Principal's Message

Where have you left your fingerprints?

When God leaves His mark on you, you will never be the same. It was so with the blind man in John chapter 9. Here, a young man born blind wears the fingerprints of Jesus in the mud placed upon his eyes. When he washes it off, the world is now open to him and the change that comes over him are so intense that those that see him every day begging for money and mercy do not recognize him.

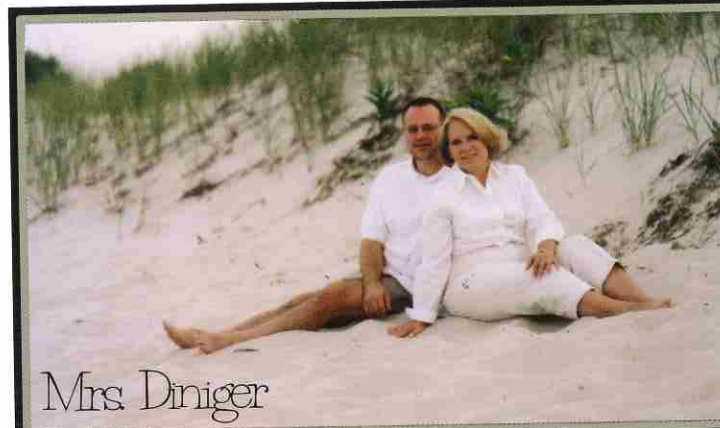

The same thing happens to each of us. Imagine the shock as Zaccheus visits those whom he has swindled and returns four-fold what he has taken from them. Picture the surprise as a common fisherman Peter expounds on the life of Jesus and unfolds the mystery of salvation, resulting in the baptism of 3,000 in a single day. Place yourself there when Saul, the persecutor of believers, claims to be one himself and then lives a life of total surrender to Jesus and His calling. There is nothing that changes a life like the fingerprint of God.

As you look through the pages of this book, you will see where God has placed His hands and left His fingerprints. Maybe it's a teacher that made Jesus come to life in their class or in their own lives. Maybe it's a friend that stayed by your side when others were not there for you. Maybe it's an experience during a mission trip, a FOCUS week, a leadership summit, or a worship service that helped you realize that God wanted to be a direct part of your life. He is calling you the one and only you to go out into the world and leave your fingerprint behind.

-Mr. Hannah

Dedicated to Our Deans

Mrs. Diniger

Living in the dorm can be a very stressful experience, especially when you're not used to all the rules and "isms." However, there are some amazing staff members, like the deans, who are our guiding eyes throughout our BMA years. You, Mrs. D, are one of those very people.

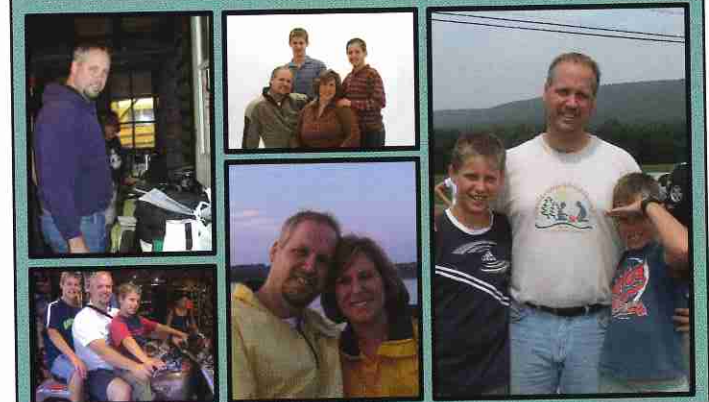

You have served at this school for seven years, and your hard work and dedication to the dorm and its girls is shown in all that you do. You're always there for us as a willing listener, a joking friend, a motherly figure, and so much more. You watch over us and help us in our times of difficulty and guide us when we need it. Not only that, but your snacks, cookies, and brownies are amazing!

Often the many things you do are not always noticed. You never demand the spotlight, nor thanks for all that you have done over the years. Well, Mrs. D, this is our thank you. Thank you for being so involved, so loving, so thoughtful, so honest, and so passionate.

You are an inspiration to us all, and for all this, we dedicate the yearbook to you.

None of the past sixteen years that you have spent working in the dorm have been easy- from bear attacks to severed fingers, you've been there keeping us safe. You have worked in, around, and behind the scenes to make Unruh Hall and the rest of the school a better place to live.

