Principal's Message

Through the years, as you look over these pages, you will be reminded of many things.

You will see your favorite teacher - who seemed to know and understand you better than any other. You will also see that teacher that challenged you to try harder, dig deeper, and reach higher - to really grow. Remember them both.

You will see events and activities that you were a part of - either as a spectator or participant. Picnics, service days, banquets, games, trips, tours, performances, FOCUS weeks, mission trips. Remember them all.

You will see friends with whom you shared those special times. Classmates, teammates, roommates, girlfriends, boyfriends, true friends. Think about the laughs, the tears, the joy, the pain - it was so much better when you shared it with a friend. Remember them forever.

You will see God and His love in each of these things - friends, teachers, activities. You will look back and see how He has led you in so many ways. Remember Him above everything else!

It is my prayer, that as you look back over life - of which these pages are a part - the greatest memory will be - "Remember when I gave my heart to Jesus."

A Dedication to Pam Buller

Many of us fail to realize the impact Mrs. Buller has on each of our lives. Although she is rarely seen, every day we live according to how she performs her job. Our smooth schedules are the result of her dedication to Blue Mountain Academy and its students.

Mrs. Buller, we want you to know that your cheery smile and sweet personality have not gone unnoticed. Your enthusiasm and sense of humor has lifted our spirits many times and made dreary occasions almost pleasant ones. Through thick and thin, your help and support as the Bel Canto "Mom" has been an encouragement to its members throughout the year.

*"But he who is greatest among you shall be your servant. And whoever exalts himself will be abased, and he who humbles himself will be exalted."
Matthew 23:11,12*

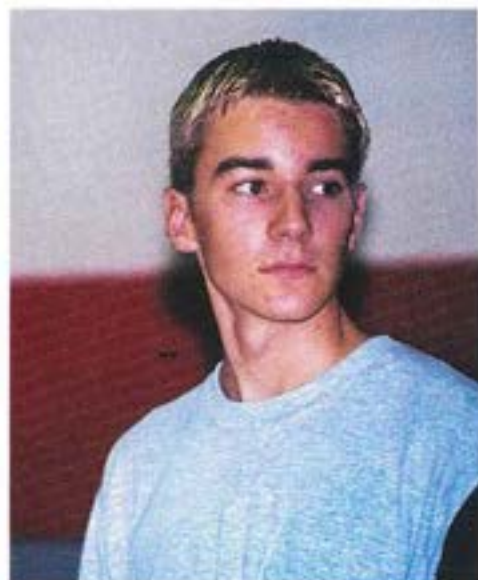

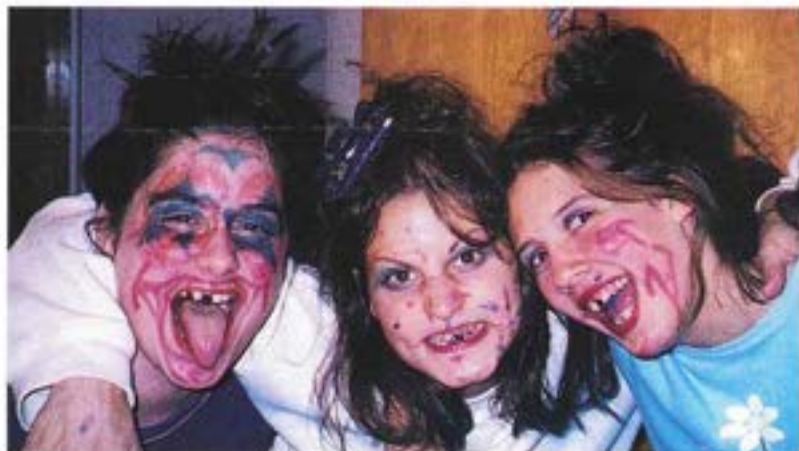

Although a yearbook dedication is not exactly considered exaltation, we feel that you have humbled yourself in order to serve the students of BMA better. We realize that you never desire recognition for yourself, choosing rather to let others shine, but we want to honor you and your commitment to excellence with this dedication.

Echoes 2000 Staff

Here we witness the true sides of Heather Trout, Denise Golden, and Jenny Nelson.

