilhelm during Career Day.

Denise Kope tries out some of the equipment at Wayne John's Physical Therapy office.

Melissa Brenes also enjoys working out on the Physical Therapy equipment.

Who says going to the doctor isn't fun?

"...And the game is off with a bang. Tim Calhoun controls the ball."

Jump...Release...Good technique, Th Wells, but will the ball go through the hoop?

Blowing the whistle gives Billy Heywood a feeling of importance as he coaches the game.

A lively game of Volleyball helps everyone relax after a stress-filled day of classes.

Norine Briner plays Center-Field in a friendly game of softball.

Intramurals

Surrounded on all sides, can Russell Hallman get the ball to his teammates?

The Blue Team is in the lead. And they should be...they're Seniors!

All together in a huddle, the team prepares a plan of attack.

Pastor Dave not only coaches us spiritually, but physically as well.

Recreation

Wearing three watches, Linda Walsh breaks one of the rules of proper Volleyball playing.

Amber Groover practices hard for Alumni Weekend to play in the first ever Women's Basketball game against the Alumni.

Tim Becker practices to improve his shooting ability.

Theo Wells, Senior, & Tim Calhoun, Junior, each vie for control of the ball at the Jr./Sr. Basketball game after Class Elections.

With concentration and determination, Teri Brown serves the ball.

From the looks of it, the other team needs to get ready for a whopping serve!

Jae Jung Kim takes time out from the game to catch his breath.

After a final 2-point shot by the winning team, the game is over.

Kris, Congratulations!

We are so proud of you. You are such a joy & blessing to us! Your kind, gentle, & thoughtful ways are an inspiration to us. You have always been so conscientious about whatever you have wanted to accomplish.

We wish you much success & happiness as you continue your education.

Kris, wherever your paths may lead you, keep Jesus first in your life.

We love you,
Dad, Mom, Kylie

Congratulations PETE - Our 'Flying Ace'

You made it!
We are so proud of you!
Whatever your future holds keep smiling and always let
God be your co-pilot.

We all love you,
Mom, Dad, Charlie, Darlene, Ashley,
Logan, Jane, Chris, Mitchell, and Jacob

Teri, We Love You and are very proud of you. This is not the end, but only the beginning. The course you have chose will require perseverance and endurance. Remember that you are not alone.

Prov. 16:9 "In his heart a man plans his course, but the Lord determines his steps."

We love you dearly, keep reaching for the stars.
Mom and Dad

To Our Angel,

How the years have passed by so quickly. You have become such a wonderful young lady. We are so proud of what you have accomplished. You bring such a joy to our lives.

Always, look to Jesus for guidance and follow Him throughout your life. He will hold you in the palm of His hand and take care of you always.

With more love than you can ever imagine.

Affectionately,
Mom, Dad, & Michael

Congratulations Russell!

We are glad that we were able to be at BMA with you for your last two years here. Your friendship means a lot to us.

We are proud of what you have accomplished so far. Whatever you plan for your future, we will stand behind you.

The most important thing is that we all be together in Heaven as a family.

We love you,
Mom, Dad, & Rachelle

Congratulations Angie!

You've come a long way since your Jelly Bean Math Days. We are very proud of you. Keep up the good work and keep smiling.

We love you,