Over eighty students have come into the dorm this year, each with their own individual problems. And yet there has not been a problem that you can't conquer. Because of you, BMA is not just a place to grow academically, but spiritually and socially as well. You have put your all into making each individual feel comfortable- be it by having hall parties or random games of manhunt or campouts for all to enjoy. We have enjoyed every bit of it. You have guided us through this academy and stamped your prints on our hearts. Your efforts will not be forgotten. Thank you for everything.

Mr. Ringer

Senior Retreat

Survival of the Smelliest

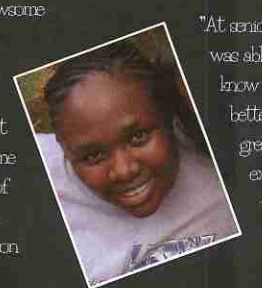

Leading The World
N
W  E
by following the one.

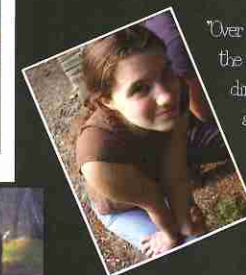

Senior Retreat was full of fun, fellowship, and learning. The weekend was filled with fun activities and we discovered who our leaders really were. We left the school as sixty-nine individuals with no goal in mind and returned as 1 group, 1 unit, the class of 2008.

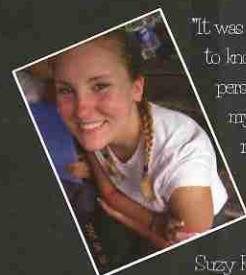

"Senior retreat was an awesome bonding experience. It made each individual become part of a bigger picture. That weekend taught me that the class of 08 is here for a much larger reason than we realize." - Sara H.

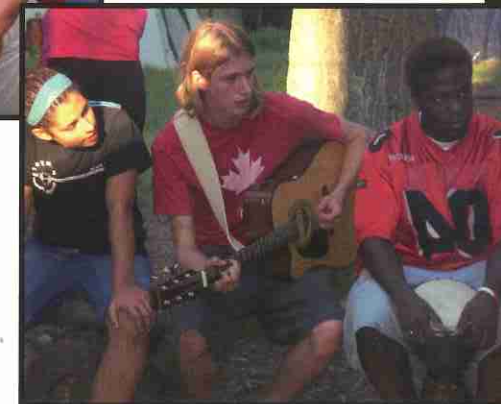

"At senior retreat I was able to get to know my class better, it was a great bonding experience." - Ruth W.

"Over Senior retreat the class of 08 got dirtier, smellier, and closer than they'd ever been before." - Danielle G.