"If I don't make eye contact, maybe they'll just go away," Ryan Maybrook thinks to himself.

Kelly Allen gives us another one of her beautiful smiles.

Some of our seniors, like Joanna Sutton and Michael Crandon, are never shy in front of the camera.

I Will Never Be

I will never be the same again,
I can never return, I've closed the door;
I will walk the path, I'll run the race,
and I will never be the same again.

CHORUS

Fall like fire, soak like rain, flow like mighty waters, again and again;
Sweep away the darkness, burn away the chaff,
and let a flame burn to glorify Your name.

There are higher heights, there are deeper seas,
whatever You need to do, Lord do in me;
The glory of God fills my life,
and I will never be the same again,
and I will never be the same again.

Caleb Sijua and Evan Spicer have made a close friendship over the four years that they have been here at Blue Mountain.

Raetinda Tooley looks lovely no matter what the circumstances.

Dustin Small and Meica Bodiek pose for a cute snapshot in the cafe.

Is Renette Master rejoicing because she's out of class, or is she just excited to have her picture taken?

Elissa Morello has found yet another thing amusing and gives a big smile for the camera.

Raymond, Lance, and Edgar relax in the lobby after a long day at school.

The cameraman surprises the elusive Arthur Treitt in his natural habitat.

Intimidating? Just wait until Dustin, Jon, Jeremy, and Jay really flex.

"Why do you have to take my picture?" asks Michael Suroios. "I'm busy here."

McCarthy Thomas and Edwin Galarza take a break from studying.

... We Spent Our Time Portraying?

"Silence before the queen!" demands Autumn Kozden as she holds her mighty big stick.

Autumn Kozden, the student leader of Portrayals, possesses the ultimate power here.

Portrayals began two years ago as the result of a dream. A dream to use students in a church drama group that would perform thought-provoking sketches for Sabbath school and vesper programs. Each year, students wanting to participate must audition to be part of this talented group. The director, Kelly Allen, has often had difficulty containing the giggles during practice but when the skits take place for real, everyone receives a blessing from what is portrayed.

See Marty. See Marty as the old preacher 10 yrs. from now at alumni reunion.

Pastor Sergio Manente doesn't have to try hard to get Nadia Santana to sign up at his station.

Litza DeJesus and her mom finally get to the front of the music line.

Lestey Bovell finds out all the information she needs from Mrs. Hallman.

Alexis Abrahamtes has made it to the end of registration and is receiving his final papers from Mr. Stewart.

Chanel Minniefield shows her enthusiasm with a great big smile.

Lauren Clear relaxes once she has gotten to the front of one of the long lines.

Stephanie Greene is ready to tackle her big stack of papers.

...We Met Everyone?

Carlos Solano is ready with a question for Mr. Edison.

Mr. Butler greets Walter Ramirez with a warm hug and handshake.

Leah Kim looks at the long line to come while Autumn Beehtel gazes forward.

Almost all of the BMA students were in the gym to be a part of the annual handshake line.

Mr. Hannah is still glad to meet new students, like Danieta Freil, during handshake.

You can see how privileged Lanee Robbins gets to be shaking hands with Joanna Sutton.

Mr. Lewellen leans forward so he doesn't miss hearing Tim Wagner's name.

The Mixer is a great place to make new friends, like Leah Kim and Autumn Kozden.

Clarinda Bradley and Sonia Haskin give it their all while playing Fruit Basket Uppel.

Jenny Nelson seems to have gotten distracted from the games by the camera in her face.

The SA Mixer?

No one wants to get caught with the "hot potato" when the music stops and have to do something up front.

Everyone has to run in this group, one of the SA officers called fruit basket upset.

The Mixer is also a great place for returning students to meet new ones, like Donald Lee and Stanley Huote.

One of the things that we had to do up front was sing a little song. These guys did a great job.

Tired from the excitement of the games, Joanna Sutton and Glenda Seeders take a break.

...The Seniors Learned

Even though we were in need of showers by Sabbath, we still felt like singing.

Tim Shives looks on as Caleb Sigua prepares his survival food.

Another chilly morning brings this group together.

Happy, confused, bored; many feelings were expressed this weekend.

The worships were another way the seniors were brought together.

