WITH ONE GOD, WE ARE ONE FAMILY 11

PRINCIPAL'S NOTE

Blue Mountain Academy exists to lead you to Christ. In turn our goal is that you will share your Christian walk with others.

When Jesus fed the 5,000, the disciples received the loaves of bread and fish directly from His hands. In turn, they served it to the people. "The disciples were the channel of communication between Christ and the people. This should be a great encouragement to all of us."

As the "source of all strength, Christ is the great center." We, as His disciples, receive our supplies from Him and then share Jesus with others. "The most intelligent, the most spiritually minded, can bestow only as they receive. Of themselves they can supply nothing for the needs of the soul. We can impart only that which we receive from Christ; and we can receive only as we impart to others. As we continue imparting, we continue to receive; and the more we impart, the more we shall receive. Thus we may be constantly believing, trusting, receiving, and imparting." The Desire of Ages, p. 370.

May this cycle of receiving and giving guide our relationship with God and our fellow man. True happiness in this life is found only in that God-given formula. I pray that each of us will experience that love! May this school year bring us closer together as we are taught by God.

Dear Lauren & Matt Anderson,

This year has been a huge year for you two! . Both of you are great people ,and we know that our school appreciates your presence on this campus. Mrs. Anderson, you came here as a taskforce dean, and with every student body that has passed through these halls you have shown your love and dedication. Leading out in the arts this year, you did a phenomenal job. Mr. Anderson, there are not words that can express how interesting you've made this year for our school. Your love for food service and making sure that we're all getting fed has really shone through.

With a new addition coming to your family, we would also like to congratulate you. Seeing your relationship and how you both glow in each other's presence, we know that your child will feel the love that you share for one another.

Thank you for being on this campus and showing us your great kindness, love, and dedication. May God bless you.

With all our love,
Yearbook Staff 2010-2011

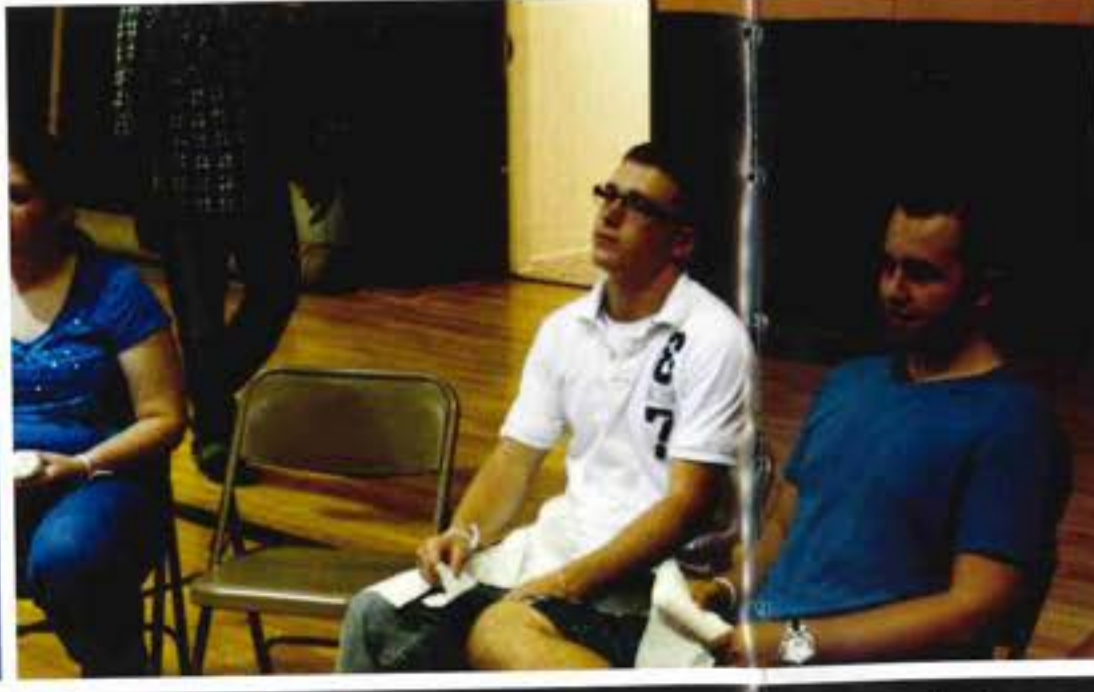

ONESTART

REGISTRATION/HANDSHAKE

Standing in registration lines, eating cafe food, and dreading 9:45 lights out, yup, its called the beginning of a new school year. On this rainy Aug. 15th, with lost freshmen and confident returning seniors, we were all excited for this year. After all our parents unloaded our belongings and said their good-byes, it was time for Handshake! With our SA officers showing us the way, we all gathered in the gym to greet old friends and welcome new friends. After eating ice cream and socializing for a while, it was time to head back to the dorm and prepare for a wonderful first day of school.