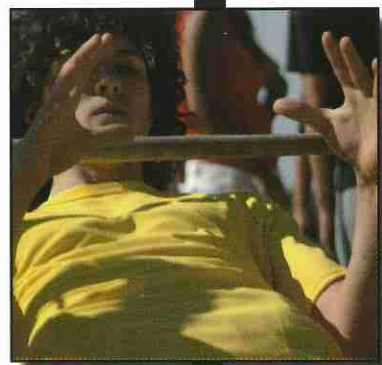

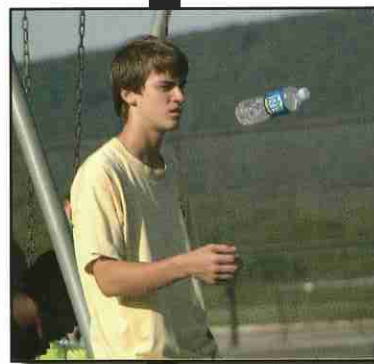

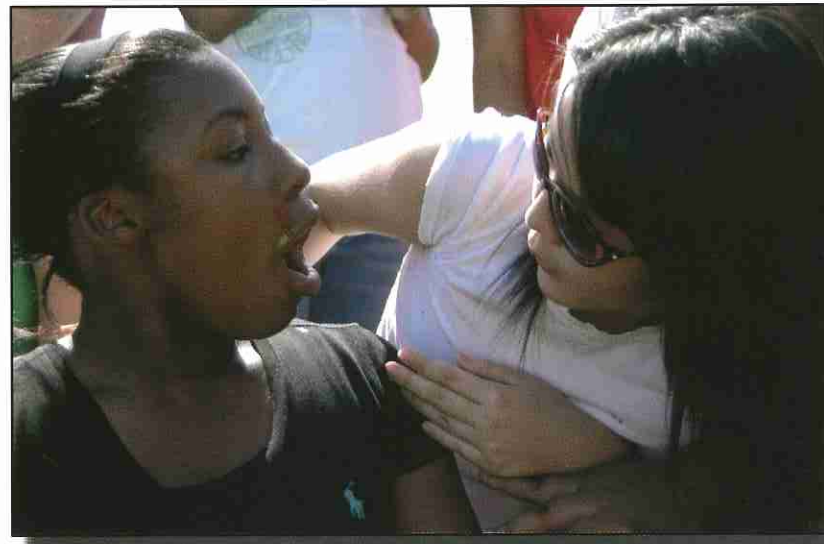

"It was sweet getting to know the true personalities of my friends & roughing out the wild with them." - Suzy K.

SA Fall Picnic

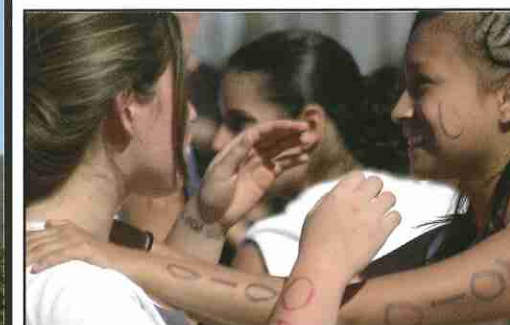

Here we see Judy Choi and Davina Johnson working together during the Hot Dog Eating Contest Davina won first place in this event for the class of 2009, thanks to her ability to eat fast and furiously. This game was certainly not for the faint of heart (or stomach) and she certainly conquered it!

Think fast! Jaron Senecal used his hand-eye coordination to the max when it came to the Water Balloon Toss Competition. In this event, students did everything they possibly could to keep from breaking the balloon and getting soaked!

The Pyramid Contest is a true test of agility and teamwork with little to no practice beforehand. Teams must run and assemble into a human pyramid as fast as possible and hold their position for a ten-second count.

SALT Leadership 2007

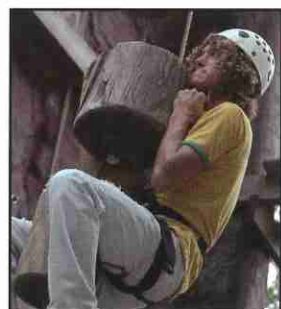

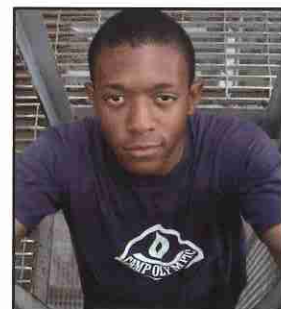

Picture from front left: Ceci Diaz, Diana Minatskanyan, Jenna Stewart, Vanessa Etienne, Amanda Gomez, Christel Koerting, Ken Miao, Mrs. Engen, Megan Armstrong, Evan Anderson, Matt Minton, Mr. Hannah, David Kegawa, Peter Christian, Jon Mall, and Mr. Marante

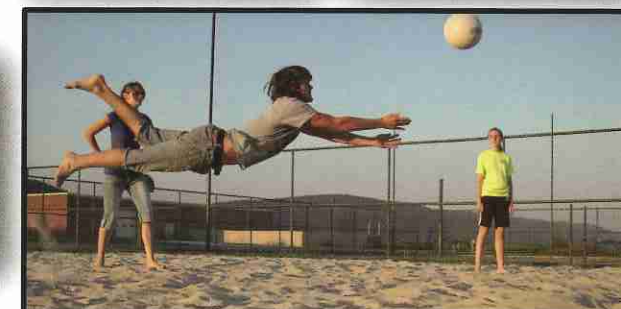

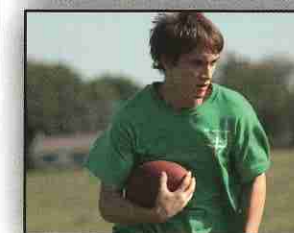

What do you get when you mix nearly a dozen different schools, amazing praise and worship, a phenomenal speaker, a climbing course, leadership sessions and lots of Kool-Aid? You get this year's SALT Leadership Retreat! With plenty of leadership-based discussions and workshops, Blue Mountain Academy's student leaders (see left) were given more than one opportunity to learn how to best impact their school and their peers.

"Leadership Is Followship"

Recreation: Hangin' Out & Running About!