Sorry Sherise, we didn't mean to disturb your concentration.

How To Survive?

These guys don't care that they haven't showered for four days.

Joanna Sutton stays fresh by using the spitgot to brush her teeth.

The male staff showed their skill by making pancakes one morning.

Once again Mr. Hannah has asked seniors to divide into three groups.

These sad seniors wanted to be in group one, instead of group three.

It's feeding time here in the woods. Our main attraction today is seniors.

Tim Shives peeks out of his teepee to see who is making all the noise.

Jenny, Liz, and Jteather make good use of their tarps and relax in comfort.

Edgar makes a valiant effort to move the bus. (Bus 9 stalls again)

The sophomore class sports their skills.

Yoanny Feliz pulling off the euteness.

Delissa Edwards has been chosen.

Lance and Phil both love veggies, but even a carrot couldn't bring them together for this race.

Ryan Stayton, future model of America.

This bad boy unabashedly bows to the bar, go Steve.

... We Were Part of Union Leadership?

We arrived at Mount Kenna around 3 p.m. After we got settled in, we went to the lodge and feasted on a delicious meal that Shenandoah had prepared for us.

Throughout the weekend we participated in activities and meetings. Everyone had a great deal of fun meeting new people from other Seventh-day Adventist academies. It was refreshing to see kids from other schools who loved to sing as much as BMA students do. The meetings and activities that were planned really helped everyone learn how to become better leaders and better people.

In our spare time we played a few games of basketball. Mr. Hannah really showed us kids how to play out on the court. Overall we had a lot of fun at Mount Kenna camp, we met a lot of new people, learned how to interact with others, and most importantly we learned how to be better leaders for Jesus Christ.

... We Went to BMA Leadership?

Early on a cold October morning, 36 sleepy students climbed aboard a bus and found a seat to call home for the five-hour trip west to Laurel Lake Camp. Some of the travelers were uncertain why they were going. They had only been told that they held a position of "leadership" and would be taking off school and leaving for the weekend.

Those who had been on BMA's Leadership Weekend before knew that the weekend was designed to be a time for developing and honing the skills necessary to be an effective leader, praising God, and relaxing. The newcomers to the Leadership Weekend were quickly initiated with the traditional game of bam-ball and a Sabbath afternoon hike around Lake Hemlock. Throughout the weekend, Pastor Dave Ferguson spoke to the group about having a vision and letting God be part of that vision. A highlight of the weekend came on Saturday night, when many braved the cold temperatures and went swimming in the new camp pool.

On Sunday, after the final song service had been sung, the last meeting finished, and all had partaken of another fine meal prepared by Mr. Allen, students and accompanying staff posed for a picture in front of a gorgeous backdrop of fall colors that only the hills of Laurel Lake can boast. As the bus pulled away from Baker Lodge, a few students were sniffling, either from the colds they caught from too much hot chocolate and swimming, or because they would miss this memorable weekend.

... Our Vision was in FOCUS?

O'kera Bishop's words, like his motions, were quite impressive.

During one of his talks, Pete Braman shared with us on his guitar.

Mr. Bishop's message was delivered with great power.

Pastor Braman spent some free time with students in the lounge.

When Pastor Braman spoke, we could feel his message with him.

The kid in us and the urge to goof off always shows through.

Some Seniors gather in class spirit at Afterglow.

Richard Brevig and O'kera have some time to talk after the meetings.

...We spent our time in Service?

Christina Maguire and Chrissie Ragstadt make cookies to warm the heart.

Natalie Manco and Derrick Heisey entertain children with a "magic trick."

Steve Miranda and his best friend from the Humane Society.

These clowns are alike in their commitment spreading smiles.

These girls show off their baking talents.

The new instructional video: "101 Things to do with a Spoon."

"When does the flour go in?" Stanley Hunt wonders to himself.

Stephanie Booker holds her shy friend at the Humane Society.

...We Prayed at BMA?

Alexis, Brandon, and Lauren learn to work together.

Terry-Anne and Chaely can't contain their enjoyment at this moment.

A roll of toilet paper brings Adrian Ryan and Stephanie close together.

This team must be winning the race. They don't look the least bit worried.

