Compassion

What are words you use to define your experience at Blue Mountain Academy? There are so many different aspects of life that occur during these four short years.

- Compassion - One thing that is never forgotten is the friendships that we make. Roommates, class members, tour groups, and working together are all permanently ingrained in our mind.

- Honesty - As we build those relationships we learn so much about ourselves. During these years we move from accepting and acting on the values of our parents and others into formulating our own values.

- Attitude - As these values become our own they then guide our actions and determine who we are to become. They also impact our view of the world around us.

- Responsibility - As we develop our individuality and unique identity, we realize that we have to live as God has called us to live. We have to be true to our unique calling.

- Authenticity - And that unique calling has continued to direct our lives. When we read these words, years after we graduate, we will all know God has lead and how we responded to His leading.

- Choices - It is my hope that all of us have given our lives over to God and allowed Him to have control. It is only in that complete surrender that we can find true freedom.

- Trust - Freedom from the slavery of sin and the world. Freedom from following the crowd and freedom to lead for God.

- Excellence - Freedom from accepting what is average, or even good and the freedom to strive for something great. God has called each of us to an incredible life of adventure and excitement, of pain and sorrow, of living for others and being consumed in that life.

- Remember - May God and His incomparable love consume each of us.

Dedication

Coach Andrew Adams

Into each person's life, many individuals enter and leave with little effect. Every once in awhile, however, we cross paths with a person that leaves a powerful and lasting mark on our lives. For many students that have walked through the halls of Blue Mountain Academy in the last four years, one of these influential people is Coach Andrew Adams. Coach arrived at BMA four years ago, fresh out of college and ready to dive into this new world. We've grown up with him, and he with us. He has become our teacher and mentor. But most importantly, he has become our friend.

From Coach we've learned more than back tucks and foul shots. We've learned confidence, motivation, sacrifice, and respect. His door is always open, his evenings filled with trips to Wal-Mart, and Wednesday mornings with visits to the diner. Countless tumbling moves spotted, games refereed, confidence built, worries erased - these things mean so much.

So Coach, it's because of your selflessness, your love, and your friendship that we dedicate this yearbook to you.

God has blessed you with a heart of service. It's been wonderful to watch you grow. We are all accountable for how we treat our fellow man; and everyone could learn a lesson from you.

As you step out into the world, may you always remember how much you are loved.

Love and Congratulations,
Dad, Mom, and Autumn

Alexander James S. Pastor

Our dearest AJ,

We have fond memories of the day you were born by cesarean section. Contrary to typical medical practice but then a solo anesthesiologist in the only obstetrical hospital in Lebanon County your anxiously excited dad, M.D. (My Daddy) had to give the epidural anesthesia himself. Even at birth you already were unique and special with a good sense of humor in that instead of crying to reach an Apgar score of 9-10, you just stared at your mom as if to say, "Who are you and why am I here?" We vividly remember your first day of kindergarten with your hair trim just so and a new backpack hanging from your small shoulders, tentatively taking your first steps away from your world and began making your own way in life. Separation starts from birth. It's a constant process, bit by bit you're gaining independence. Each possibility is prompting a medley of emotions - pride tempered with humility, relief, elation, ambivalence, and a sense of loss. My, where did the time go? You have grown fast to be this smart, multitasking, debonair and handsome but spiritual gentleman. As parents watching our baby cross the dais, flashbacks of your other firsts - talking, walking, and playing the piano and violin - bring a lump to our throat. You've grown up in a time when performance is everything. Ease up on yourself. Have compassion for yourself as well as for others. Strive for excellence but don't condemn yourself when you fall short. In this earthly life there's no such thing as perfection. There will be times when you must speak up when the faint hearted will not, or act decisively when others, afraid of the consequences to themselves will not act at all. We as parents hope that we have instilled in you through God's omnipotent guidance the ability to know right from wrong and act according to your prayerful conscience and not mere convenience. You have a responsibility to contribute something important to the world and to help ensure the next generation will benefit from the education you have received. Lastly and with all possible emphasis please remember that there is no virtue in knowledge, in training, in emotion or in aspiration except as you use them in the conduct of a Godly life.

We thank God every moment for being so lucky to be your parents and rest assured that by His sustaining help and unconditional love we will be with you in every step of the way. Congratulations! We love you!

With our love and earnest prayers,

Mommy & Daddy
With Jamie & Jeremy

Dear Andrew,
 Congratulations on your graduation from Blue Mountain Academy. You have passed another of life's milestones. We are proud of you. God has richly blessed us and our family with you, a wonderful, loving son. Before you were born, we prayed God would give us a son and he gave us you. When you were very young and very sick, we prayed and God answered our prayer and you were healed. You are our prayed for and made well boy. Andrew, God has big plans for your future and our prayer is that you will follow his path He set for you. "Let your eyes look straight ahead, and your eyelids look right before you. "Ponder the path of your feet and let all your ways be established. Do not turn to the right or the left: Remove your foot from evil." Proverbs 4:25-27

You made us proud when you made your decision to follow Christ. Never, ever, allow yourself to be separated from the love of Christ. You have made us proud with your decisions in life and school. As you grow older you will learn life can be sometimes complicated, sometimes sad, and sometimes hard. Always keep your trust in Jesus Christ. He will bring you through all the hard times and trials you may face. He will lead you to joy and eternal life with Him. An like Paul, you can say, "I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith." 2 Timothy 4:7.