"The King's Quest"

We searched everywhere for clues, asked the "sages" to impart their infinite wisdom, worked out mind-boggling puzzles, and learned invaluable lessons about leadership and teamwork. Shaunielle Abreu and Enoc Lopez taught us new leadership principles in interactive sessions. Mr. Allen provided meals and we had a very memorable "talent concert" at the end!

JUNIOR Class trip to Gettysburg

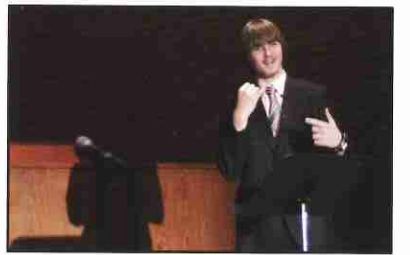

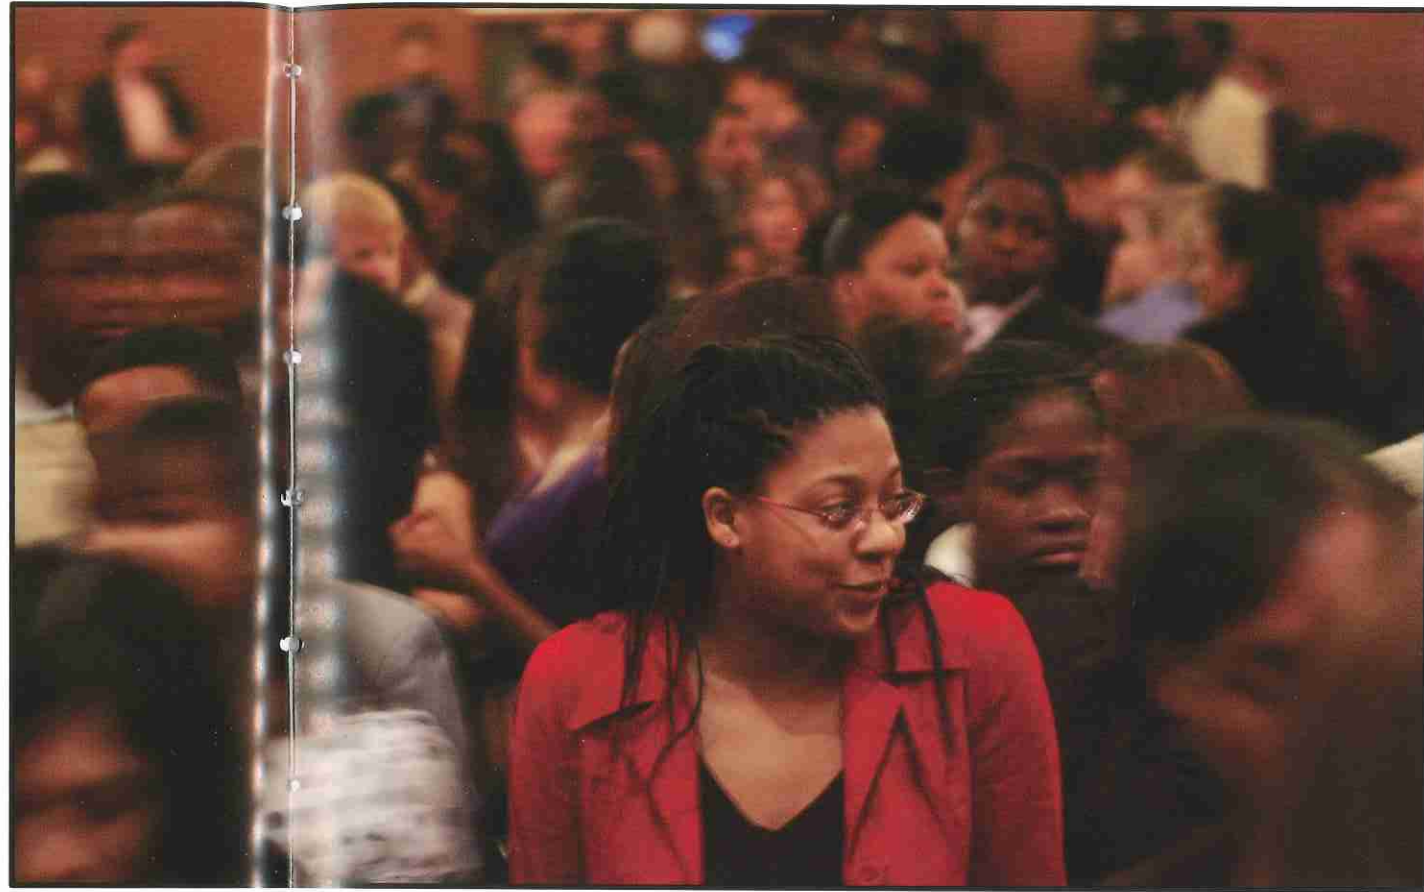

On October 16, 2007, the entire Junior Class went to the town of Gettysburg to visit the historic battlefields. There, they were able to experience the Civil War in a way that no textbook could provide. A great learning and bonding experience for all who went, the Gettysburg trip is sure to not be soon forgotten.