One of the highlights of "Cracked Pots" was the song services which got everyone involved.

When it comes to teamwork, Lestey and Kathy are pro's.

For special music Amy, Tricia, Raelinda, and Mike united their voices.

It looks like Shane is a little tired after accompanying song service.

...We Prayed With Others?

Scott Haakenson seems totally caught up in the moment.

Jen Page looks up texts during a Bible study.

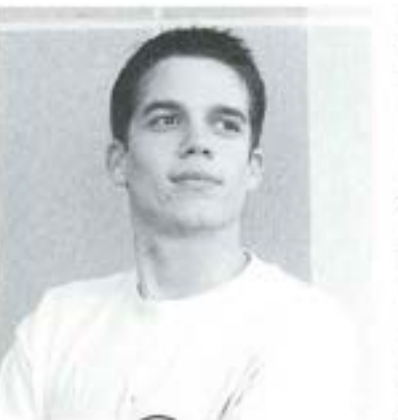

The next C.D. Brooks takes the "Mike" to share what he has learned.

These guys can't get enough of each other and pose for a picture.

No words can express the good time these girls are having, just their smiles can.

Derrick Heisey is confident that he has learned some valuable things.

Jen Broadwater is deep in thought while reading her Bible.

Gracia Rouse decides that she wants to be free like the birds.

...We

Laura Cates smiles at the sweet knowledge of knowing where she will attend college. Will it be CUC?

And the winner of the CUC college days sweatshirt is...Carol Corbia!

Jen Broadwater's smile looks a little forced. She must have a really busy schedule.

Visited

Several seniors ponder the necessity of sprouts in their sandwiches.

Fritz Fandino and Linnie LeBrun share some laughs while off campus.

Jesse Lazaroff can have his Utz Potato Chips and eat them too!

"Where am I going to college?"
"Don't you wish you knew," taunts Jenny Brown.

Derriek Heisey takes a moment to look into the future. What do you see?

"What? You think I'm beautiful?" asks Christina Daley, "aw shucks."

Derrick Heisey plays a paranoid lifeguard intent on saving swimmers from dead bugs.

Casey Lazaroff and Laura Cates are two bums on the street wishing for better days.

Cautiously peering at the "steps of doom" Nick Konning and Sherene Campbell prepare for their descent.

Justin Cate reverently holds his candle Friday night.

Do flight attendants ever annoy you? This sketch showed the lighter side of a possible crash.

WERE RECOGNIZED?

Anna Sutton is horrified at the thought of Michael Crandon stealing her cookies.

Raelinda Tooley is the thorn between two roses.

At this rate Dolly Porawski is never going to meet her beloved at the flag pole.

"ops" is back, with Jon Kutt, and Jeremy forwards in the driver's seat.

Michael Crandon (with his side-kick Jeff Garcia) adds some noise to the evening.

Not everyone was exactly sure about what to do at vespers, Brandon Shobe was no exception.

...SA A THREW

Tiffany Harewood struggles to complete the giant maze.

Joanna Sutton carefully applies face paint to Chanel Minniefield's face. Hold still!

Miss Dinning just smiles while Mr. Lewellen calls out "Hey now, stop teasing Rudolph!"

Nothing beats a game of checkers. Just ask Chrissie Angstadt.

Coach Wilson showed us that Santa can still be cool, even if he is a little skinny.

Casey Lazaroff and David Zanazania share a "guy bonding moment."

CHRISTMAS PARTY?

Christie Kilmer is intently listening...well...whatever.

This group was too cool to sit with Santa.

Sherene Campbell and Amber Burton croon Christmas songs to karaoke.

These guys are having a hard time catching their breath in a moon bounce.

Why are we throwing cotton? Maybe we should ask Jason, Ryan and Phillip.

BMA boasts large numbers of beautiful girls and Linnine LeBrun is no exception.

Kwasi Agyemang and Fallon Gordon entertain themselves with a table game.

...ALMOST ANYTHING WENT?

Can you do the Can-Can? Jay Beaven, Ryan Gray, Casey Lazaroff, and Jon Rutt can!

Allison Burton hangs on for dear life as Josh Swan and Ge Wilson drag her to the basketball net.

Blow that ping-pong ball Cecily Allen! Pucker- up and blow hard!