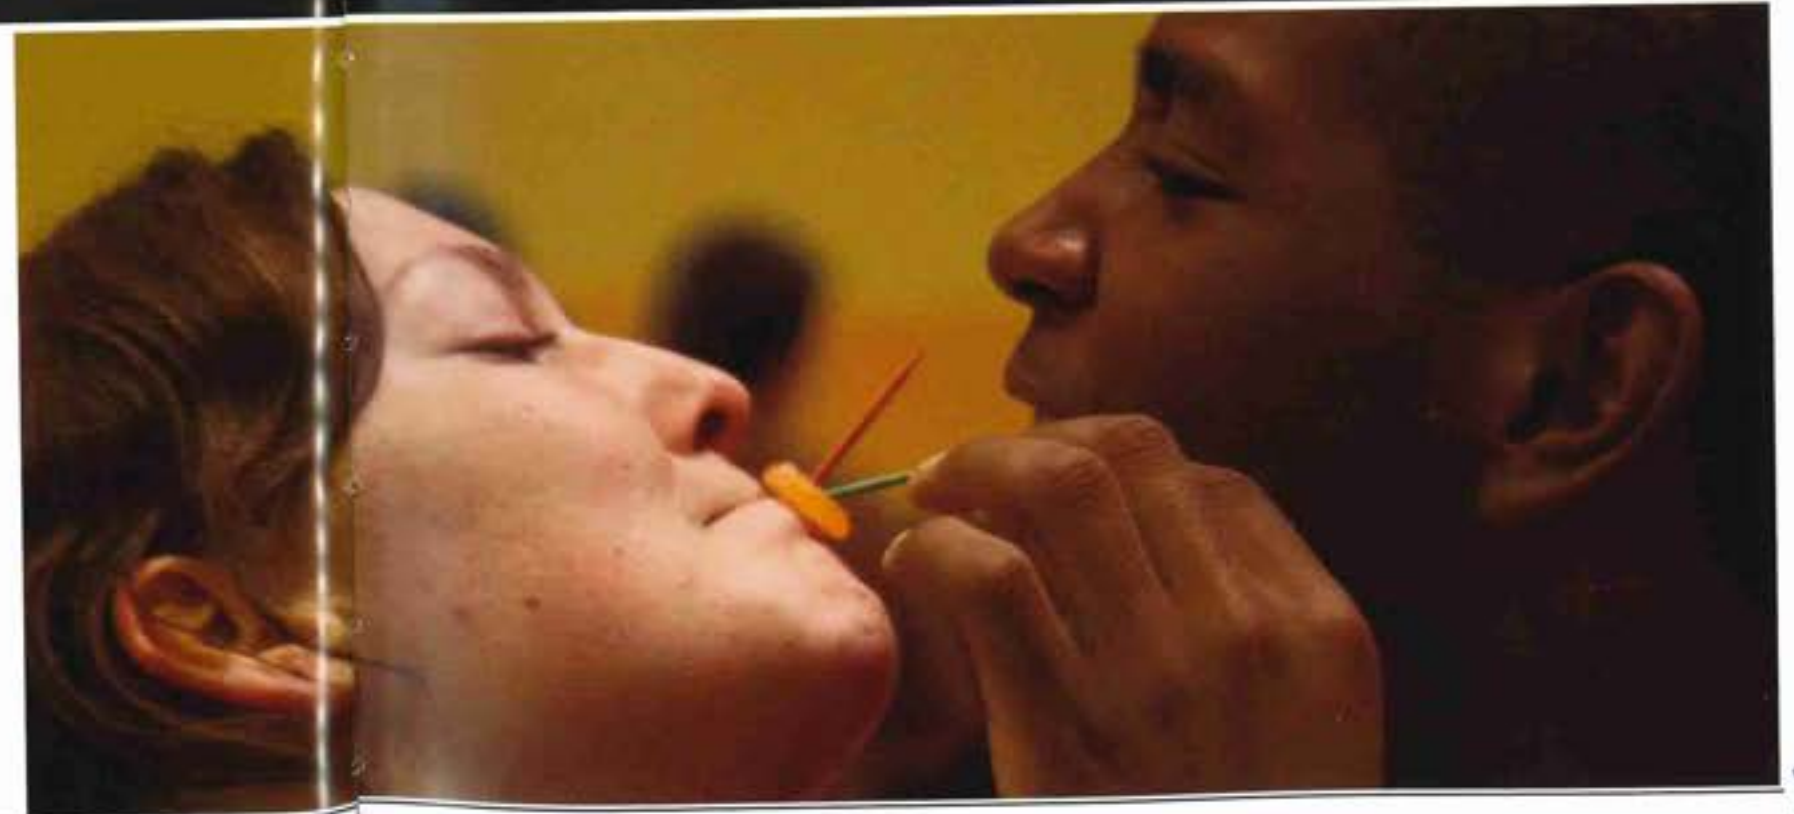

ONEMIXER

SA EXTRAVAGANZA

The theme of this years SA Mixer was none other than CLOWNS. Entering the gym, the students were grouped by multi-colors strings. Participating in silly activities and games, we all got to spend time with others for the first time in a Blue Mountain Academy Saturday night activity setting. One of the more funny games was like Lifesaver/Toothpick Game. This forced us to get in each others faces. At the end of the night we all gathered and waited for the raffle to begin. Winning prizes and playing fun games was a good way to break the ice.

Bonding and teamwork are the two main concepts expressed on Senior Retreat. Venturing into this weekend in the wood with the Class of 2011, we can all say that we had a great time. I'm not allowed to tell you the nitty-gritty, but it was a great experience. Getting to know others in your class and seeing if you can take the pressure of being a senior is a great challenge. In the end, we were all rewarded with senior class shirts and showers.

ONE CLASS BOND

Junior and senior officer presentations and class competition were good reasons to be hyped for Fall Picnic 2010. Seniors were rocking their class shirts from Senior Retreat. Juniors wore blue, sophomores followed with their green class shirts and our freshies sported purple. All the classes did well but the SENIORS left the field on top. The weather was beautiful, the pizza afterward was delicious, and the bonding of classmates left students feeling content.

ITEM

ALMOST ANYTHING GOES

Gather all our random belongings. It's time for Almost Anything Goes. With all the four corners of the gym filled with scattered objects, it was time for the competition. As Coach called out random items (rubber bands, driver's license, etc.), participants scurried to find the item. With all the silly activities Coach has us doing, we can all say that we enjoyed ourselves. Especially while doing the Cot Ny Joe.