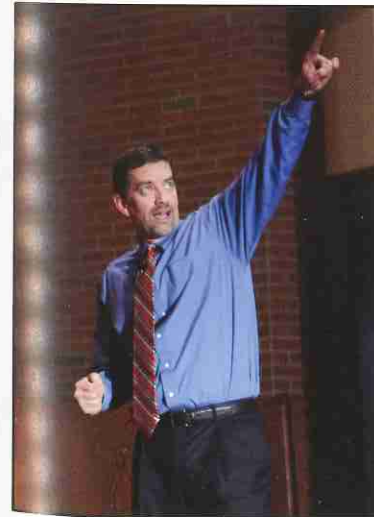

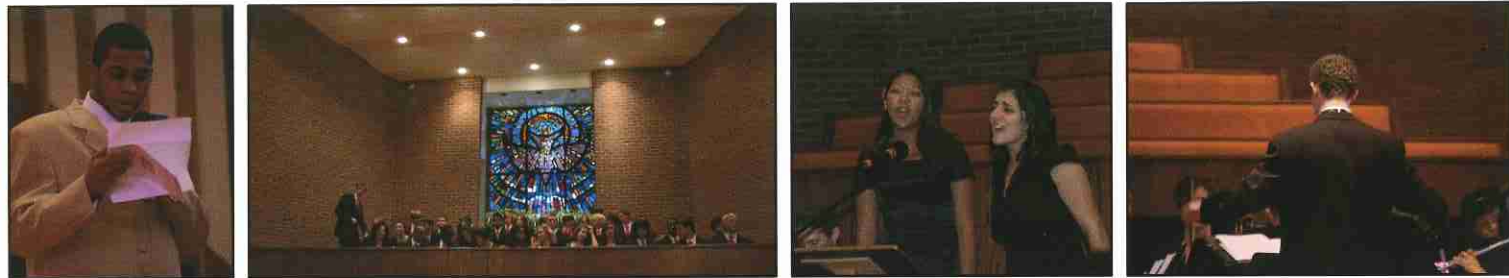

Joint Vespers @ Blue Mountain Academy

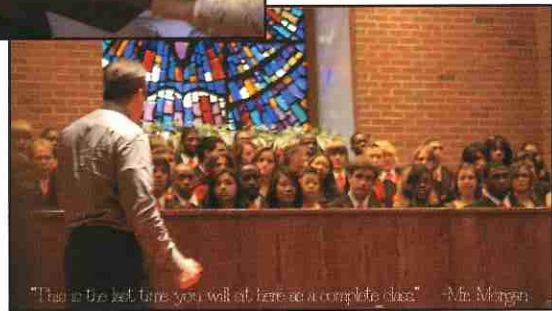

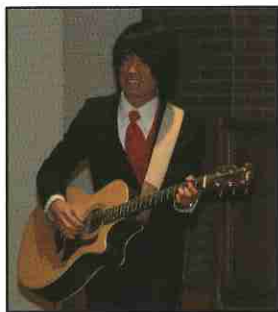

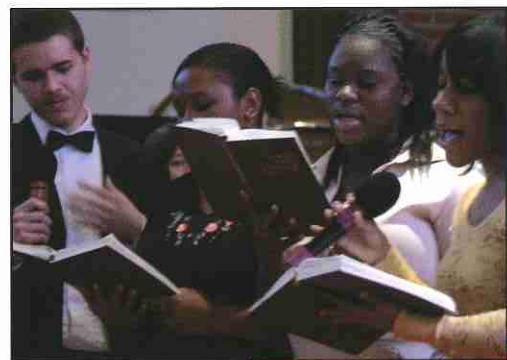

Being given the opportunity to worship with our neighboring academy, Pine Forge, was an experience to remember. With high-powered praise time, thought-provoking student speakers, and friendship-building activities, the hours we spent with one another will most certainly not be soon forgotten, and the friends we've made will stay in our hearts forever. This was not only a new way to do vespers, but the forging of relationships that will last a lifetime.