Jenny Nelson grins nervously as she "surfs" above her classmates.

"Okay, just hurry up and announce the next event please," says Valorie.

This group of juniors waits impatiently for their cue to try to make a shot.

For the second year, Michelle Thomas risks her life to help her class.

Stephanie Hartzell looks a little unsure, but stays calm while her class passes her over.

Ben and Andrea take advantage of the moment. . .

Tricia Rouse and Caleb Sigua calmly wait for the race to begin.

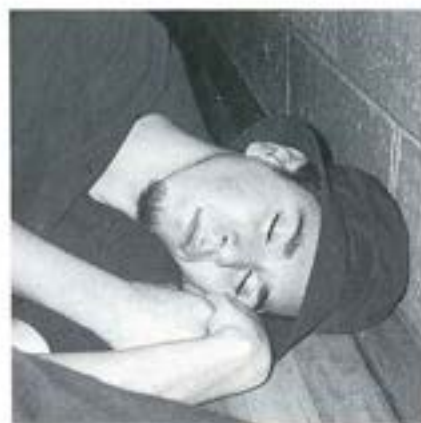

Tasha Simmonds and Sonia Haskin exercise their lungs and fight off the urge to hyperventilate.

Stanley Hunter: future Olympic track star.

Keep smiling, Amber Hiscock, you're almost done!

Frank Vazquez takes a 10-minute power-nap to re-energize himself.

"You wanna start something?" The Junior class is ready to take on the mighty mattress.

As Marcel Halbrook violently throws herself on the balloon, Ryan Stalton dashes back to the freshman side.

...We Ate in the Cafe?

Sometimes the choice of what to eat can be very intense.

Jason Hanton has a moment in the cafe.

"Why would someone want to interrupt my meal?" wonders Stephanie Booker.

Maybe Arthur's food had some love potion in it.

Lorand Moldovan is looking off and almost misses his mouth.

Monique Hall stays healthy with a little salad.

Clarissa Bradley is surprised to see a camera while trying to eat.

This group of friends uses meal times as a fun way to socialize.

Jen Broadwater and Raymond Charles spend some time just talking after they've finished eating.

..Rec Occupied Our Free Time?

Rachael Barrera takes a moment out of the game to pose by the net.

During the junior/senior basketball game, everyone gave it their best shot.

These guys use rec as a time to socialize with each other.

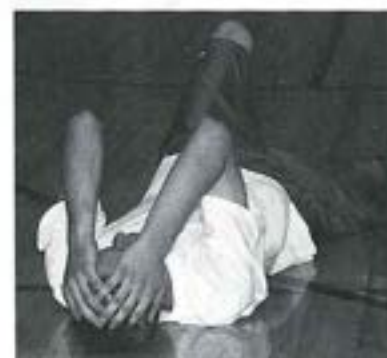

Coach and Jenny Brandon Shobe think that the gym shoots...and is the best place hopes for the best.

These juniors give it their all in a game of volleyball.

...We Had Different Job$?

Josh Swan is caught in the act of reading a magazine while on the job.

Hey, Jon Kutt, that had better be a work-related call.

These office workers have to smile from the excitement of their jobs.

Derriek Heisey is wishing that he were at a Hawaiian luau instead of working.

"Maybe if I look deep into the computer screens they'll think that I'm working," thinks Josh.

These boys are hard at work... or are they playing on the computers?

Stephanie Hade takes a moment out of her work schedule.

Misty Small relaxes in the dean's office while working.

...We Attended Classes?

My and Jon look a little skeptical about why they are being photographed.

Look at these cuties, Sarah Brassard and Valerie Leach.

What's wrong Phil, did the computer freeze on you again?

Lauren Clear takes a little nap after a hard day of learning.

Justin Cate concentrates hard to make sure he doesn't cross his t's.

Libby Small and Glenda Seeders are the picture of excitement for another day of school.

Evan, are classes still too early in the morning for you?

Sorry to take you away from your paper, Shirene.

next with us during our travels in your first 18 years of your life.

You have grown through all those experiences, and we are proud of the beautiful young woman you have become, poised and full of grace. God has truly blessed us by having you for our daughter, and we know He has great plans for you.
Keep the love of Jesus in your heart and He will guide you through life's journey and forever keep you in his loving care.