SA CHRISTMAS PARTY

MINUTE TO WIN IT

A night filled with activities relating to survival. Everyone seemed to enjoy themselves, and the gym was filled with smiles. With the sophomores, juniors, and seniors proudly wearing their class shirts, and the freshmen rockin' their purple, the gym was filled with class pride. In the end the SENIORS took the prize, but we were all filled with happy hearts.

ONE CHALLENGE

SURVIVOR
NIGHT

This year SA decided to try something new for a winter banquet. The student body wondered why it was a white banquet, until they walked into the IA Building and saw the black lights. All the students glowed in their white. Afterwards it was off to a fun night at the bowling alley.

MOMMY + DADDY

Eric and Bradley,

Although you both came to us in different ways, we have been so blessed by God to be chosen as your parents. It has been our privilege to see you grow physically and spiritually into young men. It is hard to believe that your time at BMA is drawing to a close. It has only been through the power of prayer and the generosity of many that has made this milestone possible. You both have excelled academically, socially, and spiritually. As you move on to the next phase of your life, use what you have learned at BMA to set the Christian example to those around you. Be strong and vigilant in your beliefs by standing firm on the promise of everlasting life. Our dreams for you are nothing in comparison to what God has planned for each of you. Take time each day to be still and listen to Him lead. As your parents, we are so proud of the young men that you have become. Be strong and courageous. Life can be hard. You can always find rest in God. And remember, there will always be an empty bed at home for you if needed. Congratulation sons!