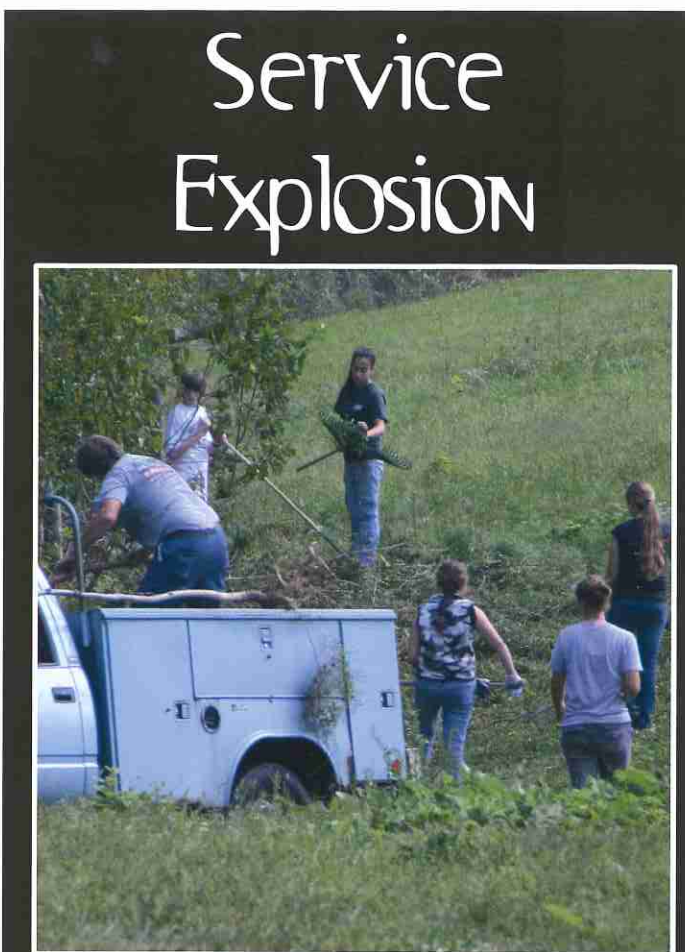

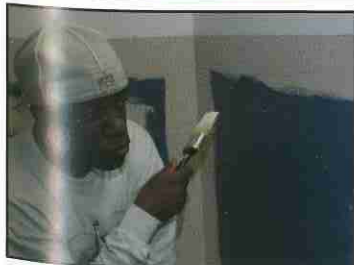

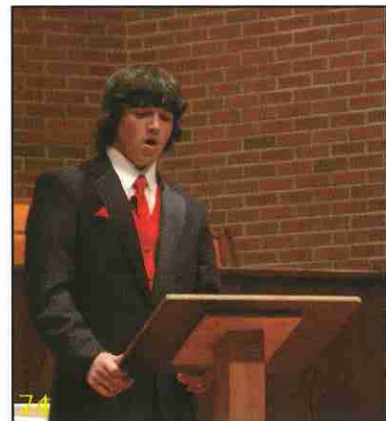

What you think you see isn't really us
 God's will hasn't always been a must
 It took a Christian to show us the way
 and now we're here and we're so proud to say
 Lord
 I'll lead if you lead me
 Oh I'll follow You
 Go where You tell me too
 You we put our trust in Lord
 With You we will lead the world
 Jesus we know that the world is in Your hands
 We want to serve You in any way we can
 We want to praise you and the right time is now
 We want to bless them the best way we know how
 I'll lead if you lead me
 Oh I'll follow You
 Go where You tell me too
 You we put our trust in Lord
 With You we will lead the world
 In God we trust we will have no fear
 He's been leading us since freshman year
 Now we choose to lead the world
 I'll lead if you lead me
 Oh I'll follow You
 Go where You tell me too
 You we put our trust in Lord
 With You we will lead the world

Service Explosion

Service explosion was the most physical thing I've done in awhile. It was cool to feel as if I am helping someone else.

-Angelique Hughes

Service explosion was a good experience to learn how hard people in the community work and to be able to help them.