Thank you for being a wonderful son.

WE LOVE YOU!
 MOM and DAD

Lizzie - Having you for a daughter has always been a joy. We were truly blessed during your growing-up years and the good times we've yet to share will make still more happy memories. So on a day as special as your graduation, it's only natural to tell you how much love you have brought to our lives and how very much you're loved in return. Having you for a daughter was the best gift God could ever have given us. In your life ahead, always remember to hold on to this piece of advice above all others: ALWAYS, always put God first. No matter where you are in life, and no matter how hard the trials are to get there, the journey will be worth while if you remain strong in HIM. Ichy, My Darling:

It seems like yesterday, when you were a baby and we held you in our arms. Today, you are a beautiful young lady. Thanks to our Lord, and your parents, you were able to attend a Christian high school. There, you were able to learn about the many great things God has to offer. We can see that you have learned all of the values that will serve you as you follow life's path. Always carry them with you, guard them closely, and treasure them in a way that no one can take them from you. Also, remember the beautiful and unforgettable moments you've shared with your classmates and teachers. Congratulations with your graduation.

Aunt Jany, Silvina, and Carolina

My beautiful daughter,

For all of us, love you today is a very special day. It is the end of an era and the beginning of another. We give praise to our Lord and Father for giving you the opportunity to receive a Christian education. We know the accomplishment you have obtained today was not easy, but together with you we have learned perseverance, faith, and discipline. It was necessary during these times to guard them and help turn you into the triumphant one you are today. You can always count on our support. Thank you Nenita for being our daughter and for sharing these wonderful moments with us. May God continue to bless you.

XOXO CONGRATULATIONS
SIONTAY :O) :O)
God predestined you, Siontay to be His earthly child. HE gave you life on November 15, 1989 at 6:13 a.m. Tuesday morning. You were given the name Steven Ramone Antoine Russell Lewis but it was later changed to Siontay Ramone Ardonius Russell Lewis; due to an incident, which I believed to have been an inspiration from God and a direct encounter with an angel of God. I REMEMBER THE TIMES of your graduations from OPEN DOOR CHRISTIAN ACADEMY, READING JR. ACADEMY and the one and only BLUE MOUNTAIN ACADEMY. (HURRAY, HURRAY!!) According to the Holy scriptures (Prov.22:6; Train up a child in the way he should go... we have by God's grace accomplished that.
WE LOVE YOU SRAR!!

We never thought a 9.2 oz baby would bring such love, joy, understanding, worries and a "hole in our pockets." We feel blessed to have you in our lives. Remember "seek ye first the kingdom of God....." Matt. 6:33.

Our Precious Lauren

the right choices each day
and God will bless your efforts.

But seek first the kingdom of God and His righteousness and all these things shall be added unto you. Matthew 7:33

Emmy...

Love Mom, Dad, & Katie

Dear Keri,

We remember when our little girl skated in the wee hours of the morning, so no one could see her. Now we watch as our little girl stands in front of a filled church and gives a sermon or goes on a plane to a foreign land. God has blessed you with many talents, and we are so proud of the young lady you have become. As you look back over the last four years, remember the opportunities that you have experienced, the places that you have gone, the jobs that you have had and what you have learned from them, and most of all the friendships that you have made. These will be lasting memories that you will cherish. But also remember that God has been with you each step of the way and will continue to be with you as you pray for guidance. We were asked this year what your greatest accomplishment has been. First, we thought of Head RA or Senior Class President, but we knew that was not what you would say. It would be going to the Phillipines, Mississippi, and Tobago, to help other people and show them God's love.

You are a beautiful person inside and outside, but always remember it is the inside that matters. We love you more than you will ever know and are so proud of you.

Love,

Mom and Dad

Dear Kyung-wan (Bobby)
 The years, having passed by with our earnest prayers, answer back with a wonderful return of your graduation. How much proud of you we are! We congratulate you on your graduation. It is not only an achievement by you but also a gracious blessing for our family.

We know quite well, just like you do, that a graduation is an indicator to awake us to another starting, not ending. From the coming into this world through the toddlerhood till today, you've been the treasure of our family.

And now we kneel again to pray for you:
 "May you go and try to be the treasure of the world!"
 Always love.

Mom, Dad and Kyung-bum(Andy)

May you always have enough success
 to make you proud,
 enough joy
 to keep your heart singing,
 enough trials
 to keep you strong,
 enough luck
 to make you smile at life,
 enough of all life's treasures
 to keep you truly happy.

Congratulations Richmond
 and may God bless you!
