Principal's Message

"You are the light of the world." Matthew 5:14.

We all have influence. We all help direct others' lives. Our influence comes from who we are deep inside. Jesus said, "Let your light shine before men . . ." He didn't say "make," or "force"; He said, "Let."

How we are growing in Jesus determines our "light" status. "If we claim to have fellowship with Him yet walk in darkness, we lie and do not live by the truth." 1 John 1:6. "The night is nearly over; the day is almost here. So let us put aside the deeds of darkness and put on the armor of light." Romans 13:12.

It's easy to believe that darkness is better than light. "Light has come into the world, but men loved darkness instead of light because their deeds were evil." John 3:19

If you choose to live in His light, you will stand out. Light makes those who live in darkness uncomfortable. You know how painful light is to eyes that are used to darkness. The Word says, "The light shines in the darkness, but the darkness has not understood it." John 1:5. "Everyone who does evil hates the light, and will not come into the light for fear that his deeds will be exposed." John 3:20.

It takes courage to let your light shine. But if you have learned how much God has done for you, you must do whatever you can to show how much you love Him! No matter your experience in 1998-99, God still calls you to be His light to the world.

When this life is over, "Then the righteous will shine like the sun in the kingdom of their Father." Matthew 13:43. Now that's letting your light shine!

Stan Rouse, Principal

Dedicated to Mrs. Ferguson

"No one is useless in this world who lightens the burdens of it for anyone else." Author Unknown

It was an easy decision for the Echoes staff to choose to dedicate the 1999 yearbook to you, Mrs. Ferguson. After your presentation about lighthouses in chapel, we were inspired to make it our theme and to express to you our highest appreciation.

Many people in your position might find it easier to do their job and go home without contact with the students, but you have chosen to be a beacon of light in our lives. Your cheery personality and ready smile never cease to brighten our day.

"What lighthouses are to ships, smiles are to humanity. They are but trifles, to be sure, but scattered along life's pathways, the good they do is inconceivable." Author Unknown

Many times we take for granted the things people do for us, especially when they are people we don't come in contact with every day. Yet these people are sometimes the most important.

Without you, Mrs. Ferguson, our school would not run as smoothly as it does. We cannot help but recognize your organization and accounting skills that have made it possible for BMA to stay on its feet and become much of what it is today.

Yet your job does not end in the office. You take time to get to know us through BMA Leadership weekends, class sponsorships, and various other activities.

Though this is but an inadequate thank you for what you have done, the Echoes staff would like to show you our appreciation and to celebrate the lighthouses that remind us so much of you.

"Kind words can be short and easy to speak, but their echoes are truly endless." Author Unknown

Pray For Me

*Here is where the road divides
 Here is where we realize
 The sculpting of the Father's great design
 Through time you've been a friend to me
 But time is now the enemy
 I wish we didn't have to say goodbye
 But I know the road He chose for me
 Is not the road He chose for you
 So as we chase the dreams we're after*

(Chorus)

*Pray for me and I'll pray for you Pray that we will keep the common ground
 Won't you pray for me and I'll pray for you
 And one day love will bring us back around again*

*Painted on a tapestry
 We see the way it has to be Weaving through the laughter and the tears
 But love will be the tie that binds us
 To the time we leave behind us
 Memories will be our souvenirs
 And I know that through it all
 The hardest part of love is letting go
 But there's a greater love that holds us*

(Repeat Chorus)

I know love will bring us back around again.

Prayer Conference

"Where two or three are gathered together in My name, I am there in the midst of them." Matthew 18:20

What happens when 800 academy students from across North America get together to pray? The Holy Spirit moves powerfully on the hearts of those assembled. He enriches their relationship or starts a new relationship with our brother, Jesus Christ. When the family group leaders walked out the doors of the Pioneer Memorial Church at Andrews University, they had more than a "spiritual high." They also realized that prayer really works, and when any group gets together to pray the results are AWESOME. They truly knew God had come near and enlightened their minds in the study of His Word. They set their minds on a higher goal -- to become bold disciples for the kingdom of Heaven.

Leaving before dawn, the family group leaders prepare to board the vans for the long haul home

Ellie Fellows expresses her opinion at the leadership training seminar

Sporting the fashionable yellow name tags, the family group leaders take time to capture a moment

Union Leadership

Michele Kypalek scans the room to see if anyone's newspaper pile is bigger than hers

Rachelle Ware does her part by helping out in the kitchen

Dana Thoman can't help but laugh as she's pulled around in an effort to untwist

All eyes are fixed on Kester Edwards as he shares his opinion on a Bible passage

"We're loyal to you BMA...Ra! Ra!..." the group sings enthusiastically

Jatupol Bunditwong races back to his seat in a game of fruit basket upset

Celina Worley, the leadership speaker, chills with students after a numbing hike from the pool

Jennifer Foulke and Melodie Stairs search for their favorite Bible texts

Ed Eberhardt shivers in the icy rain so the BMA students can enjoy a warm swim

Table games were some of the activities enjoyed on Saturday night by Jon Rutt, Lori Bange, Meica Bodick, and Miranda Weigley

Celina Worley depicts a Bible character in her worship with the students

Is it that Jeff Garcia hiding in the bushes to avoid the girls' dean and the police?