-Jake Benson

During service explosion I played with children and learned what it would be like to have children of my own.

-Rebeka Marshchner

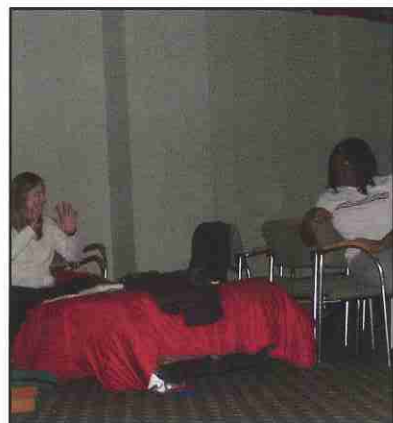

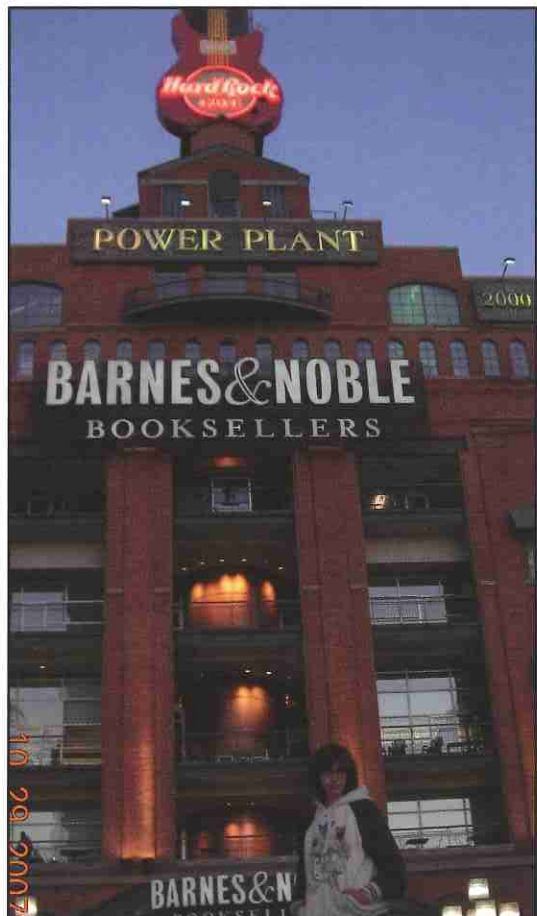

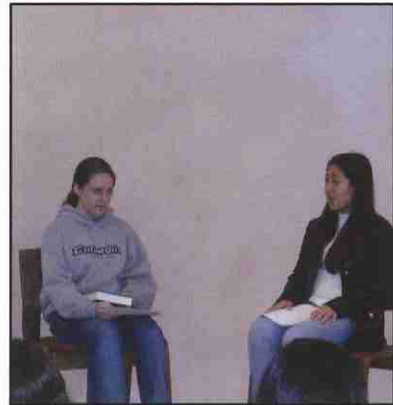

I enjoyed being able to help others in the community. It was nice to make a difference.

-Kelsey Larrabee

"Writers Conference"

A selected group of students went to Columbia Union College for a Writer's Conference. They went to work shops where they learned about poetry, college writing, acting, writing plays, and how to proof read. The students were able to learn from first hand experiences. They also went to see a play and visited Baltimore, Maryland.