We love you,

All our Love,
 Mom & Dad

Our Dear Emily,

One of the toughest decisions we made was to give you permission to attend BMA. As you know; it was totally your (and Diana's) idea. When you introduced the idea to us, we thought it would pass. You convinced us to go and "just look at the campus and interview the staff". During the interview; you leaned forward in your chair and said "Mommy, please let me come here".

How does a parent let their 14 year old little girl move out and attend school so far away? It was tough and I missed you terribly. But over the years, I have watched you grow into a beautiful young lady in so many ways. As you go onto college remember the values you were taught. We are so proud of you!

Congratulations on your many accomplishments!!
We love you so much.....Mom and Dad

Emily,

I have watched you from afar for many, many years. I have seen you grow from a small, quiet, shy, pretty little girl into an even prettier young woman who is full of self-confidence and potential. Continue as you are my lady and trust in yourself and those you love. You will go far and I am looking forward to seeing just where that may be.

Congratulations and Good Luck in all you do.

COURTNEY SARGENT

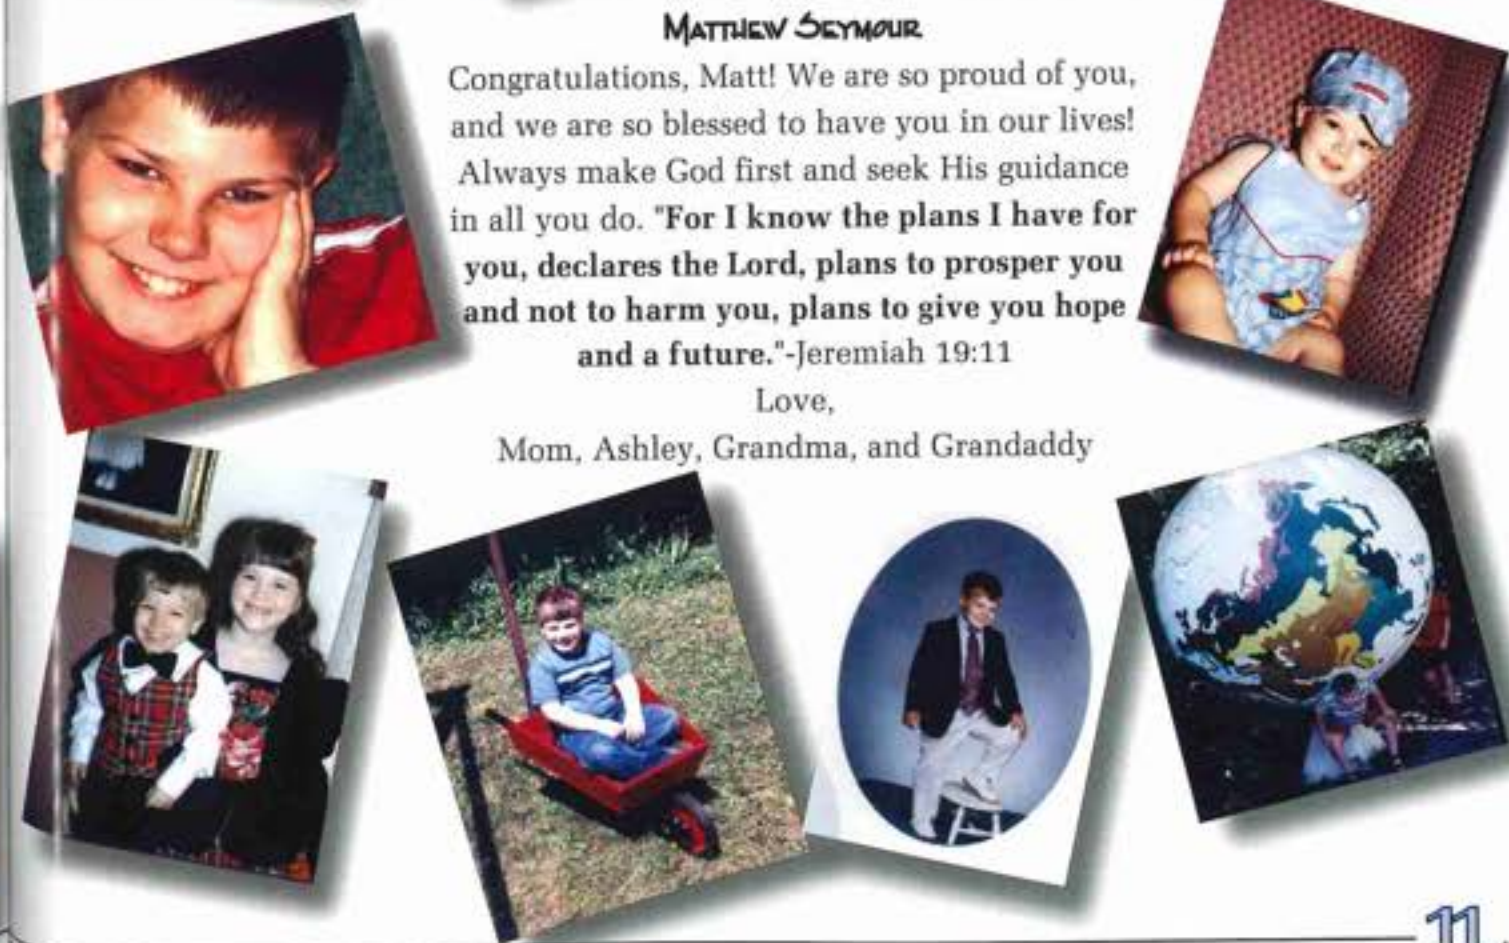

Dear Courtney,
When God gave you to us, He performed a very special act of great love. We have always cherished you, God's gift to us, and have places you back into His hands through prayer. We have watched you blossom and grow into a kind, handsome, fine, God-fearing young man. As you journey through life, remember to "seek ye first the kingdom of God, and His righteousness" (Matt. 6:33) Go toward your dreams with confidence, knowing that with God all things are possible. Give God your heart, and always trust Him. Finally, as a young man, embrace the following text as you make many choices in life: "Wherewithal shall a young man cleanse his way? By taking heed thereto according to thy word." (Ps. 119:9) We are very proud of you.

Love you Diana!