On Saturday night, October 10, friends and family gathered to support the junior English classes. After many hours of hard work, Public Performance was finally ready. "Love, Death, and the Prom" included a variety of scenes. It presented the audience with issues that teens in the 90's face. You say you don't know anyone. Well, that is the case for about half the students at M.A. at the beginning of the school year. And for this reason the Student Association organizes a mixer. For some it is a time of getting acquainted with the people you will be "living" with for the rest of the year. For others it is a time to spend with old friends and at the same time make new ones.

The mixer includes a whole bunch of active games. They range from three-legged basketball to hot potato. But no matter what the game, it is always loads of fun when you get into it. It is just a good time at the beginning of the year to relax and get to know people.

As is BMA tradition, the seniors go to CZIC every October for college days. It is the first senior activity that we are awarded. Actually going to the school and talking with the professors was very enlightening to many. This year they had scholarship competitions, and BMA won more than all the other schools combined! Maybe this year's class is extra brilliant, or maybe they just come from a good school, but whatever the case may be, the seniors certainly made their impression on CZIC.

We also got to see an Jmax movie, visit various DC sights and eat at Union Station. It was definitely a time for the class of 1999 to bond and share new experiences, and hopefully it helped some to make a decision where to attend college next year.

Grace Cho and Jonathan Francisco take a break, waiting to see what exciting thing comes next

Kester Edwards watches intently the amazing things the CZIC gymnastics team is doing

College Days

Melodie Stairs gazes off into the crowds surrounding the Air and Space Museum, while contemplating where she will hike to in her free time

Are you tired, Eric Parch? All the Seniors were after the long, and jam-packed day CZIC had planned for them

Sen

An inspiring sermon is shared by Jason McCracken

Kristin Leone and Michele Krpalek portray troubles with room-mates

Joel Beaven describes his day--it just couldn't get any worse

Ruth Nino demonstrates one of her talents, by playing a lovely piece on the piano

Seniors' depiction of what bored pilots do for fun

Recognition

A typical scene after the program, Jason Min and Jatupol unditwong congratulate each other on a job well done by clowning around

Senior sponsors were presented with gifts of gratitude for all their support and hard work

The Sylvan Singers enrich our Christmas season by performing Handel's Messiah

Staci Gray and Ryan Maybrook concentrate on making beautiful music with La Sonnette Ensemble

Christmas

Dolly Porawski, student conductor, takes her turn and energetically conducts the band

The sanctuary was filled with the vibrant and enthusiastic voices of Bel Canto members as they proclaimed their sentiments on the meaning of the Christmas season

Concerts

Mr Buller directs the orchestra in one of the most powerful Christmas oratorios of all time

La Sonnette rings their Christmas gift to us and to the Lord

Laura Cates, waiting for her cue to join the orchestra, gives the camera a radiant smile

Mr Rouse greets a packed sanctuary at the beginning of the celebration of the birth of our Lord Jesus Christ

Jesse Leone, like a true sumo wrestler, fiercely attacks his opponent; unfortunately he gets the worst end the deal

Peter Bolanos suits up for a rousing round of sumo wrestling

SA

Samuel Yoo, the champion of the match, challenges anyone who dares to fight him

Tricia Rouse and Jason Kavistan are deep in conversation, discussing the meaning of life

Priscilla Frimpong creeps her way through the maze, but pauses from her deep concentration long enough to flash her brilliant smile

This is harder than it looks, Andrew Cupino discovers as he takes his shot at getting a strike, while actually becoming a human bowling ball

Christmas

We can stay standing when a bowling ball comes our way, say Jessica Colledge and Michelle Younkin as they stand amidst the super-sized bowling pins

Party

Nathan Brassard and Jessica Yerka have a hearty laugh, while Rina Harb contemplates which station to visit next

Posing as Santa Claus, Dean Halbrook shares the excitement of the Christmas party with a group of pals

Terry-Ann Peterson screams with delight as she clings to the mattress flying down the line of hands

Jessica Yerka and Krissy Leone wait impatiently for the numbers to be called for the drawing

Stephanie Hade and Josh Swan concentrate on getting a football through their arms

Almost

Evan Spicer holds on for dear life as he is rushed along by his classmates

Carl Thornhill and Denzil Rowe anxiously await the basketball, so they can race Sarah Brassard to the basket

Anything

Alexis Abrahamtes carefully studies his ticket number, hoping that his number will be the one called next er LeBrun, like a true gentleman, holds a balloon for Bonnie Cho to pop

Yes, they are taking a picture of you, Nirvana Seepurshad

Although this is their first year, Heather Whitman and Stephen Walker seem to be pros at the inner tube snuggle

Pastor Manente, Dean Halbrook, and Mr Hannah entertain the audience with their impromptu skit

The Tooley family shares their yodeling talent

Parent/Faculty

Mr Allen shares a hilarious poem, "I'm all right for the shape I'm in"

Pastor Ferguson and Mr Buller prove once and for all which battery is best

Coach Wilson, it would seem, is a talented violinist

Talent

Dean Halbrook gets a little carried away when he presents his mother (Peggy Hallman) with a skateboard for her birthday. After some difficulties, she turns it into a trash can on wheels. Who would have thought you could use a skateboard for that?