We love you always,

Laura:
Our little "sunbeam" has grown into a beautiful young woman. You have always made us happy and proud that you are our daughter. Your accomplishments during these four years at BMA have been more reasons for gladness and thankfulness to God for His great gifts.

Always remember that He loves you as if you were His only one.

Keeping Him first in your life, you will succeed wherever His path may lead you.

Our love always,

Dear Brandon,

We are proud of the man that you have become! Your sense of humor and talent to figure things out will make life interesting for you. You have made us all proud. Keep dreaming and reaching for the stars, and with the help of God, our best Friend, we will reach that dream. Stay close to your creator. He knows what is best for you, and He loves you best.

Love,
Ambet, Mom, and Dad

Dear Carol,
You are a special person, and once again we are very proud of you! Wherever you go and whatever you do keep your focus on God and the path He would have you take.

We love you, Dear.

CONGRATULATIONS!!*

We are so proud of you and thankful for your joyous spirit. Your mischievous smile and humour have always made our lives brighter.

May you always know how important and unique you are to our family. Never doubt how much you have to give to God and those around you.

Love you dearly,

Dad, Mom, "Topher", Kester, Missy, Grandma, Grandpa and Krinkles

The Lord blessed our family the day you were born. God knew we needed your bright smile to bring joy and happiness to lead our new family.

As you grew, we have always been proud of the choices you have made. Following God and bringing joy to others has always been your strength.

We love you and are very proud of you.

Always follow our wonderful Savior and His leading, and you will never go wrong!

Love,
Mom, Dad, Andrew & Matthew

Trust in the Lord with all your heart and lean not on your own understanding; in all your ways acknowledge Him, and He shall direct your paths.

Dear Dusty,
Dear Firstborn of our beautiful flock,

"A few days ago" someone placed you in our arms for the first time-so small you seemed to be an empty bundle of blankets, yet already fiercely independent.

Now you are a fine young man & small only in name. We have loved both of these stages in your life and all the others in between. Their memories are treasures in our hearts.

As you leave this year behind & strike out on your own, we are sad to lose our "little boy," yet so very, very proud of who you have become. We are especially proud of how hard and determinedly you have worked to overcome the obstacles along your way, and we look forward eagerly to seeing your next stage of life.

Remember that you may be going out on your own, but you are never alone. Our prayers for you will never cease. Love, Mom & Dad

Congratulations Jonathan
"God's gift to us."

Love,

Dear Meisa,

The day you were born the sun shone brighter, and my world has been brighter since. I am so proud of the beautiful young lady you have grown up to be. You are such an adventurer, always into something (including esophords). I admire your boldness and strength. You have the courage to be honest about your feelings, that I envy. (I wouldn't have minded having your grades in high school either.) I know you will succeed in whatever you do. Always remember that no matter where you go or whatever you do, my love and support is always with you. We love you! Love, Mom and Dewey

PS. CONGRATULATIONS! You've done a great job. I'm really proud of you. Best of luck in your future! Love, Mike

Amy,
CONGRATULATIONS,

We are very proud of you, and thankful to have you for our daughter. The Lord has richly blessed you with musical talent, may you continue to use it to his honor and glory.

Dearest Michael:

Remember now thy Creator in the days of thy youth, while the evil days come not, nor the years draw nigh, when thou shalt say I have no pleasure in them.

Ecc. 12:1

If you have faith, nothing will be impossible for you.

Matt. 17:20

May God give you the courage to set your sights high and the wisdom to see that everything is possible if you believe.