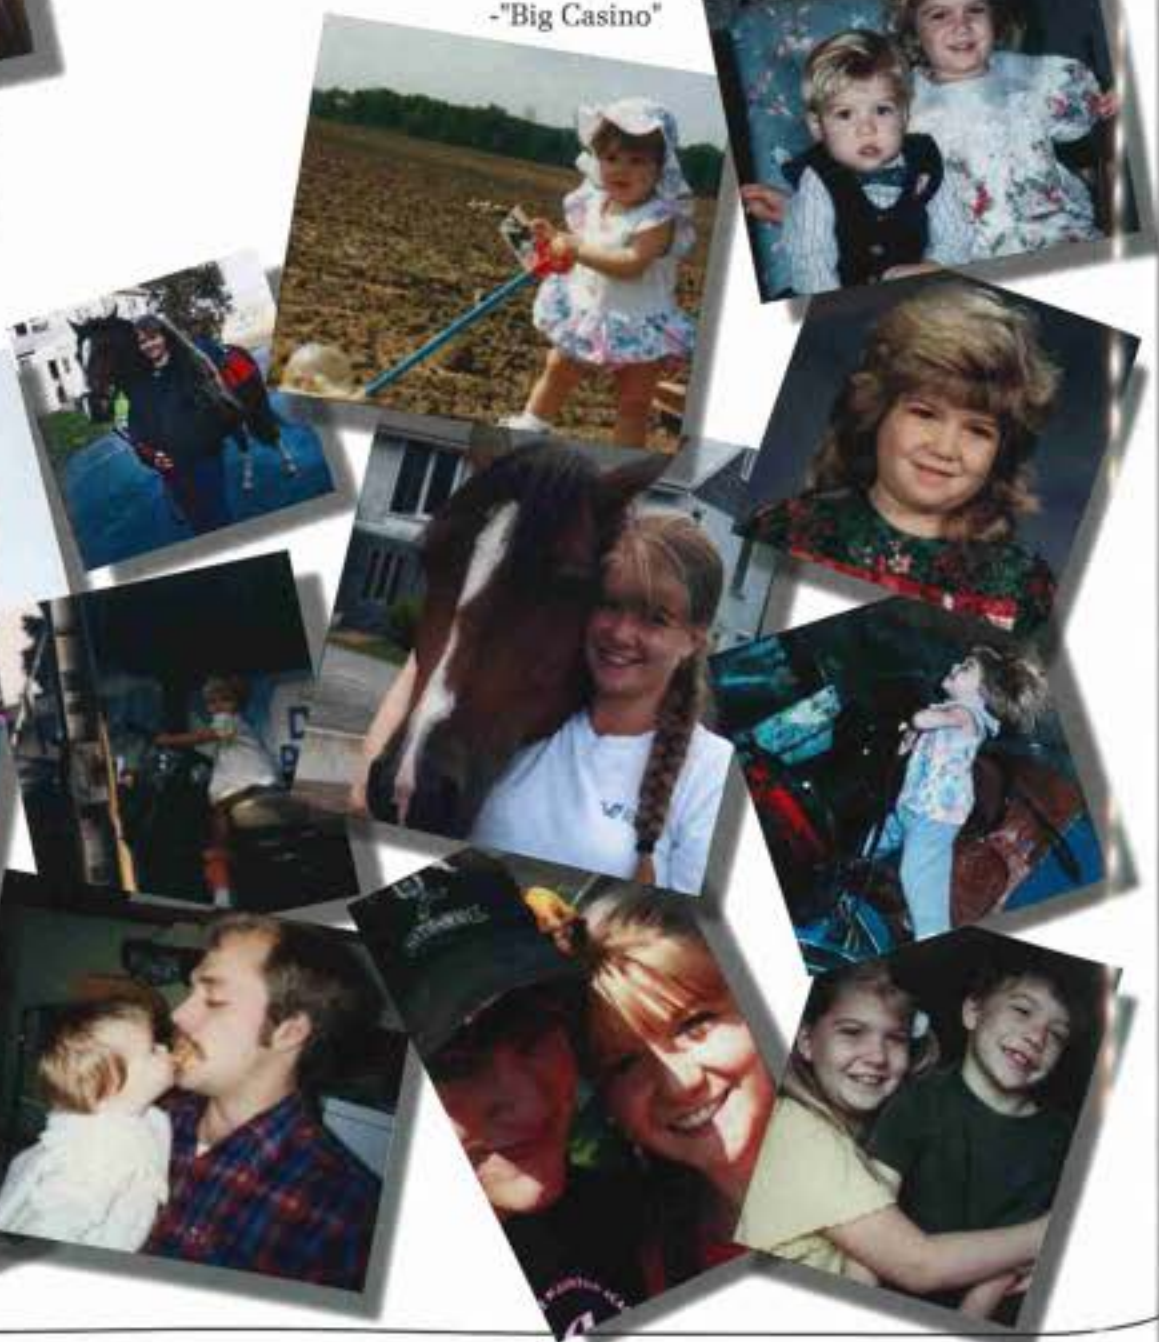

-Your Mom

Little Casino - I'm the proudest a "Daddy" could be! Congratulations on a great job in high school. Can't wait to see what you do with the rest of your schooling. I know you'll be the best that you can be.

Love you more than anything you can say.

With love,

-"Big Casino"

Jevoni McAllister

Dear Jevoni

Congratulations, on the accomplishment of God's appointed milestone. What seemed impossible four years ago, has certainly, become a divine reality. All things worked together for your good, because of your love for God. It is our prayers that you will continue to delight your self in the Lord, so that he will grant you the desires of your heart, (Ps .123:4).

May God Bless you as you embark on another God appointed milestone in college.

We love you!!!

Mom, Dad, Dianelle, William Sr, William Jr, Nathaniel, and Nyomi

Dearest Nia,

You've done it! You're a high school graduate.

There are no words that can fully express how we feel at this moment. The moment we see our little girl walking across the stage. The moment we realize she's headed off to college to make her dreams a reality. Nia, we are SO proud of you!

You are truly an amazing young woman. Allow God to use all of your gifts - your intellect, style, and beauty - to help those in need. Always remember, every good and perfect gift comes from the Father above.

Live out God's PURPOSE in your life. Know that we are always there for you and can only love you more and more with each passing day.

Most importantly, continue to grow spiritually. Your walk with God is the most important journey you will ever make. Make God your confidant, your guide - Your BFF.

"Pile your troubles on God's shoulders. He'll carry your load. He'll help you out. He'll never let good people topple into ruin." Psalms 55:22 (The Message)

Take this promise wherever you go. God's favor is upon you. You, Nia Marisa Johnson, are destined for greatness!

With Love,

Mom, Dad, Adam and Jair

AJDaisy,