"Miss Fowle, why can't we wear these skirts? They really aren't that short, and you wouldn't want us to be late for vespers," Mrs Manente and Mrs Moretta whine

Mr and Mrs Haakenson sing an original composition, "What would Jesus do?"

Show

Mrs Sutton and Mrs Moretta jump around and scream as Miss Fowle heroically saves the day by catching the BIG, Horrible mouse.

By letting His light shine through us, we become a reflection of Him.

Dear Dana,

Wow! How time flies. It seems like only yesterday when you began your scholastic journey. Now as graduation draws near, always remember that you are still our baby girl. We are, and always will be very proud of you.

Dana, God has a very special plan for you. Always let "Him" lead you and you shall never fail.

All our love,
Mom, Dad, and Jami

Melodie,

There's no possible way to say on paper what we hold in our hearts, as far as our love for you!

We have thanked God so many times that He has blessed us in sharing all the things life holds by having you as our dear daughter, sister, and friend.

It's still hard for us to grasp the fact that our "little girl" has grown up and is now graduating. Where has time gone?

Our prayer is that you'll continue to put God first in your heart and let Him lead you, as the song you sing best says, "Where He Leads Me."

With bundles of pride, congratulations, hugs, and kisses.

We love you Mel!
Daddy, Mom, and Chad

Congratulations Michele! Kelly,

We love you and are proud of you!

Love, Mom and Dad and Joey

God made you a very special person, and we are so proud of you!

Love, Dad, Mom, Kevin,
and Keri

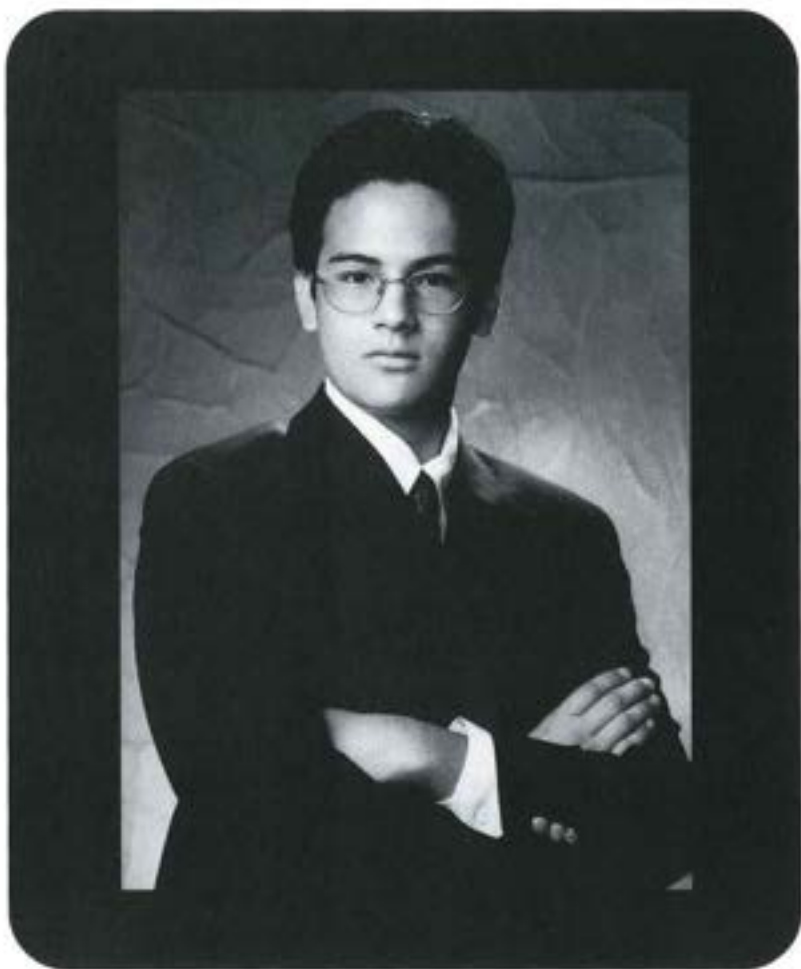

Eric,

Congratulations on all your accomplishments this year! We are so proud of you.
May God continue to bless you.

Love, Mom and Dad