Nate: I just wanted to congratulate you on making it through another year. I hope that whatever you plan to do next year is fun for you. It was comforting to have you around, like at breakfast. Love ya, Lissy

Melea: Thank-you so much for all the fun times we've shared together. Brainwaves, bad movies, shopping, it was all fun. I hope that you will cherish the memories that were made here as much as I will. Love ya, Lissy

Litza: I can't believe that I've known you for only 2 years. It seems so much longer. I will never forget the fun times that we had on tours and the late night bus rides. Thank for always being there. Love ya, Lissy

Denise: Your silly faces, funny stories, and all the fun memories that we have shared. I'm glad that I have had you for one of my friends. I will always think of you as my roommate. Love ya, Lissy

Amy: I have enjoyed getting to know you these past years. You are such a sweet and nice person. Thank-you for your ever-present friendly smile. I will miss it next year. Love ya, Lissy

Elissa: Great job on the yearbook. Wish me luck next year. Have fun in whatever u do! Luv, Karey

Amy B. & Melissa M.: U both have been great friends. Good luck in the future. I'll miss u in bells. Luv, Karey

Seth H., Ryan C., Jody & Dan: You're great friends & I luv u! Now it's our time 2 shine! Luv ya lots, Karey

Jason E.: You're friendship means a lot 2 me. I wish only the best 4 u! Always remember me. Luv always, Karey ass of 2000: Follow where God leads. You are special. We will miss you. The Hallmans stor Manente: Thank you for always taking the time to see how we are doing and being genuinely concerned with our lives. We'll remember you forever. Love always, Meica and Elissa

rs. Corbin: Thank you so much for helping me to edit everything and make the deadlines. You were a great help. I appreciate everything that you have done for me. Thanks again, Elissa mie: Catch your dreams, you deserve them. You are an awesome friend. Congratulations! Love ya, Amber H.

elia: I am just glad to have you as a friend. You have become like a sister to me. I loved having you over all the time and I never got bored or sick and tired of you. We have had a lot of dreams and some have come true, some haven't, but in all we got closer. Hopefully this summer we can work together. If for some reason that doesn't work it's ok because I will just have to come out to Kansas with you. Thanks for putting up with me and helping me. Love always, Joanna melinda: What can I say to you to let you know how much I love you. I can't believe the year is almost over and we may never really be able to see each other on a one-to-one basis. That is going to be so weird. I don't think I am going to like that. But God has a plan and He will make everything work out. He always does!!! I know that He is going to give you the right man to fulfill all of your dreams. I love you! And no matter what, we can't grow apart, ok. Love always, Joanna my: Wow, it's over. I remember like it was yesterday that we were dreaming for the day when we would go to the same school together. Some how, through the hard stuff and me going away, we managed to stay best friends. Thanks for that. I am so glad God put us together when He did. I will always treasure the memories. And I will never forget going to the beach, with you and all the erabs. And your telling me about Candles, ha ha ha, you know what I mean. Thanks for being there. I love you and always will. And if we do go to different schools again, it won't matter because just like this time we will come back together and it will be like nothing had ever changed. Love always, Joanna ssy: I remember the first day I met you. I didn't know what to think of you. I think it was because you were quiet. I know that is funny because I don't ever see you quiet anymore. Ha Ha Ha. Then we went on R.R. tours together. We seemed to hit it off and from then on we seemed to have become really good friends. Thanks for making these years enjoyable with lots of laughs. I love you and will miss you. Love always, Joanna enise: We never used to talk. I know you were hesitant on whether or not you liked me at first, but that is all right. Some of my closest friends have come from our hating each other at first impression. But through it all we seemed to have gotten close. I will always remember those talks we have had and all the things we have done together. Love you! Never change! Love turtles! Love always, Joanna ieica: What do I say to you? We used to hate each other. I don't know what happened, but somehow we began to like each other. I remember rooming with you at some conferences. The talks that we had there were amazing. I realized that whatever it was that we didn't like about each other, I couldn't remember. And I still don't remember. Probably just childish games. I do love you and I will miss you. Hopefully we can go to the same college and keep in touch. Love always, Joanna o Everyone Else: You know who you are. I love you and I just want to thank you for the memorable times you have given me. I love this school and I will miss it. Don't take it for granted. Get all you can from it and stay involved. Love always, Joanna

Mr. Hannah: Remember us when you go on mission trips. Remember never to leave your office open too long, things could disappear. Remember us when you tackle some poor unsuspecting kid. Remember us like we will remember you. Thank you for all the great times and making BMA memorable. Love always, Meica and Elissa

All the Yearbook Staff: Thank-you all so much for all of your help with this "little project." I couldn't have done it without you guys. You were always ready to help in any way possible. Have fun next year Karey! Lissy