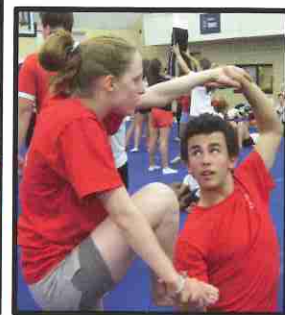

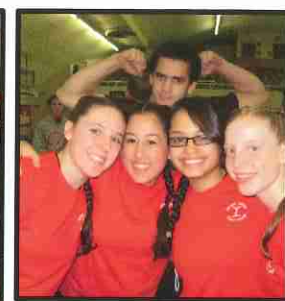

Acrofest 2007

POWER OF ONE

Blue Mountain Academy

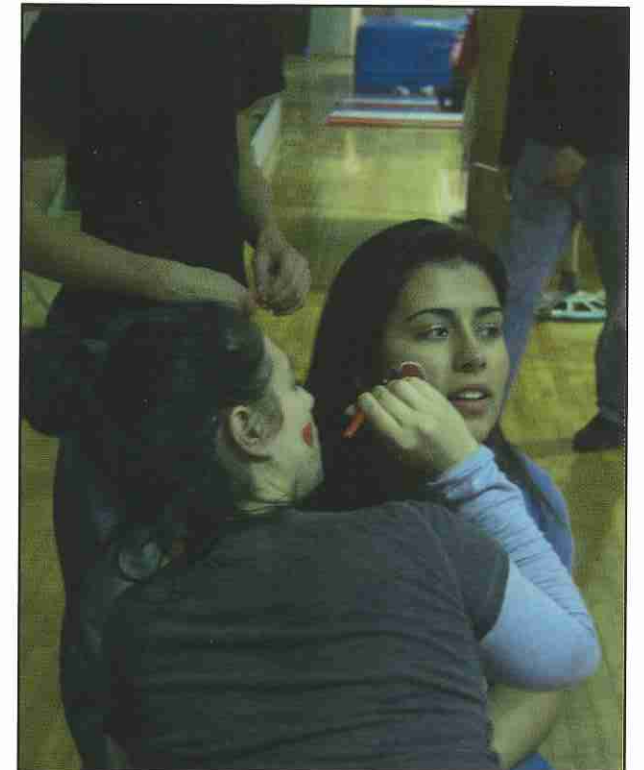

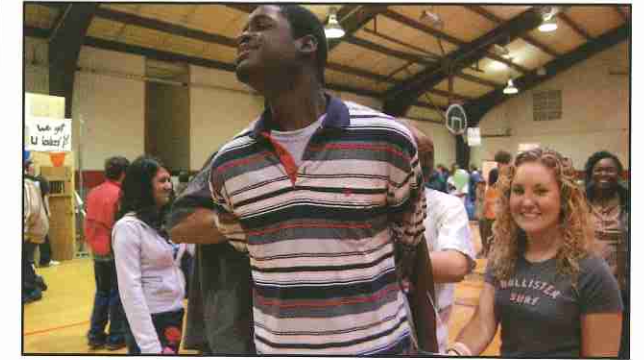

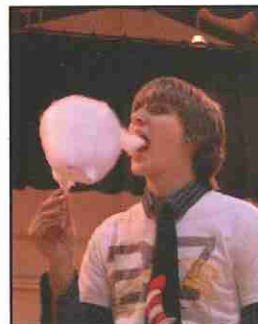

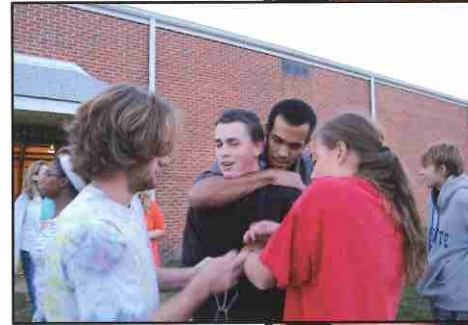

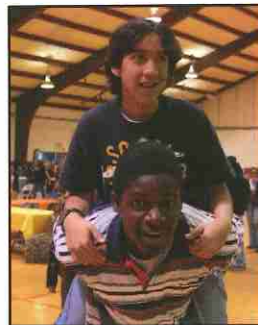

The best things about Acrofest were the clinics, the final performance, hanging out with friends and sleeping on the mats.

The things that I will remember most about Acrofest are learning my backhandspring, hanging out with the team, and standing in line for food out in the cold.
- Rebecca Guadalupe

Fall Festival

friends, food, fun

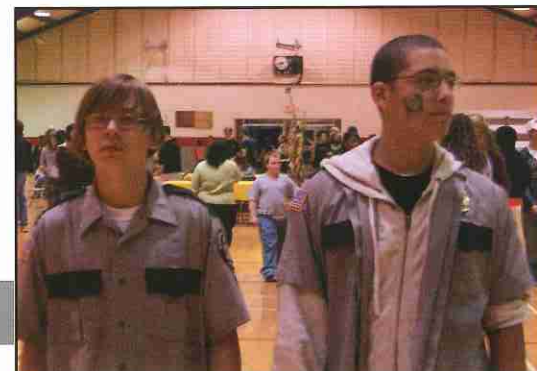

The best part about Fall Festival is the food and activities
-Renee Francisco

Fall Festival is a time for students to get involved in one big party. Whether it is with food, karaoke, or other activities, fun is easy to find.
